OVER 1,000 ATTEND OPENING SESSION OF FORWARD MOVEMENT

Spiritual Note Dominant At 1 First Meeting of Convention -Delegates From All Western Ontario Present-Bishop Farthing of Montreal and Rev. John Mac-Neill of Toronto Speak.

(By Isabel C. Armstrong.) No church in the city would have enough to accommodate he great gathering which assembled it the armories last evening for the pening of the London convention of he United National campaign of the nter-Church Forward Movement.

Approximately 1,000 delegates, Anglian, Baptist, Congregationalist, Metholist and Presbyterian, had arrived the city from all over Western On n the city from all over Western Onarlo, west of a line drawn from Port Dover to Collingwood, and, in addition, hundreds upon hundreds of citizens were present who have been deeply interested in the past two weeks in the Gipsy Smith mission.

The hymns sung were those of the Gipsy Smith mission, which concluded the previous night; the same choir was in its place, conducted on this occasion by Rev. G. Q. Warner, with clarence E. Gilmour at the plano, and the message delivered was the message of the stirring two weeks of the mison the forward movement. The one eed of the world is the forward movement. The one eed of the world is the healing and rotherhood of the cross of Jesus rotherhood of the cross of Jesus Christ."

The spiritual note of the forward movement campaign was insistently ounded by all three speakers, Mayor C. R. Somerville, who performed the tuties of chairman, His Lordship Bishop Farthing of Montreal, and Rev. John MacNeill, D.D., of Toronto. Has the idea gone abroad that the inter-church forward movement is a novement largely for the purpose of realizing vast financial objectives?

Gave Emphatic Negation. Gave Emphatic Negation.

Bishop Farthing gave emphatic nega-tion to this in his statement. "Though would like to see a church free from the carking cares of poverty, a rich church is not my ideal. A church hight pile up millions, yet be impotent o save a soul. Mere money will never save a soul. Don't get materialistic deas into your soul. The powerful church is the church in which people's souls are on fire with love to God, whose lives are consecrated to Christ, and whose daily lives are the expreson of their leve to Christ, and their

"When people give themselves, there s no fear that the money will flow n the direction of their hearts' interest. If the church makes consecration of its service and work, there is no fear for the great Dominion and its influence in the world. In the name of Christ let us renew our consecration to Him and to His service."

Raising the Question.

Rev. John MacNeill, raising the question, "What forward movement of the church will carry this movement for burch will carry this movement forward?" And he answered it thus: "A movement that will lead to a deep, humble and profound repentance. I don't believe in the power of a church until it is on its knees. We talk of calls to national repentance and corporate confession. In the last analysis, confession and repentance must be in the individual heart of the individual

"I don't anticipate that men will be swept into the kingdom of Christ in a mechanical way, but through the serice of personel testimony to the love and grace of Jesus Christ. We must catch as individuals the great shep-herd spirit that left the ninety-and-

Farthing referred to the fact that he was back in familiar environment,
greeted by familiar feces, in the Diocese of Huron, in which he was ordained,
and from which he went to Montreal.
An apostole precedent, he declared,
something dear to the Anglican heart,
was to be found for a church forward inovement. Paul was the first Christian organizer of a campaign fund, on behelf of the poor Christians in Jerusalem. He had an objective, and he wrote campaign literature, as contained in the eighth and ninth chapters of the second epistile to the Corinthians. Further, his campaign literature preceded the canvassers.

Allowed to Lapse.

"If this idealism is allowed to lapse," it will be an unpardonable crime at the door of the church of selection and the second place, said the speaker, it is emperative to vindicate the principles of Jesus in peace, as they were vidicated in the war.

Had Christianity been discredited in Facing Biggest Crisis.

"The church today," he continued, "is facing the biggest crisis in centuries, and undertaking in meeting this crisis it be greatest task before her since apostic times.

"We have this tremendous task. We must put the objective in view." He referred to the tremendous unrest of the world, commercial, social, industrial, political, personal, and in religious life. Everything is in a state of flux, and the possibility apparently hopeless of grasping enough truth to hold up. What is the hope of the world in this unrest?

Such a movement. Mr. MacNeill believed, had not yet taken place after the war, but it is coming, he prophesied, warning of the necessity of being prepared to take part in it.

"Every man, woman, boy or girl," he said, "should hold himself or herself in readiness to be a channel through which God might fulfill his purpose."

Second Ideal of Move.

The second ideal of the forward movement to which attention was drawn was that of making Christ the ruling, recognized sovereign of lifs.

"All of us are to a certain extent humbugs," he continued. "What we want is practicing Christians, I hold a faith, but it is no use to hold it unless I put it into practice every day of my life.

Practical Christianity.
In addition to exercise of a practical Christianity, emphasis was laid by speakers upon the supreme importance of exercise of a militant Christianity, the carrying on of the warefare against the enemies of Christ and righteousness, out of the trenches, over the top, to the attack.
Calling attention to the dauntless faith of the men who fought and suffered and died in the great war in the ultimate triumph of right and inevitable victory, Mayor Somerville declared that it is in the spirit of conquest that the church alliance must carry forward the great movement which had its birth in the war.

Opening his address on "Ideals Before Us in the Forward Movement," Bishop Farthing referred to the fact that he was back in familiar environment,
