CATTLE MARKETS.

at the regular time. The consequence was that drovers loading stock on the C.P.R. at a competitive point a few miles from Palmerston had their stock on the market many hours before the drovers shipping from Palmerston. Wesley Dunn, the wholesale sheep, lamb and calf dealer, says sheep are easier, and that lambs will soon be within the reach of those who have not tasted spring lamb this season, Mr. Dunn looks for much lower prices for sheep, as well as lambs, in the near future. The Temiscaming, McKinley-Darragh, Buffalo, Kerr Lake, City of Cobalt and Crown Reserve are at this writing running in The Toronto World notices of pending dividends.

just as promising as the few acres of partially developed ground where the mine buildings have been erected.

The great Temiskaming has established a record. It has declared a second dividend of three per cent. and
