DUFFERIN SCHOOL OLD BOYS GATHER

Peter McArthur and Others
Speak in Reminiscent Vein at Banquet.

Surprise was expressed by Peter McArthur, Saturday night, at the spirit of jazz that predominated in Toronto today, in the course of his remarks at the 22nd annual banquet of the Dufferin School Old Boys' Association, held in the King Edward Hotel.

Mr. McArthur's speech was replete with anecdotes, humor and patriotic sentiment, and he paid warm tribute to the Canadian pioneers. In clearing up the wilderness and suffering ex- treme hardship in making homes for themselves, they had performed just as great deeds as anyone else in the empire.

Under the enlivening influence of Jules Brazil's jazz band, the old boys, some four hundred in number, sat down to dinner each decorated with a paper cap, and everyone anxious to let the world know that the 22nd ban- quet was by far a greater success than any former year.

"Service" School's Motto.

R. A. Stappella, the president, spoke of the men who had attended Dufferin school and who had made their mark as leading citizens in Tor- onto. A great influence was wielded by the graduates, who remembered the school motto, "service." The pres- ent pupils, of whom many were for- eigners, were inspired with a desire to uphold the traditions of the school when they realized how former pupils had made the name of the school one that would never be forgotten.

The old boys, he said, when they realized that the association was formed with a desire for service, would make the organization one that would be to the greater benefit.

Rev. E. A. Henry, B.A., D.D., in responding to the toast, "The Old School," recalled the old days and paid a deep tribute to Richard Lewis. In answer to his request, about ten members stood up as pupils who had attended the school when it first opened.

The toast, "Canada and a United Empire," was responded to by Nor- man Somerville, who gave a vivid, racy and patriotic speech, inter- spersed with many anecdotes.

Motives Make Nation Great.

"Canada," said he, "is just you and I, and motives alone make a nation great." He complimented the mem- bers on the wonderful spirit of the organization and pointed out that Dufferin sons were not only in To- ronto or Canada, but were scattered over the whole earth. In conclusion, he adjured the members ever to keep in mind the motto, "Canada and the British empire, one and undivided."

M. A. Sorsella, B.A., responding to the toast, "Sister Associations," was much surprised that, instead of find- ing the members in a contemplative mood, they were volcanic. He spoke of the importance of maintaining the spirit of honor and comradeship in after life, without which all the les- sons would be useless.

Miss Vera McLean was heartily applauded for her contralto solo, as were Joseph Quintelle and Frank Blackford for selections on the violin and harp. The O'Connor sisters sang cleverly and Frank Terry, from Loew's, "brought down the house."

MAKE MANY SUBJECTS OPTIONAL WITH PUPILS

The committee appointed by the minister of education to investigate high school education has submitted an interim report recommending a variation of compulsory subjects for the lower, middle and upper schools.

For the lower school the obligatory subjects are English (literature, com- position), physiology and Canadian history, algebra or geometry; the op- tional subjects are arithmetic, gram- mar, art, geography, botany and zoology or agriculture, Latin, French, Greek, German, Spanish or Italian.

For the middle school, English is the only obligatory subject. Physics, chemistry, British history, ancient or general European history are optional; in addition to those subjects of the lower school.

The committee considers that no subject should be obligatory for the upper school, nor should the num- ber of subjects taken up be stipu- lated.

Pupils, not principals, should have the option of choosing subjects.

The report suggests that an exam- ination in agriculture should be ac- cepted in lieu of elementary science, physics and chemistry in the junior matriculation regulations. Of the many changes suggested in high school subjects, the most prominent are that any of the four languages, French, German, Spanish or Italian, may be taught at the discretion of the principal.

A further report on other types of school that would combine academic or cultural subjects with "prevoca- tional" training, of various kinds, will be submitted later on by the commit- tee. "Municipalities," reads the re- port, "should be encouraged to ex- periment in the organization of such types of schools."

FORM JEWISH SOCIETY TO ADVANCE CULTURE

At a meeting of university gradu- ates held at Hart House, a Jewish men- orial society was formed for the study and advancement of Jewish cul- ture and ideals. Similar societies are now in existence at the largest uni- versity centres on the continent.

The officers elected for the in- stitute are: President, Dr. Frederick Singer; vice-president, Dr. Louis J. Breslin; treasurer, David B. Goodman; secretary, Solomon Eisen; committee, Rabbi Dr. Barnett R. Bricker, S. M. Mehr and Dr. A. I. Willinsky.

Building Delays Opening Of New Nurses' Home

Owing to delays in building, it has been impossible to hold the formal opening of the new St. Michael's Hospital nurses' residence on Shuter street.

"We are hoping," the reverend mother superior said, "to be able to get in by at least another month. We are now planning to hold the graduation and opening exercises to- gether. Of course, this will all de- pend upon the progress made in fin- ishing up the building. Originally, we had hoped to be in by new year."

We have been expecting every month that it would be finished."

DISCUSS PRIVILEGES OF UNION WORKMEN

President J. G. Gorman and Secretary Travers Council, had an interview with Administrator W. Pierce of the board of education on Tuesday re- garding the board's proposal to bar union members from the same high- way privileges as enjoyed by other employees.

"The whole question was gone into very thoroughly and it is to be brought before the board of education at its next meeting, when a labor deputa- tion will be there to present the case for the union workmen."

NEW INSTRUMENTAL RECORDS.

GREY-HAIRED WOMEN LEAVES GIRLS BEHIND

At the Women's Business Club on Saturday noon, Mrs. Blair, who is giv- ing a course of lectures on health and how to create and maintain efficiency, was the guest of the occasion and gave a most inspiring address. Because the girl of today is averse to work and thinks of nothing but having a good time, she is being superseded by the gray-haired women in business. The message to the girls of the club. All over the United States and Canada, said the speaker, it is the mature woman who has the position of re- sponsibility. If girls train their brain and keep their body healthy by suffi- cient rest, the right kind of exercise and by learning to radiate brightness wherever they go, they can get any position they like, was the summing up of the speaker.

Mrs. Mary McMahon, president of the club, introduced the lecturer.

SONS OF ENGLAND ARRANGE CELEBRATION

At a combined meeting of the United Toronto lodges of the Sons of England Benevolent Society, held at head- quarters, 58 East Richmond street, the following officers were elected to look after details connected with this year's annual commemoration of the death of Queen Victoria.

Officers: T. H. Cairne, D.D., vice-chair- man; H. Higham, D.D., treasurer; F. J. Norris, D.D., secretary; T. H. War- rington, D.D., president.

An executive committee, consisting of two delegates from each of the five Toronto districts, was also elected to assist the officers.

It has been decided to hold this year's annual church service in St. Anne's Anglican Church, Gladstone avenue, on Sunday, May 22nd. The service will be held at 11 o'clock, and will include a fine program from 7:30 to 8:15, when the concert proper com- menced.

The singing of the Bathurst choir, under direction of Dr. Donald Mac- Gregor, was an outstanding feature of the program. The choir sang with unanimity of attack and with splendid balance and total quality. The accom- paniment was artistically played by Mrs. Stanley Lund and Miss Ethel E. Dever, while the Scotch duets by Vera McLean and Dr. MacGregor, both of whom wore full Highland kilts, caused these artists to be re-called again and again.

Wm. Huh-Insion, no home, was ar- rested on Saturday afternoon by De- tective Tom Sullivan on a charge of theft of a furworth $150 from the Murray-Kay Co.
