

means of obtaining these advantages. The benefit derived in every case that has come under my notice has been most satisfactory.

No Institution is more needed, or more capable of doing good to suffering humanity, than the "Convalescent Home" at Murray Bay, and in my opinion none is more worthy of support.

With best wishes for success of your plans for increased usefulness, I am,

Yours respectfully,

OLIVER C. EDWARDS, M.D.

MISS HERVEY.

MONTREAL, 10th April, 1877.

DEAR MISS HERVEY,

I have pleasure in bearing testimony to the great value of the work done by your Convalescent Home in Murray Bay, having had opportunity to visit it and witness the character of your work.

Wishing you continued and abundant success in your labors of love,

I remain,

Very faithfully yours,

J. J. DUGDALE, M.D.

MISS HERVEY.
