TROPICAL ISLANDS ARE GOING CHEAP

LONDON, April 18.—Among the latest arrivals in London is a man anxious to sell several West Indian Islands above which floats the British flag. He is the landlord of five of the Bahama group, the first glimpse of which, in 1492, set the foot of Christopher Columbus jumping at the thought that at last he had found the arch of all you survey. That is the largest of the five, is six miles long, and boasts a plantation of cocoa-nut trees. London society may well buy islands, especially when they are cheap. For $4000 you can purchase sovereignty, you can be monarch of all you survey. That is the price at which the islands, big and small, work out. With his wife and two children, the owner has lived and reigned in his domain for seven years. The plateau at the northern end of the island, 50 feet above sea level, he describes as a most healthy and pleasant dwelling place. In the phrases of the suburban house agent this island king directs attention to the fact that "the view from our house has been described by visitors as the finest in the Bahamas." The islands can be had for $20,000 the lot.

CAT'S LONG JOURNEY.

LONDON, April 18.—The famous predecessor, Dick Whittington, the present Lord Mayor of London, has a remarkable cat. According to the "Queen" and Sir Vansittart Bowater vouchers for the truth of the story—the cat was brought from the lord mayor's private residence at Croydon to the city on Dec. 14 last by the lord mayor's coachman. Two days later it was missing from the Mansion House, and it has only just turned up at Croydon. It has returned sleek and well after its three months' journey.
