BETTER THAN HARD COAL
Soft coal so free from soot that it does not make whippers on stove covers or pipe and does not mat, or cake when burning, is far better than Hard Coal for general household use. Quicker to light, takes less to make a fire, cheaper in price and can also be used for open fires and small heating stoves. Such a coal is Broad Cove soft coal. The main thing is to insist on getting the genuine article. No other soft coal burns just like Broad Cove. You will know it by the above characteristics.

TIRANA NOW IS "TOY CAPITAL"
Replaces Cetinje as New State is Admitted Into the League of Nations.

(Associated Press by mail.)
Tirana, Albania, May 8.—The distinction of being the "toy capital of Europe" so long enjoyed by Cetinje, the old site of the palace and court of King Nicholas, of Montenegro, falls now to Tirana, the capital of Albania, where regents, chiefs, boys, ministers and diplomats are beginning to congregate to set up the governmental magnificence of the new state, the last to be admitted into the League of Nations.
Tirana still lies in the dark. She has no communication with the outside world except a wagon road leading to her seaport, Durazzo. She boasts a market place and five mosques and has lately adapted an old building into a hotel called "The International Hotel." The government palaces are scattered throughout her winding, narrow streets, which are lined with merchants displaying their wares and sitting with crossed legs in the Arab fashion.
The stores and houses, roofed with a red tile, are all of one story. Distinction is given the government buildings, in the fact that they have two stories. All are old buildings adapted to the use of government by the introduction of a few chairs and desks. Each building has no store or office on the ground floor. Inside his office, the minister calls his ushers by an old-fashioned table bell, electric bells being wholly unknown in this primitive land. With stern severity, everyone addresses the minister as "Your Excellency."
Diplomats have only a few residences in Tirana. Minister Ayres, the British plenipotentiary, who has the unique dignity of being the only representative of the only country to recognize Albania formally, lives in Durazzo, making the trip there when state functions demand it. Italy also maintains a diplomatic residence in Durazzo.

Theatre on Saturday afternoon when, after the performance, the leading lady, Miss Marty Dupree, carried little Jimmy Fitzgerald, the three-year-old St. John lad (who has the distinction of being the only living member of a group of triplets) in her arms to the dressing rooms of the members of her company where each donation was generously given by each and every one of the actors to the little tot in recognition of his brilliant work in singing his way into the hearts of the generous-hearted company of actors and the large audience present.
