HASTE IN 100-YEAR-OLD CASE BRINGS TAFT CHUCKLE IN COURT

Washington, March 23.—A request was made to the Supreme Court of the United States recently to advance the date for argument on the case involving the boundary line between New York and Massachusetts, which affects property in Rochester.

Associate Justice Holmes leaned over and whispered something in the ear of Chief Justice Taft. The Taft chuckle sounded from the dignified bench.

"Mr. Justice Holmes says," remarked Mr. Taft, "that there is little use in placing two months ahead on the calendar a matter which is already one hundred years old."

The Court took the request under advisement.
