Social Notes Of Interest

Forerunners of the happy Easter tide are to be in evidence today when the young people are returning home from Netherwood Girls' School for the previous two weeks, that bring respite after the long winter term. Among the girls arriving will be Miss Muriel Tapley, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Clark, 6 Gernain street, with whom she will spend her vacation; Miss Daphne Paterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Paterson; Miss Isabel Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Foster; Miss Margaret Tilley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley; Miss Zoe Paterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Downing Paterson; Miss Constance Watson, daughter of Mrs. Alexander Watson; Miss Margaret and Miss Rachel Armstrong, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong; Miss Marjorie Harding, who will spend her vacation at her home in Hammond River.

Others who will go to their various homes in the Maritimes are Miss Edith Richardson, daughter of His Lordship, Bishop Richardson, and Mrs. Richardson, Fredericton; Miss Edith Rand, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

I. C. Rand, Moncton; Miss Ethel Lugsdin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lugsdin, Moncton; Miss Marjorie Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Shaw, of Sydney, Cape Breton; Miss Sheila Macdonald, Halifax, and Miss Janet Macdonald, Cape Breton.

Miss Ruth Milligan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Milligan, New York, who is attending Netherwood, will spend her Easter vacation with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Milligan, Moncton.

Mrs. T. William Barnes, who underwent a serious operation is now recovering sufficiently to see some of her friends, who are delighted that she is so much stronger.

Miss Marjorie Sanction, who is to be married this month, was the occasion of a pretty novelty shower, when Miss Marion Bolyea was hostess at the tea hour at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Freeman W. Hamm, Douglas avenue, yesterday afternoon for about 30 young lady friends of the bride-elect. Daffodils and snapdragons made a lovely decoration in the rooms. A cart decorated in Easter fashion and holding the many gifts for Miss Sanction, was wheeled in by little Miss Marjorie Hamm. Miss Sanction will be the occasion for several other functions before her wedding day.

Mrs. R. Ernest Smith entertained yesterday afternoon at her residence at a bridge of four tables in honor of Mrs. E. N. Williams, of Cornwall, England, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. A. Fisher.

Knox Church Ladies' Aid enjoyed a delightful social hour yesterday afternoon, being entertained at the home of Mrs. E. J. Terry. There were 35 guests. Mrs. C. H. Gibbon and Mrs. Howard Chalmers presided at the tea table, which was prettily decorated with yellow daffodils and lavender hyacinths. Miss Gladys Gibbon, Mrs. Arnold Gibbon and Mrs. Arthur McArthur assisted in serving. The afternoon was declared one of the most pleasant of the season.

Mrs. J. M. Woodman has gone to Boston, New York and Washington to visit her son, Mr. F. C. Woodman, and Mrs. Woodman. Mr. Woodman is an officer on the Presidential yacht, the U. S. S. Mayflower, at Washington.

The friends of Miss Winnifred G. Smith met at the Sign of the Lantern tea room Saturday afternoon and tendered her a handkerchief shower after enjoying a cosy tea. The handkerchiefs were arranged in the form of an old-fashioned nosegay and presented Miss Smith, who was delightfully surprised. Among the guests were Miss Smith, Mrs. E. F. Trueman, Miss Edith Trueman, Mrs. H. A. Seelye, Mrs. Hial Brown, Mrs. W. T. McKee, Mrs. Charles A. Clark, Mrs. J. H. D. Turner, Miss Audrey Turner, Mrs. James

LACK NOTHING ON WORLD CRUISE

Word From St. John Travelers on Round the World Trip.

The Times has received from Mrs. E. Atherton Smith a copy of the daily bulletin issued by wireless press on the S. S. Empress of Canada on her round-the-world cruise. This bulletin was issued on February 26, when the steamship was in the Red Sea. Mrs. Smith writes on the margin:—

"Very warm here, but pleasant. There is a dance on deck at this moment, 10 p. m., and a Mah Jongg progressive party in the card rooms." The bulletin contains short dispatches from London, Montreal, New York and Nice, and the price of leading stocks at the close of the New York stock exchange. It also tells how three Canadian Pacific steamers patrolled a portion of the Red Sea in 1914-15, went later to China, and then to the Atlantic to convoy African troops to France.

The bulletin is not without its share of advertisements. One tells the passengers that on Deck A, at certain stated hours they may get masquerade fancy dresses, oriental curios, kimono, perfumes, bathing suits, ornamental jewelry, postcards, candy, kodaks, films and binoculars; and may have films developed, optical repairing done, and group photographs taken. Other announcements tell of the barber shop, with manicurist in attendance, the ladies' hairdresser and beauty parlor, the gymnasium and swimming pool, the laundry, shore information, and the tender service at ports of call.

Of course a newspaper, even as small as this bulletin, must have some local news, and here is what the reporters turned in for this issue:—

The Local News. "Among others who slept on the Sahara desert Saturday night and who were awakened Sunday morning by the howling of their tents from over them were Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Hubbell of Melford, Me., Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Shuttleworth of Jersey City, and Mrs. Gard Foster of Syracuse, N. Y. The experience was too much for Mr. Hubbell. He left Cairo without claiming his valises in the safe at the Hotel Continental, but was spared further humiliation when his wife confided to him, just as he was about to wireless back instructions, that she had brought them.

"There is no truth in the report that Miss Sarah Lynch was elected president of the St. John (North) sub-division of the Catholic Women's League at the annual meeting last night and Miss M. H. McCloskey, retiring president, was specially commended for her efficiency in office during the pioneer days. Miss McCloskey was the first president and the sub-division was the first in St. John.

Reports showed a successful year. It was announced that the sub-division had received its charter. Plans were made for a social. Mrs. Frank Fitzgerald was appointed convener with an able committee to assist.

The election resulted as follows: President, Miss Sarah Lynch; vice-presidents, first, Mrs. Joseph Kennedy; second, Mrs. Alice Phillips; third, Mrs. James P. Quinn; treasurer, Miss Helen Murphy; corresponding secretary, Miss Elna Higgins; recording secretary, Miss Genevieve Dever; additional members of the executive, Mrs. Margaret Corkery, Mrs. Alfred Dever, Mrs. M. A. Quinn, Mrs. William O'Connor, Mrs. Fred Broderick, Mrs. John G. Burke, Miss Ida Kelgan, Miss Marie Hansen, Mrs. Sarah Doherty and Mrs. Frank Fitzgerald.

Rev. George Coffin, C. S. S. R., chaplain, spoke in glowing terms of Miss McCloskey's efficiency as president and had words of praise for the work of the league.

HOLDS FINAL MEETING. St. George church, W. A., held its closing meeting Monday evening and, under the convenship of Mrs. Blizard and Mrs. Fred Gilman, about 40 members enjoyed a bountiful supper.

A pleasing feature was the presentation of gifts to Mrs. J. C. Martin and Mrs. W. Williamson, who are about to leave the city. After the presentation speeches were made by Rev. W. H. Sampson, rector, Mrs. Corey Green, president, Mrs. William Waring, junior superintendent. The remainder of the evening was spent socially.

Bon Ami

Cleaning windows loses its drudgery when you use Bon Ami! Just apply a thin lather of Bon Ami with a damp cloth. Wait until the white film dries. Then whisk it off with a dry cloth. Not a streak, smear or fingerprint remains! The window is so clear you have to poke it to make sure it's still there! A window a minute is an average record with Bon Ami.

And this housewife's "good friend" is just as wonderful a cleaner for a host of other things—white woodwork, enamel, nickel, brass, tiling, etc. And no matter how much you use it, it never roughens your hands.

Moses' chariot, or even a wheel, was found on the anchor when lifted at Surx on that a white cross on the beach marks the spot when Jonah swallowed the whale. Both reports have been officially denied by the chairman of the rumor committee.

"When the Chinese crew produces another play later during the cruise donations will be asked to defray costume costs and other incidental expenses. What remains of the sum received will be turned over to the Canton Charities by the chief purser.

"Passengers who have taken books from the ship's library are asked to remember, please, that others may want to read them and that they should not be retained more than a week at a time.

"James J. Torrey of Vancouver, popularly known as 'Barney Google', reports that his reputation as a mountain climber remains intact and unchallenged. He negotiated the Great Pyramid of Gizeh in fifteen minutes, Arab time.

"Those wishing to participate in the progressive Mah Jongg party tonight should go to the smoking room, with their sets, if any, promptly at 8:30 o'clock.

"Ad the filtered water in the water coolers that appeared on deck for the first time yesterday was brought from New York and was prepared for this special use.

"Reservations for India sidetrips positively close tonight. No changes or transfers can be made later."
