PASTORAL ADDRESS

To the Members of the Primitive Methodist Church, from the Canadian Conference.

DEARLY BELOVED BRETHREN,

Grace, mercy, and peace be multiplied unto you.
We, your representatives in Conference assembled, send you this our Annual Pastoral Address, greeting.

Our Conference has been one of pleasure, harmony, and profit ; our business has been transacted in order and concord ; our opinions may have differed, but our aims and object have been one—God's glory, in the moral elevation of mankind and the salvation of souls.

An earnest feeling has been manifested to maintain our constitutional principles in their integrity—to uphold our usages, which we believe to be scriptural, in their vigour, and a solemn, intense determination to dedicate ourselves afresh to the work for which God
