

D-7

- Q-90 Were you on pass when you went?
- A- No, sir; I wasn't on pass.
- Q-91 You just walked out of Camp, did you?
- A- Just as I have stated in my statement.
- Q-92 There is no statement before the Court.
- A- Well, sir, I have -- I can't explain myself hardly on that statement.
- Q-93 Well, there is no statement before the Court. You just tell the Court what you want to tell them now.
- THE PRESIDENT: You just tell us what you want now.
- A- Well, I have always had urges to go away, and there is nothing I can do about it. I just want to go and everything seems to be in a fog. I am myself at other times.
- Q-94 Did you just walk out during a parade or just walk out of what?
- A- I am liable to go any time.
- Q-95 I am not asking you what is liable. What did you do?
- A- I found myself out of camp and all I knew I was away.
- Q-96 And you had no pass?
- A- No, I had no pass in my pocket.
- Q-97 And you don't remember getting off the train and how you got out?
- A- I don't remember when I left the train, sir.
- Q-98 I notice you were picked up by the military police both times in civilian clothes. Did you not intend to come back to the Army?
- A- I did, sir; but I didn't intend to come back for awhile. I knew I would have to face detention when I came back and I was putting it off.
