

DON'T FORGET
That the buyers are the persons who read the papers. Use the STAR to sell your goods.

VOL. 7, NO. 57.

ST. JOHN, N. B., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1906

WEATHER
Sleet or Rain.

ONE CENT.

Coal Vases.

We have just opened a nice assortment of the above. Also

Andirons, Fire Irons, Fenders,

In Black Iron and Brass.

Minton Hollins Hearth Tiles

Will wear better and look better than any others.

W. H. THORNE & CO., LTD,

Market Square, St. John, N. B.

The "Royal Grand" Range.

Rough, uneven casting, full of holes, denotes poor iron. The castings of the Royal Grand are very smooth and will take a high polish, as the best quality of pig iron only is used in its construction.

Then again, the Enterprise Foundry Co., who make this range, employ only skilled labor, which accounts for the thorough manner in which the castings are made. Have you seen this Range? Over 300 satisfied customers are using them in this city alone.

EMERSON & FISHER, Ltd.,
25 Germain Street.

LADIES' FUR-LINED COATS!

Made by skilled workmen and of the best cloth; Hamster and Muskrat linings, Mink and Sable Collars and Reverses—Blue, Brown, Black and Cardinal. Perfect fitting.

Prices, $65.00 to $85.00.

F. S. THOMAS,
Dufferin Block,
541 Main St., N. E.

Fancy Vests!

The present season seems to favor the Fancy Vest more than ever. They live up a plain suit without giving a loud appearance. Our patterns include the very newest concepts, from the quiet designs to some that are quite striking—something for every taste.

Prices, $1.50, $2.00, $2.25 and $3.50

American Clothing House,
11-15 Charlotte St.

Christmas Presents

FOR GENTLEMEN.

JUST RECEIVED:

Smoker's Tables in Mahogany and Walnut,
From $2.50 to $10.00.
Smoker's Sets, from $1.50 to $15.00.

Thomas J. Flood, 60 King St.,
Opp. Macaulay Bros.

OVERCOATS NOW.

The Kind You're After at the Right Price.

We opened another new lot of Men's and Boys' Overcoats today. They are fresh from out of the best factories in Canada, the newest in style and make, neat patterns, and are marked at prices that will make lively selling. You can save from $2 to $3.50 on the price of your overcoat here.

Men's Overcoats, $5.00, $6.00, $7.50, $8.75, $10.00 to $24.00
Boys' Overcoats, $3.85, $4.50, $5.00, $6.00 to $13.50
Boys' D. B. Reefers, $1.85 to $4.50

J. N. HARVEY, Clothing and Furnishings,
199 to 207 Union St.

HOW THEY RUN A 20,000 CLUB IN NELSON, B. C.

Everybody is Interested and All the Citizens are Given a Chance to Do Some Active Work—Good Results Obtained.

The Star has received from John Lawlor, the Grand Trunk passenger agent of the Dominion of Canada, reached here from Ottawa in company with his wife and daughter. It was not his first visit to Portland, but on the occasion of a former visit he was very busy and did not see much of the city.

He was met on arriving here by John Lawlor, the Grand Trunk passenger agent, and his assistant, Emilie J. Caron, and the party took a drive around the city.

Mr. Lawlor notified President Frank B. Milken, of the Board of Trade, and Col. P. E. Boothby, the general passenger agent of the Maritime, of the presence of Mr. Blair in Portland, and they were anxious to see the distinguished visitor, but the time was too limited, and Mr. Lawlor conveyed to him the greeting of Col. Boothby and President Milken. Mr. Blair did not call on His Honor Mayor Clifford, because of lack of time.

Mr. Lawlor and Mr. Caron drove the visitors to Fort Allen Park, then along Congress street, to the Oaks and other points of the Longfellow mansion. The business section, and then to the Union station where they took a train for Boston.

Mr. Blair was much interested in the city generally, and of course in the Grand Trunk plant here. He was especially struck by the admirable dock facilities of the great international line.

He is interested in the historic spots in and about Portland, and regretted that he could not see the interior of the Longfellow mansion. He spoke of Portland as a summer resort and predicted a great increase in the use of summer visitors in the near future.

Mr. Blair is a very pleasant man, and is well informed regarding all matters connected with the Dominion of Canada, and is a firm believer in the good of that country.

On the return of the party from Boston they will take the Grand Trunk train for the evening for Ottawa. If his engagements would permit Mr. Blair to stop here, President Milken contemplates the possibility of meeting and arranging for a reception, but it will not be possible under the circumstances.

AMHERST, Nov. 14.—According to all reports there is still some stealing going on in the I. C. R. With the passing of cars have been found broken open and whiskey taken out here last week and other day a car in the Moncton yard was found broken into and a couple of cases of whiskey missing. This is only one of several cases reported of late.

L. C. R. Detective Williams and his crew have been busily engaged investigating the matter, but up to the present no arrests have been made, and so far as is ascertained, there is no clue to the parties committing the thefts.

HON. A. G. BLAIR ON A VISIT TO PORTLAND

Had a Look at the Grand Trunk Properties and Saw All the Sights.

PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 14.—Monday morning Hon. A. G. Blair, ex-minister of railways and canals of the Dominion of Canada, reached here from Ottawa in company with his wife and daughter. It was not his first visit to Portland, but on the occasion of a former visit he was very busy and did not see much of the city.

He was met on arriving here by John Lawlor, the Grand Trunk passenger agent, and his assistant, Emilie J. Caron, and the party took a drive around the city.

Mr. Lawlor notified President Frank B. Milken, of the Board of Trade, and Col. P. E. Boothby, the general passenger agent of the Maritime, of the presence of Mr. Blair in Portland, and they were anxious to see the distinguished visitor, but the time was too limited, and Mr. Lawlor conveyed to him the greeting of Col. Boothby and President Milken.

Mr. Blair did not call on His Honor Mayor Clifford, because of lack of time. Mr. Lawlor and Mr. Caron drove the visitors to Fort Allen Park, then along Congress street, to the Oaks and other points of the Longfellow mansion. The business section, and then to the Union station where they took a train for Boston.

Mr. Blair was much interested in the city generally, and of course in the Grand Trunk plant here. He was especially struck by the admirable dock facilities of the great international line.

He is interested in the historic spots in and about Portland, and regretted that he could not see the interior of the Longfellow mansion. He spoke of Portland as a summer resort and predicted a great increase in the use of summer visitors in the near future.

Mr. Blair is a very pleasant man, and is well informed regarding all matters connected with the Dominion of Canada, and is a firm believer in the good of that country.

On the return of the party from Boston they will take the Grand Trunk train for the evening for Ottawa. If his engagements would permit Mr. Blair to stop here, President Milken contemplates the possibility of meeting and arranging for a reception, but it will not be possible under the circumstances.

AMHERST, Nov. 14.—According to all reports there is still some stealing going on in the I. C. R. With the passing of cars have been found broken open and whiskey taken out here last week and other day a car in the Moncton yard was found broken into and a couple of cases of whiskey missing. This is only one of several cases reported of late.

L. C. R. Detective Williams and his crew have been busily engaged investigating the matter, but up to the present no arrests have been made, and so far as is ascertained, there is no clue to the parties committing the thefts.

SOME THINGS WHICH CHARITY COVERS

Mrs. Hall Meets Many Undeserving People.

Who are Seeking Help From Citizens—Several Recent Cases Referred to in the Monthly Records

When people with long faces and pitiful stories apply to the citizens for aid it is always a good plan for those citizens to call up Mrs. Hall, of the Associated Charities, and find out whether the applicants are worthy. During the past month 117 cases have been dealt with by Mrs. Hall, and of this number three groups of people were hardly of the class which it is advisable to help in the ordinary manner.

Mrs. Hall tells of a family living on Brussels street which consists of a grandmother and mother, both widows, a son, twenty years old, and four daughters, the two older being eighteen and fifteen, respectively, while the other three are not old enough to work. These people applied to Mrs. Hall for aid and after visiting them and seeing their conditions in one of the hotels. Mrs. Hall decided that the proper thing for them to do was to go to work. In very few hours had the family secured a position for the mother at eight or nine dollars a month, the work being washing dishes in one of the hotels. A position was secured for the son at six or seven dollars a week and the two oldest daughters were also given work. This was some three weeks ago. As yet, none of the applicants have appeared to claim the positions found. They evidently do not want to go to work but prefer seeking alms about town.

Another case with which the secretary has been called to deal is that of two old chums from Carleton. Early last fall they went to the alms house and put in the winter comfortably, but in the spring, being tired of their confined surroundings, they decided to leave and to bunk together for the summer. They are now in the alms house, but he is unable to find a room for them. He is an old house in Carleton for as long as he may need it. According to the law, the alms house is not to be used as a shelter in this house, while most of their food, they state, came from the dumps and what they could get from around the ships in the west side. Now the cold weather is coming on and they see trouble ahead. They think the dumps will not be so fruitful during the winter and they are liable to have cold feet at Sand Point. So he has been thinking of a scheme whereby the man who has his eyes endeavoring to obtain the necessary means to live, but he is unable to do so for the food. All of these supplies they imagine will be provided by the generosity of the citizens. Mrs. Hall took a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission, the case being that there has been a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission, the case being that there has been a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission.

There is one more case of interest which Mrs. Hall, a woman from the parish of Westfield, who has three young children, deserted her husband and came to town. She is able to work but it is understood she is willing to work for the blind man who has his eyes endeavoring to obtain the necessary means to live, but he is unable to do so for the food. All of these supplies they imagine will be provided by the generosity of the citizens. Mrs. Hall took a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission, the case being that there has been a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission.

There is one more case of interest which Mrs. Hall, a woman from the parish of Westfield, who has three young children, deserted her husband and came to town. She is able to work but it is understood she is willing to work for the blind man who has his eyes endeavoring to obtain the necessary means to live, but he is unable to do so for the food. All of these supplies they imagine will be provided by the generosity of the citizens. Mrs. Hall took a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission, the case being that there has been a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission.

There is one more case of interest which Mrs. Hall, a woman from the parish of Westfield, who has three young children, deserted her husband and came to town. She is able to work but it is understood she is willing to work for the blind man who has his eyes endeavoring to obtain the necessary means to live, but he is unable to do so for the food. All of these supplies they imagine will be provided by the generosity of the citizens. Mrs. Hall took a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission, the case being that there has been a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission.

There is one more case of interest which Mrs. Hall, a woman from the parish of Westfield, who has three young children, deserted her husband and came to town. She is able to work but it is understood she is willing to work for the blind man who has his eyes endeavoring to obtain the necessary means to live, but he is unable to do so for the food. All of these supplies they imagine will be provided by the generosity of the citizens. Mrs. Hall took a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission, the case being that there has been a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission.

There is one more case of interest which Mrs. Hall, a woman from the parish of Westfield, who has three young children, deserted her husband and came to town. She is able to work but it is understood she is willing to work for the blind man who has his eyes endeavoring to obtain the necessary means to live, but he is unable to do so for the food. All of these supplies they imagine will be provided by the generosity of the citizens. Mrs. Hall took a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission, the case being that there has been a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission.

There is one more case of interest which Mrs. Hall, a woman from the parish of Westfield, who has three young children, deserted her husband and came to town. She is able to work but it is understood she is willing to work for the blind man who has his eyes endeavoring to obtain the necessary means to live, but he is unable to do so for the food. All of these supplies they imagine will be provided by the generosity of the citizens. Mrs. Hall took a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission, the case being that there has been a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission.

There is one more case of interest which Mrs. Hall, a woman from the parish of Westfield, who has three young children, deserted her husband and came to town. She is able to work but it is understood she is willing to work for the blind man who has his eyes endeavoring to obtain the necessary means to live, but he is unable to do so for the food. All of these supplies they imagine will be provided by the generosity of the citizens. Mrs. Hall took a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission, the case being that there has been a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission.

There is one more case of interest which Mrs. Hall, a woman from the parish of Westfield, who has three young children, deserted her husband and came to town. She is able to work but it is understood she is willing to work for the blind man who has his eyes endeavoring to obtain the necessary means to live, but he is unable to do so for the food. All of these supplies they imagine will be provided by the generosity of the citizens. Mrs. Hall took a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission, the case being that there has been a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY.

Members Heard an Eloquent Address on Their Duty as Citizens and Christians—Degree Work to be Carried on This Afternoon and Evening.

Disastrous Floods in Western States—Seattle and Several Other Towns Cut Off.

Six Persons Reported Drowned—Houses Bridges and Have Been Swept Away.

TACOMA, Wn., Nov. 15.—A flood area of 200 square miles in Northwestern Washington is the result today of heavy rains and melting, which for 48 hours have rushed from the slopes of the Cascade Mountains, causing all the streams in the northwest to spread over low lands. Several persons are reported drowned. Seattle and scores of towns have been for the last 24 hours cut off from outside communication. Bridges have been swept away, railroad tracks washed out, telegraph and telephone wires torn down. As far as can be learned half a dozen lives have been lost. When darkness fell last night watchers from the highlands saw nothing except a mass of water with here and there the tops of submerged houses, on some of which waterboard persons could be seen signalling for help. Some attempted rescues were made, but the mad rush of swollen waters, carrying trees, snags, lumber and even houses, forced the rescuers back.

The Northern Pacific bridge across Snake River, went out yesterday and soon after came a suspension of railroad traffic between Tacoma and Seattle, the tracks being under water in many places. The Northern Pacific is able to maintain its service to Portland, but one based on a constitution which is God's eternal law—human nature—written on the flesh and blood and brain animated by a spirit little lower than the angels. God has traced the articles of this charter with His own finger. God created man to His own likeness and to every child of Adam he has committed this great charter.

In "honor all men," the preacher said, God had honored man in many ways and human nature was infinitely dignified by its assumption by the Saviour. The speaker dwelt upon the dignity of man's nature and then commented upon the violation of this dignity. We do not have to go to the ignorant savage to find this violation. We find the laborer toiling for a pittance so that some greedy capitalist may benefit, the slave left alone to fight against great difficulties. The times in which we live are surely out of joint and the dignity of human nature is certainly not respected. The conditions are not so bad here as elsewhere but no one is exempt from helping the weak and bringing happiness to the sorrowful. Every socially organized body has a duty to perform. It is its just rights is deserving of consideration. The work of a band of men is much more effective than that of an individual.

The preacher spoke of the benefit of united effort and hailed as an omen of brighter days the building up and strengthening of the glorious order of the Knights of Columbus.

There is another title, more dear and holy, to stimulate the furthering of the mission of the order. It is found in the words of the apostle, "love thy brethren." The preacher told of the close ties which bind brothers together and said brotherly love was one of the best features of society, and while it was necessary to honor all men, a special obligation bound up to them in so far as they were brethren. Charity, the speaker said, was the fulfillment of the Christian law, and he impressed firmly on his hearers the necessity for obedience to the apostle's words, "Love thy brethren." He enlarged upon the virtue of charity, and said the Knights of Columbus should be judged by their promoting of the law of God. It was not enough to preach, they must live up to their principles.

He spoke of societies where blind obligations were imposed on the members and said that such a society was a menace to religion and civil law. An oath to promise to render obedience was a great evil in a society, as no society had a right to interfere with the law or courts of justice, or to impose on members an obligation to do unjust things in the case of a member of the organization who was a menace to society.

The principles of the Knights of Columbus fought against this and he foretold that so copious would be the fruit of their zeal that both church and state would feel the good work the order was doing. The order was destined to be a mighty lever for uplifting humanity and promoting true brotherly love. The preacher spoke of the great future in store for Canada and closed with words of encouragement for the members of the Knights of Columbus.

After mass the procession formed and marched back to the rooms. A large number of visiting Knights are expected to arrive this afternoon to take part in the degree work which will be held in the York Theatre this afternoon and evening. The first and second degrees will be completed this afternoon, and the third degree tonight. The degree team arrived on the C. P. R. from Bangor, tomorrow night a smoker will be held in the York Theatre. A musical and literary programme has been prepared and an enjoyable evening is anticipated.

AMERICAN EXPRESS CO. GRANT WAGE INCREASE
NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The wages of employees of the American Express Company who are paid less than $200 a month, were increased ten per cent beginning today. The announcement of the increase was made at the office of the company. The increase was authorized by a vote of the board of directors yesterday.

Two of them jumped on the back of the cab, while the others ran to the horses' head. The cabman's cries for help brought a policeman to the scene, and as the three men in the automobile saw him coming, they shouted a warning to their companions. The latter made a rush for the automobile, and two of them had succeeded in boarding it when the big machine was sent away with a jump. Brandt was standing on the step. He was thrown heavily to the ground by the sudden start and a rear wheel of the car passed over his body. His companion, a cabman who was driving the two men to their homes. They were driving along Central Park West, when at 71st street an automobile, containing six persons appeared in quick travelling south. As the machine neared the cab, the automobile stopped and three of its men jumped

HOW THEY RUN A 20,000 CLUB IN NELSON, B. C.

Everybody is Interested and All the Citizens are Given a Chance to Do Some Active Work—Good Results Obtained.

The Star has received from John Lawlor, the Grand Trunk passenger agent of the Dominion of Canada, reached here from Ottawa in company with his wife and daughter. It was not his first visit to Portland, but on the occasion of a former visit he was very busy and did not see much of the city.

He was met on arriving here by John Lawlor, the Grand Trunk passenger agent, and his assistant, Emilie J. Caron, and the party took a drive around the city.

Mr. Lawlor notified President Frank B. Milken, of the Board of Trade, and Col. P. E. Boothby, the general passenger agent of the Maritime, of the presence of Mr. Blair in Portland, and they were anxious to see the distinguished visitor, but the time was too limited, and Mr. Lawlor conveyed to him the greeting of Col. Boothby and President Milken.

Mr. Blair did not call on His Honor Mayor Clifford, because of lack of time. Mr. Lawlor and Mr. Caron drove the visitors to Fort Allen Park, then along Congress street, to the Oaks and other points of the Longfellow mansion. The business section, and then to the Union station where they took a train for Boston.

Mr. Blair was much interested in the city generally, and of course in the Grand Trunk plant here. He was especially struck by the admirable dock facilities of the great international line.

He is interested in the historic spots in and about Portland, and regretted that he could not see the interior of the Longfellow mansion. He spoke of Portland as a summer resort and predicted a great increase in the use of summer visitors in the near future.

Mr. Blair is a very pleasant man, and is well informed regarding all matters connected with the Dominion of Canada, and is a firm believer in the good of that country.

On the return of the party from Boston they will take the Grand Trunk train for the evening for Ottawa. If his engagements would permit Mr. Blair to stop here, President Milken contemplates the possibility of meeting and arranging for a reception, but it will not be possible under the circumstances.

AMHERST, Nov. 14.—According to all reports there is still some stealing going on in the I. C. R. With the passing of cars have been found broken open and whiskey taken out here last week and other day a car in the Moncton yard was found broken into and a couple of cases of whiskey missing. This is only one of several cases reported of late.

L. C. R. Detective Williams and his crew have been busily engaged investigating the matter, but up to the present no arrests have been made, and so far as is ascertained, there is no clue to the parties committing the thefts.

There is one more case of interest which Mrs. Hall, a woman from the parish of Westfield, who has three young children, deserted her husband and came to town. She is able to work but it is understood she is willing to work for the blind man who has his eyes endeavoring to obtain the necessary means to live, but he is unable to do so for the food. All of these supplies they imagine will be provided by the generosity of the citizens. Mrs. Hall took a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission, the case being that there has been a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission.

There is one more case of interest which Mrs. Hall, a woman from the parish of Westfield, who has three young children, deserted her husband and came to town. She is able to work but it is understood she is willing to work for the blind man who has his eyes endeavoring to obtain the necessary means to live, but he is unable to do so for the food. All of these supplies they imagine will be provided by the generosity of the citizens. Mrs. Hall took a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission, the case being that there has been a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission.

AMHERST HEARS OF A NUMBER OF THEFTS

During the Past Week.

AMHERST, Nov. 14.—According to all reports there is still some stealing going on in the I. C. R. With the passing of cars have been found broken open and whiskey taken out here last week and other day a car in the Moncton yard was found broken into and a couple of cases of whiskey missing. This is only one of several cases reported of late.

L. C. R. Detective Williams and his crew have been busily engaged investigating the matter, but up to the present no arrests have been made, and so far as is ascertained, there is no clue to the parties committing the thefts.

There is one more case of interest which Mrs. Hall, a woman from the parish of Westfield, who has three young children, deserted her husband and came to town. She is able to work but it is understood she is willing to work for the blind man who has his eyes endeavoring to obtain the necessary means to live, but he is unable to do so for the food. All of these supplies they imagine will be provided by the generosity of the citizens. Mrs. Hall took a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission, the case being that there has been a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission.

There is one more case of interest which Mrs. Hall, a woman from the parish of Westfield, who has three young children, deserted her husband and came to town. She is able to work but it is understood she is willing to work for the blind man who has his eyes endeavoring to obtain the necessary means to live, but he is unable to do so for the food. All of these supplies they imagine will be provided by the generosity of the citizens. Mrs. Hall took a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission, the case being that there has been a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission.

There is one more case of interest which Mrs. Hall, a woman from the parish of Westfield, who has three young children, deserted her husband and came to town. She is able to work but it is understood she is willing to work for the blind man who has his eyes endeavoring to obtain the necessary means to live, but he is unable to do so for the food. All of these supplies they imagine will be provided by the generosity of the citizens. Mrs. Hall took a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission, the case being that there has been a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission.

There is one more case of interest which Mrs. Hall, a woman from the parish of Westfield, who has three young children, deserted her husband and came to town. She is able to work but it is understood she is willing to work for the blind man who has his eyes endeavoring to obtain the necessary means to live, but he is unable to do so for the food. All of these supplies they imagine will be provided by the generosity of the citizens. Mrs. Hall took a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission, the case being that there has been a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission.

There is one more case of interest which Mrs. Hall, a woman from the parish of Westfield, who has three young children, deserted her husband and came to town. She is able to work but it is understood she is willing to work for the blind man who has his eyes endeavoring to obtain the necessary means to live, but he is unable to do so for the food. All of these supplies they imagine will be provided by the generosity of the citizens. Mrs. Hall took a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission, the case being that there has been a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission.

There is one more case of interest which Mrs. Hall, a woman from the parish of Westfield, who has three young children, deserted her husband and came to town. She is able to work but it is understood she is willing to work for the blind man who has his eyes endeavoring to obtain the necessary means to live, but he is unable to do so for the food. All of these supplies they imagine will be provided by the generosity of the citizens. Mrs. Hall took a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission, the case being that there has been a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission.

There is one more case of interest which Mrs. Hall, a woman from the parish of Westfield, who has three young children, deserted her husband and came to town. She is able to work but it is understood she is willing to work for the blind man who has his eyes endeavoring to obtain the necessary means to live, but he is unable to do so for the food. All of these supplies they imagine will be provided by the generosity of the citizens. Mrs. Hall took a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission, the case being that there has been a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission.

There is one more case of interest which Mrs. Hall, a woman from the parish of Westfield, who has three young children, deserted her husband and came to town. She is able to work but it is understood she is willing to work for the blind man who has his eyes endeavoring to obtain the necessary means to live, but he is unable to do so for the food. All of these supplies they imagine will be provided by the generosity of the citizens. Mrs. Hall took a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission, the case being that there has been a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission.

There is one more case of interest which Mrs. Hall, a woman from the parish of Westfield, who has three young children, deserted her husband and came to town. She is able to work but it is understood she is willing to work for the blind man who has his eyes endeavoring to obtain the necessary means to live, but he is unable to do so for the food. All of these supplies they imagine will be provided by the generosity of the citizens. Mrs. Hall took a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission, the case being that there has been a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission.

There is one more case of interest which Mrs. Hall, a woman from the parish of Westfield, who has three young children, deserted her husband and came to town. She is able to work but it is understood she is willing to work for the blind man who has his eyes endeavoring to obtain the necessary means to live, but he is unable to do so for the food. All of these supplies they imagine will be provided by the generosity of the citizens. Mrs. Hall took a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission, the case being that there has been a hand in this case and it has been referred to the alms house commission.