MGR. FALCONIO.

Delegate Apostolic to Canada, Visiting St. John.

Services of Unusual Interest at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception Sunday Morning.

Address of Welcome Presented on Behalf of the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese—His Excellency's Reply—Imparted the Papal Benediction.

His excellency the Most Reverend Domènec Falconio, Archbishop of Larissa, delegate apostolic to Canada, arrived in this city on Saturday afternoon at 3.45 o'clock. Mgr. Falconio has been in the lower provinces since June 23rd, when he arrived at Halifax. After staying a few days there, the guest of Archbishop O'Brien, he went to Antigonish, where he was entertained by Bishop Cameron. He next visited Charlottetown, and was the guest of Bishop McDonald. In Halifax, Antigonish and Charlottetown his excellency was royally welcomed, and received considerable attention. Bands of music have greeted his arrival, followed by parades, receptions, dinners, and presentations of addresses. His excellency's visit to these places has been of an official character, but it is understood that his coming here partakes more of a personal visit to the venerable head of the diocese.

Saturday's Monitor voices the general feeling of the Catholic body when it says: "It is a matter of deep regret that owing to the indisposition of the venerable Bishop Sweeney, the condition of the cathedral due to the improvements going on, the reception of his excellency will not be on an imposing scale as the other chief cities in the archdiocese. But we can assure Mgr. Falconio that his reception here will be none the less sincere and hearty under the present condition of things."

At 8 o'clock the apostolic delegate was welcomed to the diocese by his lordship Bishop Casey, Vicar General Connelly and Father Corduke, C.S.S.R., who went up in the noon train to meet him, as well as by Rev. E. Savary, parish priest of Sussex. At the St. John station his excellency was welcomed to the episcopal city by the Rev. F. J. McMurray, rector of the cathedral, Rev. H. D. Cormier of Silver Falls and Revs. A. J. O'Neill and A. W. Meahan. After the greetings were over, the bishop's coaches were driven to the bishop's palace. There was a large crowd down awaiting the arrival of the train, among whom were David Lynch, Immigration Agent Lantalum, Stephen P. Gerow, R. J. Walsh, Henry Lee (of Simonds) and M. Coill.

On Sunday morning Mgr. Falconio celebrated 9 o'clock mass in the cathedral. At 11 o'clock pontifical high mass was celebrated. Bishop Casey officiated, with Fathers O'Neill and Meahan, deacon and sub-deacon. His excellency occupied the bishop's throne, and Fathers Corduke and Walsh were his chaplains of honor. Father Cormier was cross bearer to the archbishop. Monsignor Connolly was the high priest. The master of ceremonies was Father McMurray. Previous to the mass there was a procession in the church of the prelates, priests and altar boys from the sanctuary and around several of the aisles.

THE SERMON.

The sermon, which was preached after the first gospel by Rev. E. Fisher, O. F. M., his excellency's secretary, was based on 1st St. Peter iii., verses 14 and 15: "And be not afraid of their fear and be not troubled, but sanctify the Lord Christ in your hearts by being ready always to satisfy everyone that asketh you a reason of that hope which is in you."

The text, the preacher explained, was taken from the Epistle of St. Peter, which was appointed to be read on this Sunday. The words, like other passages which he might have quoted, impressed upon us the need of confidence and faith in God. God knew that our lives in this world were exposed to trials, difficulties and temptations. From the time we came into the world he left it to our lives were almost one of continual trouble. The note of the gospel was one of confidence in God. What were we wanting in was confidence in Him. We had a certain amount of confidence in Him, but we did not trust Him as we should or as He wished us to do. When despair and trouble came to us we could depend upon it that they did not come from God. We must show contrition for our sins, but even if we were the misfortune of having broken all the commandments we need not despair. If we went to God we would be forgiven. The divine image of Jesus was in our souls, and it should be brought out and developed so as to make us like Christ. Christ must live in us a personality, a living person, whom we must love and for whose sake we must be willing, if need be, to shed our blood. The eloquent preacher then called attention to some of the acts of our Saviour while on earth after which he showed how much Christ was willing to do for us. He knew our lives. Where would we be but for His mercy? We would never come to understand His mercy till we were in the presence of God. All that we required was confidence in Him, but we did not trust Him as we should or as He wished us to do. It was He who made allowances for us, it was He who was merciful. We should have confidence in Him. In closing Father Fisher said the head of the church had left it to the people of St. John his blessing on this occasion, and he trusted that it would bring strength and health to their souls and bodies and confidence in the love of God.

Towards the end of the mass, Monsignor Connolly read the following address:

ADDRESS. To His Excellency the Most Reverend Domènec Falconio, Archbishop of Larissa, Apostolic Delegate:

Four Excellency—To the chorus of welcome with which, during the last two weeks, our Metropolitan See of Halifax and the Episcopal See of Antigonish and Charlottetown have been greeting your advent to the Maritime provinces, this diocese of St. John would today add its voice. In the acclaim of brotherly emulation, we unite with them in doing honor to the representative of Rome. We regret that physical infirmities prevent our beloved Bishop from welcoming in person his illustrious guest. In his stead, however, and in the name of the reverend clergy, the religious communities, and the faithful laity of the diocese, we extend to your excellency a cordial welcome to St. John. The thought that in greeting you we are giving direct expression to the sentiments of love, devotion and obedience which we entertain for our Holy Father Leo XIII. makes your visit a source of intense satisfaction to us all. In no Christian land can be found a people more faithful to the See of Peter than the Catholics of New Brunswick. Bound by loving ties of civil allegiance to Her Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria, we still acknowledge a loyalty of another sort, trenching in no respect on our civil allegiance, but sanctifying and perpetuating it. This is our loyalty to the person of His Vicar on earth. In this double allegiance there is no disloyalty either to Queen or Pope.

Recognizing in your excellency, then, the representative of the Supreme Pontiff we hail with joy and welcome your advent among us and beg to assure you of our personal respect for your own exalted qualities of character and our loyal co-operation with you in the discharge of the duties of your high office. In your appointment as apostolic delegate to the Maritime provinces, we recognize the solicitude of the Vicar of Christ; we feel that his fatherly love extends to us; and that Canada, equally with countries of greater population, is the object of his all-embracing providence. We hope and pray that your high and holy mission may be beneficial to the advancement of religion in this dominion, and that your excellency may always find a congenial and responsive spirit in our Catholic people.

For our part we are pleased to assure you that in this diocese, and throughout the province of New Brunswick, although we are in a minority, our civil and religious rights as citizens and Catholics are recognized and respected; that harmony reigns over our relations with our fellow-citizens, and that the priests, united in the bonds of charity with their reverend Bishop, enjoy the confidence and obtain the generous support of the laity in every good work. Your excellency will, we trust, have an opportunity during your visit to see for yourself the material evidence of religious prosperity which the Catholic charitable and religious foundations and institutions of this city offer. The most of them owe their inception, as they owe their successful issue, to your grace and blessing. We hope that your excellency will prolong your stay among us. Ours is an ideal summer climate, refreshing and invigorating, and a few days spent in St. John at this season are usually well spent. We shall long excel the remembrance of your visit, and we hope that your sojourn in the midst of us may ever be to yourself a pleasant recollection. Asking your excellency to be pleased to convey to the Holy Father the assurance of our loyalty and devotion to the Holy See, and begging your blessing, we remain,

Yours respectfully in Christ. Signed on behalf of clergy and laity, THOS. CONNOLLY, V. G.

HIS EXCELLENCY'S REPLY.

His excellency in reply said he wished to return his best thanks for the sentiments of love, devotion and obedience to the holy father as expressed in the address. He regretted exceedingly that the beloved bishop was not in the enjoyment of good health. He prayed that the Almighty might give him strength. It was pleasing to him to hear of the loyalty of the Catholics to their most gracious majesty the Queen. Equally pleasing was it to learn that there was the best of feeling among all classes in the province. He wished that this condition of affairs might always continue. We were told to love one another. The sentiment of love for the Holy Father as given in the address he had found to prevail throughout Canada. The Saviour came down from heaven to save all mankind. It was not to save any particular class. It was left to us to let that be known throughout the world. To Peter was given by our Saviour the power. He received from His father. He said "Thou art Peter," etc., and later on, in order that the power he had given Peter might be known, He addressed Peter, saying: "Feed my lambs," etc. Peter was made the pastor of His church and became the foremost figure in His work. The church first established in Antioch after a time found its home in Rome, where today Peter's successor had his home. In Rome, once the capital of the world, this new kingdom of Christ was established. Christianity succeeded. Many changes had taken place since then, but the church established by Peter lived and flourished. Peter's successor, the Pope, whom the people here assembled loved and venerated so highly, was deserving of their love and veneration. He was their father. He was the supreme keeper of God's word. There were millions and millions of his subjects throughout the world of different races, different nationalities and different customs. Yet they all united as one in loving the head of the church. He was the rock on which it stood. He was the light which lightened the darkness of error. He was supreme, the father of all. Blessed be the Lord Jesus Christ. They should return thanks that they were of the true faith. It was the faith that was given to Peter. It was the faith that made their ancestors what they were. It was the faith that made them so de-

His excellency's reply was listened to with great attention as he referred to the different portions of the address. His graceful reference to Bishop Sweeney and his labors here were much appreciated. Mgr. Falconio is a pleasing speaker, has an excellent voice, and could be heard plainly in any part of the church.

As might be expected, the Rev. F. J. McMurray discharged very satisfactorily to all concerned the duties of the master of ceremonies. The reading of the address by Monsignor Connolly was most appropriate.

In the afternoon his excellency and his secretary, accompanied by Bishop Casey and Rev. F. J. McMurray paid a visit to the Rev. C. Collins, Fairville.

FEEDING FOR HEALTH.

Directions by a Food Expert.

A complete change in food makes a complete change in body. Therefore if you are ailing in any way, the surest road back to health is to change your diet. Try the following breakfast for ten days and mark the result: Two soft boiled eggs. (If you have a weak stomach, boil the eggs as follows: Put two eggs into a pint tin cup of boiling water, cover, and set off the stove. Take out in nine minutes; the whites will be the consistency of cream and partly digested. Don't change the directions in any particular.) Some fruit, cooked or raw, cooked preferred, a slice of toast, a little butter, four heaping teaspoons of Grape-Nuts with some cream, a cup of properly boiled Postum Food Coffee. The Grape-Nuts breakfast food is fully and scientifically cooked at the factory, and both that and the Postum Coffee have the diastase (that which digests the starchy part) developed in the fancy deserts. Both the food and the coffee, therefore, are predigested and assist, in a natural way, to digest the balance of the food. Lunch at noon, the same. For dinner in the evening use meat and one or two vegetables. Leave out the fancy deserts. Never over-eat. Retire a little less than too much. If you can't use health as a means to gain success in business or in a profession, it is well worth the time and attention required to arrange your diet to accomplish the result.
