Christmas Seals

Christmas Seals are again be Christmas Seals are again being sold in Madawaska County. These little blue, red and yellow stamps bearing the words "Merry Christmas" are for sticking on letters and parcels sent in the joyous season Whoever buys them contributes to the cost of the battle against tuber-culosis. The proceeds of selling the seals are used for preventive work in this locality.

A Danish postal clerk, Einar Hol boell thought of Christmas Seals in 1903. He passed on his idea to other and in 1904, with royal patronage Denmark had the first sale of seal

—Mrs Aley Duphar entertained at ka Company's Mills in Keegan, several more hundred persons will apply for aid from he town. This town aid has been costing the municipality from $800 to $1,000 weekly, but with the money appropriated for the poor spent many months ago, it hardly seems possible that Van Buren will be able to continue this assistance to needy families, very long.

The officers have been devising plans for creating new sources of employment and this fall have opened up a large lumber camp on two large lots outside the town, where tumbering operations will be carried on during the winter. Over fifty men are now employed cutting lumber and several more will be put to work in the near fiture. This camp is in charge of Magloire Berube, one of the selectmen.

"Buy a car and see the world" is not a bad slogan, in the light of the experience of three New Brunswick men who took a jaunt from St. John to Los Angeles, California during the past summer. They made the 3748 milles in an even week, the traveling time being 89 hours and 23 minutes. Speed averaged 42 miles an hour and the only car delay was occasioned by one "flat" inflicted by planking on a stretch of road under repair, Gas cost $70, oil $12.59, grease $2, and tire repair 75cents; which works cut at two and one-tenth cents a mile for car expense.
