This is to be regretted, as the school was a very good one, under capable management, and an institution in which the ladies and gentlemen of the town and district, so successfully presented the play of "Kismet," had kindly consented to open the Masonic Temple opera house on the 20th and 21st October. The drama chosen for the opening is "A Russian Honeymoon," adapted by Mrs. Burton Harrison. The city is expecting a rare treat when the professional performance by the Swedish Quartette is given. A very sad scene was witnessed yesterday, when the body of a young woman was found lying on the sidewalk near the corner of the street. The body was carried to the hospital and the cause of death was found to be a rupture of the heart. The young woman was identified as Mrs. Mary E. O'Fallon, a well known resident of the city. R. train in the afternoon and met by Lieut Col Beer, who drove them over to the new military grounds. They left for Quebec in the evening. The many friends of the late Mrs. Morren were shocked to hear of her sudden death which occurred on Friday morning at her mother's residence in St. John. Mrs. Morren spent the greater part of the summer here at the Knoll and was greatly beloved by all who knew her. Rev. John Barneet, vocal solos by Miss May White and Dr. H. H. White and Mr. J. H. Barneet. Miss May Kelly, chorister. The best of these were Miss May White, Dr. White and Mr. John Barneet, all of whom kindly responded to encore. Mrs. C. H. Fairweather has issued invitations to her young friends for the truth of the assertion, but he is said to be there, only he does not favor parties with his presence. The dance held at Mount Edward last Thursday was quite a pleasant one, a new feature called a "grab dance" being introduced, which was very funny; only I think that the odd man must have decided that he was "not in it" when he was left alone. At any rate, the "romp," as the party each year is generally called, being taken advantage of in every way, was enjoyed as much as possible. Mrs. Stephen Larber, who was shortly to have

MASSON. The Masons are to open their new hall with a dance. This building supplies a want, by providing a hall, for the members of the lodge. The new hall is admirably fitted to accommodate the lodge, and is in every respect a model building. The main entrance is between two large shops. The music hall itself, would be about sixty-five feet square, has a fine ornate stage, with a balcony for the purpose of the hall, by alley and first floor will be fitted up with opera chairs, and nothing will be neglected, that will serve to add to the comfort for both performers and spectators. On each side of the stage are private boxes, six in number, three on each floor, and the view from every part of the hall is as good as it can possibly be. The ceiling is laid on in plain white wood, finished beautifully, and is a great improvement. The appearance of glass. The wood is laid on in the form of squares, radiating from the centre, and the ceiling is laid on in a similar manner. Under the stage are the dressing and toilet rooms, and the orchestra pit is there, waiting for its first occupancy. One part of the temple are devoted to different purposes—the lodge-room for the Masons being held in the main part of the temple. There is also a room for meeting purposes also. Of the Masons' room are two large rooms and other parts of the building are set off for different uses. Taken all in all, the new Masonic Temple is a credit to the Masons. COLLIER.

Frank Coffin, Rev. Thos. Corbett of Mass, Rev. Wm. Thomson, Bedouque, Rev. Wm. Maggs, and Rev. Mr. Bentley. Miss Arsenault has been visiting Dr. and Mrs. McIntyre, and returned home on Saturday. The home of Mr. Wm. Andrew, St. Eleanor's, was the scene of festivities on Tuesday evening, and I believe it was in honor of the twenty-first anniversary of Mr. Albert Andrew. Two evenings later another St. Eleanor's home that of Mr. and Mrs. William Hunt, was also the scene of a party. Miss Fannie Crabbe was declared by all to be belle, and certainly she did look charming in a black lace gown with crimson flowers. Miss Bertie Roberts has returned from Orwell, where she spent two weeks with friends. Miss Sophie Roberts of New York, who has been visiting her friends the Misses Montgomery, said well and Hamilton left Summerside Wednesday morning for the winter. Mr. Will B. In giving an account of this week's festivities one is obliged to go back to the very pleasant and successful dance given by Mrs. Henry on Friday evening. This was in every way a most excellent entertainment, being most beautifully done and arranged in every way. The supper table was particularly pretty arranged as to flowers and lights, beside the more substantial part of it. There were some very smart gowns to be seen, though not the display of last week at Government House. Lady Hopkins was looking very nice in gray satin, and Mrs. Mellor in heliotrope, but I did not notice anything else very special. It is risky work attempting a Regatta so late in the season. The Garrison however were fairly lucky. The officers of the garrison were at home to their friends and refreshments of all sorts were lavishly provided. The ladies' races was won by Mrs. Tracy and Miss Curran who rowed beautifully, second place was taken by Lieut. March and Miss Abbott. The admiral's pianoe had on board, Lady Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll, the Misses Nicholson (St. John) Col. Saunders, and others. On the Blake launch were Capt. and Mrs. Hamilton, Commander Bayley, the Misses Dobell (Quebec), Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Kenney, Col. Isaacson and others. Mr. I. F. Mr. Corbett's little launch carried Mr. Corbett, the Misses Corbett and Miss Hyde. Mr. and Mrs. Leech entertained a large number at supper, as did Mr. and Mrs. Kenney, at Mowbray's. Mr. and Mrs. Jones at Bloomington. On Monday afternoon there was rather more than the usual gathering at the Garrison tennis ground, in spite of there being other things on foot. Mrs. James Morrow gave a small picnic on the other side of the Arm for the Misses Dobell and Mr. Blair, M. P. P., of Truro, spent Sunday at the Europa Hotel. Mr. Frank Wortman, of Logreville, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Isaac B. Humphrey. Miss Marion Miller will leave by train tomorrow for Jeannette, Pennsylvania, U. S., where her parents are residing. True Enough Sometimes. Jack—Hello, old man! Awfully glad to see you. Here, take off that coat and put on this smoking-jacket and make yourself comfortable. Dick—Deuce take it! Do you mean to insinuate that I don't feel comfortable in a dress suit!

On Wednesday evening Lady Hopkins gave a small dance at Admiralty House. Among the belles were Misses Macdonald, ladies of whom there seems always a fresh crop every summer. Invariably were issued for Thursday afternoon by Captain Hamilton and officers of H. M. S. Blake for an afternoon tea and dance. This is the first ship's dance of the summer, a state of things which would have seemed peculiar some ten years ago. On Friday evening a good many people had been asked to a small dance at the Commodore's house in H. M. Dockyard. Very pretty dances have been given there in the past, and that of Friday evening will probably not be behind them. MORRIS GRANVILLE. SHELDAC. [Progress is for sale in Shediac at R. W. SUMMERSIDE, P. E. I. [Progress is for sale in Summerside by Messrs. T. J. & M. L. Walsh.] SEPT. 16.—On Wednesday the Presbyterian church was packed to the doors by people eager to hear the venerable Dr. Paton. Among the ministers present were Rev. Dr. Bruce of St. John, Rev. Frank Coffin, Rev. Thos. Corbett of Mass, Rev. Wm. Thomson, Bedouque, Rev. Wm. Maggs, and Rev. Mr. Bentley. Miss Arsenault has been visiting Dr. and Mrs. McIntyre, and returned home on Saturday. The home of Mr. Wm. Andrew, St. Eleanor's, was the scene of festivities on Tuesday evening, and I believe it was in honor of the twenty-first anniversary of Mr. Albert Andrew. Two evenings later another St. Eleanor's home that of Mr. and Mrs. William Hunt, was also the scene of a party. Miss Fannie Crabbe was declared by all to be belle, and certainly she did look charming in a black lace gown with crimson flowers. Miss Bertie Roberts has returned from Orwell, where she spent two weeks with friends. Miss Sophie Roberts of New York, who has been visiting her friends the Misses Montgomery, said well and Hamilton left Summerside Wednesday morning for the winter. Mr. Will B. Stuart is in the country visiting his mother. Very soon, we believe, Mr. Herbert Maclean will return to the city, after a few weeks' absence. Mr. Robertson of California left town on Monday for Cape Breton where they intend spending a few weeks. Miss Wilbur who for the last two weeks has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison returned to her home in Dorchester last Monday. MASSON. The Masons are to open their new hall with a dance. This building supplies a want, by providing a hall, for the members of the lodge. The new hall is admirably fitted to accommodate the lodge, and is in every respect a model building. The main entrance is between two large shops. The music hall itself, would be about sixty-five feet square, has a fine ornate stage, with a balcony for the purpose of the hall, by alley and first floor will be fitted up with opera chairs, and nothing will be neglected, that will serve to add to the comfort for both performers and spectators. On each side of the stage are private boxes, six in number, three on each floor, and the view from every part of the hall is as good as it can possibly be. The ceiling is laid on in plain white wood, finished beautifully, and is a great improvement. The appearance of glass.
