DOLLARS For Boys and Girls Who Can Draw

Last Saturday we published another picture. I want all boys and girls who are not over 14 years of age to color with either water colors or chalk. To the young artist who does it the best I will give a first prize of a dollar. It's a simple competition, no hard rules, no entrance fees, just cut the picture out, paint or color it the way you think best, save six coupons the same as the one shown on this page each morning from The Standard, fill them up, pin them to the painting and send them all addressed to

UNCLE DICK, THE STANDARD, ST. JOHN, N. B.

Closing Date for this Contest, June 10th, 1915
You must save the coupons from six consecutive issues of the paper.

Coupon to be Used in Both Contests

June 9, 1915.

The Prize winner's name will appear in the Children's Corner of The Standard on June 12th.

A New Competition

I have decided to award a special prize to the girl or boy who sends me in the best story of "How I Would Like to Spend My Holidays," but it must not be longer than three hundred words and three coupons must be enclosed with it cut from The Standard.

The last day for this contest is June 10th. Now, boys and girls, let me see what you can do. I have not told you what the prize is to be but I'm sure the lucky prize winner will be pleased with it.

Send the story, written on one side of the paper only, to

UNCLE DICK THE STANDARD ST. JOHN, N. B.

I shall publish the best story.

The election of Mr. James Falconer M. P., as chairman of British Dyes Ltd., drew from the Financial Times the ironical comment that he is "an eminent Scotch lawyer and was an effective member of the Marconi Committee." It may not be known in the city, says a London weekly, "but Mr. Falconer's qualifications have been deemed sufficiently good for the chairmanship of the Mersey Railway Co., and one of the largest electric power undertakings in the north of England. As to British Dyes, he is not one of the directors nominated by the Government, but joined the board at the unanimous request of the committee of traders interested in the

DR. MACLAREN SAYS HOSPITAL WILL SOON LEAVE SOUTHAMPTON

Will be Placed at Etaples, 16 Miles From Boulogne.

4,000 CASES TREATED

Thanks New Brunswick People for Their Kind Assistance.

Honorable J. D. Hazen a few days ago received a letter from Dr. Murray MacLaren, dated at Netheravon, on the 12th May. Dr. MacLaren stated that the hospital would embark at Southampton on the 13th and he understood would be placed at Etaples, 16 miles from Boulogne. He stated that when in France he saw a number of the general hospitals being erected. He referred to the fact that he had a full complement of officers and men, and that during last winter about 4,000 cases had been treated by his hospital and that they had as high as 1,210 in the hospital in one day. The result is that the personnel has already had excellent training and experience.

Extends Appreciation. Dr. MacLaren referred in appreciative terms to the remarkably kind and generous treatment extended by the people in New Brunswick towards the hospital. He had received large quantities of useful material for the sick and wounded, and suitable articles in great quantities for the men. He had also received handsome sums of money from different sources including the Daughters of the Empire. He stated that while the militia department was giving an excellent issue of equipment, there are naturally many things not included that add very much to the comfort and happiness of the sick and wounded and he says that he will now be able to give them cigarettes for which they simply crave. His experience leads him to believe that the medical arrangements on the continent for the care of the sick and wounded are good, but the wounded require and deserve the best attention, and to visit the many hospitals gives one a sad impression of the horrors of war.

Duration of War. He says that the impression generally held now is that the duration of the war will be considerably more protracted than was once expected, and that it will be necessary to put into it an enormous number of men and the full effort of the Empire. The people everywhere, he says, have been most generous in praise for the fighting done by the Canadians, and of the action taken by the Dominion government, and British officers of all ranks and civilians take every opportunity of making known to the Canadians their appreciation of what Canada has done.

City Commissioners Again Take Up Street Car Controversy

The city commissioners at their meeting, yesterday afternoon, heard a report from Commissioner Potts in reference to the difference between the street railway and the city. It was agreed that the city would sanction work at Douglas Avenue and other intersections being carried on under the same arrangements as at Princess and Sydney streets.

The matter of one department purchasing deals at $12 a thousand and another commissioner paying $17.30 and $22 was also thrashed out but the recommendation to purchase deals at the higher figure was not passed. Other matters of a routine nature were dealt with.

Mayor Frink, Commissioners Potts, Russell and Wigmore with the common clerk were present. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The first matter taken up was the consideration of the report of the Commissioner of Public Works in reference to the street railway matter. His resolution was adopted as follows:

City Will Agree. Resolved that when the injunction prohibiting further work in Douglas Avenue, Duke street and other places, is removed, the city will agree to the work being done under the same terms as agreed to at the intersection of Princess and Sydney streets.

Commissioner Potts in his report said that after a hearing before Chief Justice McLeod the St. John Railway Co. was now at work at the intersection of Union and Sydney streets. The work at Douglas Avenue had been postponed last year at the instance of the street railway so they could procure turnouts, etc. Mr. Potts notified the council that the conditions on Main street from Douglas Avenue to Kennedy street were intolerable and the public was demanding that conditions be remedied.

Commissioner Russell also submitted a letter from the manager of the street railway dated November 3, 1914, in which the manager said that in view of the need of raising the grade of the street new special work would have to be put in and three or four months would be required to secure the material. If the work were deferred till spring the company would be ready for the work.

Retaining Wall Falls. F. B. Smith, representing Scovill Bros. and Co., Ltd., reported to the council that a retaining wall in South Market street had fallen in on their property and he asked what was to be done in the matter. He was informed that the matter had been left in the hands of the Commissioner of Public Safety with power to act. The council decided to call the attention of Commissioner McLellan to the enquiry.

Commissioner Russell recommended that the account of Quinn and Co. for supplying eleven copper life rafts for the ferry steamer "Governor Carleton" be paid.

The Supreme Court on Friday will decide whether the county valuers shall include in their lists the full value of properties, which are exempt from taxation partly or wholly by special legislation. The case is entirely friendly and is between the Municipality of the City and County of St. John and the Board of Valuers.

In preparing their statement the valuers raised the question whether they should enter certain properties which have a fixed valuation for assessment purposes and places used exclusively for worship at their full value or at the fixed value or leave them out of the lists altogether when exempt.

The properties which now pay taxes on a fixed valuation less than their real value, under special acts of the legislature are:

In the city—The Atlantic Sugar Refineries, Ltd., The Cornwall & York Cotton Mills, Ltd., The Maritime Navigation Company, Ltd., and James Pender & Co., Ltd.

In the county—The Parlington Pulp and Paper Co., Ltd., T. S. Simms & Co., Ltd., and the Wilson Box Company, Ltd.

RICHARD HARDING DAVIS GREAT 4 ACT DRAMA AT THE OPERA HOUSE

Management Has Secured One of Most Thrilling Feature Pictures Ever Shown in St. John for Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, starting tomorrow matinee, the Opera House will make a change in policy and present an extraordinary programme of feature pictures, the big attraction being the latest release in Reliance masterpieces, "The Lost House," a drama in four parts, written and produced by Richard Harding Davis, the famous author and war correspondent. "The Lost House" is a big thing and was secured by the management at considerable expense and under keen competition. It is a play vivid in action, brimful of exciting scenes and thrilling situations, gripping in story, intensely interesting all the way through and will keep the audience keyed up to high pitch from its start until the very finish. During its action one of the most thrilling fire scenes ever filmed is shown, there is a realistic duel with repeating rifles, a sensational escape from death that makes one get right in your seat—in fact, "The Lost House," for thrills and hair raising situations and excitement starts where all other pictures leave off. There will also be a new Keystone comedy feature on the programme that is one long, continuous laugh. There will be a matinee every day at 2.30; two complete shows at night at 7.15 and 8.45. Little prices.

THIS WOMAN'S SICKNESS

Quickly Yielded To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Baltimore, Md.—"I am more than glad to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. I suffered dreadful pains and was very irregular. I became alarmed and sent for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it regularly until I was without a cramp or pain and felt like another person, and it has now been six months since I took any medicine at all. I hope my little note will assist you in helping other women. I now feel perfectly well and in the best of health."—Mrs. AUGUST W. KONDNER, 1332 Hollins Street, Baltimore, Md.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
