WOMEN'S WORK

The report of the Women's Auxiliary of the Home for Incapacitated shows much good work accomplished during the year.

During the last year the work of the Women's Auxiliary of the Home for Incapacitated has been carried on much as usual, the aim of the committee being to assist the board of management in its endeavor to minister to the spiritual needs, as well as to promote the bodily comfort of those entrusted to its care. Every Sunday throughout the year divine service has been arranged for by your committee and attended by some of its members. To the clergy who conducted these services of hope and comfort so faithfully, to the choirs whose music is so much enjoyed, and to other friends whose assistance is so willingly and efficiently given, the thanks of all who dwell within the home are due.

Each patient is visited weekly by a member of the Ladies' Aid, thereby supplementing the visits of the board of management. To the regret of the invalids, and of all who are interested in brightening the daily life of the institution, general visiting has fallen off very much during the last year. The usual number of small pleasures planned and carried out by the committee have been much appreciated. In June, July, August and September ice cream and cake were enjoyed, and in October a feast of fruit, celery, cheese and other Thanksgiving fare. At Christmas beautiful trees were provided, which, laden with acceptable gifts, fruit and sweets for all, added much to the happiness of the season. Pious holiday cheer also greeted the Christmas and New Year's dinners. For Easter, fruit, eggs, cake and boxes of candy were bestowed as well as individual plants, always a source of interest.

To those whose generosity helps to forward the accomplishment of the kind and wise purposes of this splendid charity the thanks of the Women's Auxiliary are again extended. Respectfully submitted,
LILLIAN HAZEN,
Secretary to Committee.

Notes From the Women's Institutes.

Members of other societies will find many helpful hints by reading these records of the splendid work done throughout the province by the Women's Institutes.

Chocolate and Cinnamon's Cove.
Chocolate and Cinnamon's Cove Institute realized $29.95 for patriotic work from a drama put on by local talent. This branch presents wrist watches to all the men enlisting from their neighborhood.

Cody's.
The Cody Institute held a social and entertainment in the hall the evening of June 17. This branch is planning to give a prize to the pupil making the highest percentage in attendance during the coming term.

Dumfries.
The institute meetings are a source of pleasure to the Dumfries members. Miss Fullerton demonstrated "Spanish Cake" and "Vinegar Candy," at a recent meeting. By giving a "Don't" at roll call each member contributed towards this most interesting part of the April meeting.

Dalhousie Junction.
The sum of $10.00 was a recent donation of the Dalhousie Junction Institute towards the fund for blind soldiers.

Corn Hill.
"My best idea," was the manner in which the members of the Corn Hill Institute answered roll call at the May meeting. This branch has purchased a knitting machine. For July, the roll call was answered by each member walking up to the secretary's desk and paying her membership fee of twenty-five cents for the ensuing year. The new year has been started with three new members heading the list.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

A child's birthday cake can have the child's name on it made of the letters in alphabet noodles.

Lingerie waists can be beautifully starched in the water in which unsalted rice has been cooked.

Rub a little butter under the spout of the cream pitcher and the dripping of the cream will be prevented.

If milk seems hard to digest put a saltspoonful of salt in a tumblerful of milk.

Open shelves in the kitchen are much of a nuisance because it is impossible to keep them free from dust.

For a picnic it is a good idea to pack each edible in a different box—boiled eggs in one, cake in another, etc.

Cold barley mixed with milk and eggs, sugar, spice and dried fruit, makes a nourishing and delicious pudding.

Put a little vinegar in the pan of water in which you raise your greens and the insects will drop off amazingly.

TOURIST TRAVEL TO ALASKA.

Summer travel is now at its height and intending tourists are reminded of the many attractive features of a trip over the Grand Trunk and Grand Trunk Pacific Railways,—of all, perhaps, that westbound through Prince Rupert to Alaska is the finest. This service has been further improved by the inauguration of faster schedules between Prince Rupert and Skagway. The steamer leaving Prince Rupert at twelve noon Wednesday will hereafter arrive at Skagway at eight a.m. Friday. Southbound steamer will leave Skagway at seven p.m. Saturday.

This service will enable passengers to make trips through to White Horse and return while vessel is in port.

Descriptive booklet "Alaska" will be mailed on application to:

FUNERALS.

Yesterday afternoon the funeral of Mrs. Adelaide Swim, wife of Rev. G. Swim, took place from her late residence, 48 Adelaide street, to Fernhill cemetery. Rev. B. H. Nobles conducted the burial services.

The funeral of Henry Desmond took place yesterday morning from his late residence, 84 Paradise Row, to Holy Trinity church, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Very Rev. J. J. Walsh, V. G. Interment was made in the new Catholic cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Eliza Theall, Public Landing, took place yesterday morning on the arrival of steamer Ocoee, to Cedar Hill cemetery, where the burial services were conducted by Rev. W. H. Sampson.

The funeral of Mr. Frank L. Theall was held yesterday afternoon to Cedar Hill cemetery. Rev. R. P. McKim officiated.

The funeral of Patrick Pye was held yesterday afternoon to Cedar Hill cemetery. Rev. R. P. McKim officiated.

Uncle Dick's Corner.

TODAY'S LITTLE JOKE.

A Hint.
Old Gentleman—What's your name, little boy?
Little Boy—Lucky Bill.
Old Gentleman—Why are you called "Lucky"?
Little Boy—"Cause whenever a kind old gentleman stops to speak to me he gives me a dime.

Joining the Corner.

Hillsboro, N. B., July 3, 1916.
Dear Uncle Dick:
I am now ready to join your charming contest, and I want to join it. So would you let me join it and become one of its members. I will now close with best wishes,
OED B. JONAH.

Tried Hard in Contest.
Fairville, St. John, N. B.
Dear Uncle Dick:
I have been reading your answers to the kiddies contest every Saturday and beg leave to hand in the composition of the Jumbled Word Contest. I am thirteen years of age. My birthday comes on the 27th day of October, and I am in Grade VII. I have three sisters and two brothers. My mother and father are both living. Hoping that I may get a prize, I close.
With friendship,
PAULINE DALTON.

Likes the Letters and Stories.
The Range.
Dear Uncle Dick:
My sister has been wanting me to write to the Corner for a long time so that she could get your picture, so I thought I would do so now. I like to read the letters and the stories in the children's Corner. I am eleven years old. Now that I am going to join I will try some of the contests, but don't expect it will be much use. Your new nephew,
Clifford Wansmaker.

Passed Into Grade Ten.
Sackville, N. B.
Dear Uncle Dick:
I am sending my attempt at the "Straight Line" Contest in which I hope to be successful. I suppose, now that the holidays have come, a great many more kiddies will enter the contest. I was successful in passing my grading exam, this year. Next fall when starting for school I shall be in Grade ten. I suppose you think I am a very poor writer to be in so high a grade. Will close now, with love and best wishes.
KATHRYN WILSON.

held yesterday afternoon to the Cathedral, where the burial service was read by Rev. H. L. Belliveau. Interment in the new Catholic cemetery.

Unique.—The Sea Nymph.—The Greater Strength.

The Greater Strength features Winnifred Greenwood, who is always good in whatever part she essays. She is in love with a doctor, Edward Coxen, and the greater strength is shown by him, both mentally and physically. George Field is the villain of the plot and the saving of his child figures as a part of the drama.

The picture for which she did not pose is point of the play, "The Sea Nymph." It is an artist's revenge for a fancied slight, but he is well rewarded for his despicable plans. Miss Barbara Gilroy is the nymph in the play, which is a Thanet drama. There is also a typical George Oray comedy at the Unique, called "Jerry's Lark."

Lyric.—"The Little Captain of the Scouts."

A pretty picture with a small boy actor, Leland Benhan, taking a leading part. He lived in Rosalee and he wanted to be a soldier. Finally the Boy Scouts were formed by a real soldier man. It is with the little boy and his big sister and the real soldier man that the story is concerned. The boy scout starts off to the war all alone, has adventures and when he is found by his friends, his big sister finds somebody too.

The Beauty Comedy at the Lyric is called "Almost a Widow," and contains the tearful ending of an elderly person's love dream. The picture also contains a night alarm with the hero taking a hasty swim.

Real life is proving very popular at the Lyric and this week's number showed intimate views of animals and birds in the marshes of Florida. Dees and Reid are colored comedians at the Lyric. They have a funny little sketch of a policeman and a fortune teller which is half songs, half jokes.

Who's Who and What's What in the Picture World and on the Stage—Favorites and What They Say and Do.

OPERA HOUSE.

The Love Mask.

"Excavating for a mine." "Lived a miner, forty-nine," and her name was Kate Kenner. This is the part taken by Cleo Ridgely in "The Love Mask." I found this an enjoyable picture, full of scenes in which a picturesque bandit, "Silver Spurs," (Barle Fox) figures in a most romantic light. He was more interesting than the real hero, the stalwart blacksmith and sheriff who crumpled horse-shoes up like paper, when he was annoyed. This was "Dan Deering," and Wallace Reid is the actor. The story is told of the old mining days in California when a woman had to find for herself with gun and pick axe. There were some who took advantage of her lucky strike of gold and jumped her claim but the spirit of fair play was alive in the road agent and his defence of her was repaid by her help in his time of need. The tavern pictures are particularly good, with Mexican and Chinese customers and servants. There is riding, robbing, shooting and love-making yet it is, unlike the ordinary Wild West picture, Cleo Ridgely has an irresistibly appealing personality and all three principals are convincing in their roles.

In the Topical Budget were shown: Making Shells in France, Blind Soldiers Enjoying a Dance with Nurses and Visitors at a Hospital, a blind fiddler, and a Review of Cadets in Regent's Park, London, by the Lord Mayor.

The Paramount Bray cartoon was the resourceful Farmer Alfalfa and how he recovered his chicken.

A most interesting Dimer animal picture was also given, "Monkey Shines," studies of different varieties of monkeys and the sensations of one who heard his own voice reproduced on a phonograph. They do look so much like humans without souls.

In the cafe scene of "The Man from Bitter Roots," the William Farnum picture, a William Fox production, sixty extra persons were employed. The scene was taken at the lunch hour, so that the appetites displayed by the "extras" would be more realistic.

Said Director Oscar C. Apfel: "The usual extra looks so hungry that it did our hearts good to furnish them with a substantial meal."
