of superiority are responsible for Zam-Buk's wonderful and world-wide reputation.

1. ZAM-BUK IS ANTISEPTIC—Applied to a sore wound it destroys all germs, and acts as a protection, thus preventing festering and blood-poisoning.

2. ZAM-BUK IS SOOTHING—This property makes it indispensable for irritated and inflamed conditions of the skin, as well as for skin injuries. It ends irritation, stops pain and draws out soreness. A mother's first thought, when a child is hurt, is to end the pain. Nothing does this like Zam-Buk.

3. ZAM-BUK HEALS—Finally, having antiseptically cleaned a sore place and ended all pain and soreness, the healing essence of Zam-Buk promotes the quick growth of new tissue. Sore soon disappears where Zam-Buk is applied.

It is the best known remedy for eczema, pimples, ulcers, piles, blood-poisoning, cuts and burns, etc., etc.

NOVA SCOTIA COAL MAY FILL GAP

Ex-Fuel Controller Visiting Mines in Connection With Fuel Situation

Special to The Standard, Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 9.—C. A. Magrath, ex-fuel controller, left here today for Nova Scotia on what is believed to be a highly important mission in connection with the fuel situation as affected by general United States strike. It is believed that Mr. Magrath's mission is to ascertain to what extent central Canada can be dependent upon the Nova Scotia mines in the event of the United States government being compelled by a prolonged strike to prohibit the export of coal to Canada.

Drinking a Glass of Hot Water is a Splendid Habit

Cleanse and sweeten the system each morning and wash away poisonous stagnant matter.

Cleanse and sweeten the system each morning and wash away poisonous, stagnant matter.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise, splitting headache, stuffy nose, cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, lame back, can, instead, both look and feel as fresh as a daisy always by washing the poison and toxins from the body with phosphated hot water each morning.

We should drink, before breakfast, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to flush from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract before eating more food.

The action of limestone phosphate and hot water on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a fine appetite for breakfast. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs very little at the drug store, but is enough to make anyone who is bothered with biliousness, constipation, stomach trouble or rheumatism an enthusiast on internal sanitation.

CHAPTER OF THE ROYAL ARCMANUM

Enjoyable Social Held in Rooms Last Evening—Address Presented to Soldier Members.

One of the jolliest gatherings in the city last night was the social given by the local chapter of the Royal Arcmanum, to the soldier members, in their hall in the Market buildings.

Regent William A. Coleman presided, and after a few brief remarks called upon Horace A. Porter, grand regent for the Maritime Provinces, who told of the war records of the soldier members and presented an engraved address of appreciation, personally inscribed from the superior council to the following members who had fought in the great war:

Robert E. Anderson, J. Allan Selridge, Wm. McAllister, James L. McAvity, A. E. Loggie, Percy M. Riehm, Harry W. Chas. F. Garnett, George V. Vincent, J. A. Harrison, John R. Miller and W. Kenneth Clawson.

One member, who had served in the navy, who was likewise honored by the fraternity, could not accept the honor as the ethics of the Jack Tars forbade.

Following the presentation, an enjoyable musical programme was carried out, including instrumental selections by Messrs. Gray and Mulvey. Claret was passed around and the festive pastebards were brought in to use, after which the gathering sat down to a very satisfying luncheon.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

You can Bring Back Color and Lustre with Sage Tea and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. At little cost you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Wych's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and after another application on eve, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wych's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger.

Police Court Cases Yesterday

Evidence Concluded in the Raymond Case—Drug Company Fined for Selling Liquor—Five Drunks Were Remanded.

In the police court yesterday morning evidence was concluded in the case of Mrs. Kenneth Raymond, which involves a fur coat valued at $225.

The evidence of the defendant's husband was taken through at first Daniel Mullin, counsel for defence objected to the witness. On closing the case, Mr. Mullin argued that there was no evidence to establish a case of false pretence. G. H. Belyea for the prosecution also addressed the court. The case was postponed until Nov. 17.

In the afternoon the postponed prohibition case against the Brayley Drug Co. was taken up and the defendants fined $200 for selling liquor contrary to the provisions of the law. Evidence was given by William Bennett, who told of securing liquor from the defendants October 18. L. A. Conlon appeared for the defendants and J. M. Trueman acted for the prosecution.

The defence brought up a question regarding the liability of Bennett, who said in his evidence that he had been drunk and had liquor in his possession on the day in question. The Magistrate said it was necessary to get after the bootlegger and the violators of the prohibition law must necessarily be fined on the strength of other men's statements. He did not think that the informant should be prosecuted as it would be injurious to the work of the prohibition inspectors. He was in favor of letting the man go, but said if the matter were taken up and a fine imposed he would not enforce its collection. The matter was held over until next Monday at noon.

Mrs. Rosie Crossin remanded from the morning session answered to the charge of having lemon extract in her store in Brussels street. Inspector Merryfield told of warning the woman six weeks ago against selling the extract or having it in her store as a beverage. Inspector MacAlush told of making the raid Saturday and Chief Prosecutor Wilson, called in the afternoon, confirmed the statement that the woman was warned six weeks ago. He was in the store at the time and had seen many beer and lemon extract bottles but not much groceries.

In her defence Mrs. Crossin said that other concerns could sell lemon extract by the case why could she not sell it by the bottle? Asked why she kept the stuff, she said "to sell for cooking purposes." On further question she said she did not sell vanilla extract because there was no call for it. Some of the extract was kept in her kitchen, as on previous occasions over a dozen bottles had been stolen from her. "Was the need of lemon favoring so great that women would come and steal it off your shelves?" she was asked.

She was remanded. Five drunks, one of them a woman, were given a hearing and remanded.

Request For $5,000 Made To Council

Financial Committee of Vocational Training Board Asked for That Amount for Night Schools—Other Business Transacted.

A request for $5,000 for technical night schools was made in committee of the common council yesterday by the financial committee of the vocational training board. Early consideration was promised by council. Proposed street paving was also taken up and it was decided that preparations for the work should be carried on and a programme drawn up so that a start could be made as soon as a glibicette, next April, has determined the policy of payment.

It was agreed that the anniversary of armistice be observed as suggested by the King, in two minutes of electric beginning at 11 a. m. on Tuesday.

The Mayor announced that the city solicitor had prepared resolutions in regard to the proposed harbor agreement and the suggested plebiscite and that the matter should be the subject of a special meeting.

On the opening of the meeting, the finance committee of the vocational training board was heard. Thomas Nagle is chairman of the committee, and Dr. A. F. Emery, Alexander Wilson and G. F. Hennessey are the other members. Fletcher Peacock, secretary of the Provincial Vocational Board, was also present.

Mr. Nagle stated that the following courses were proposed: Industrial applied mathematics, estimates for builders, elements of mechanical drawing, architectural drawing, machine work, sketching and reading blue prints, sheet metal pattern drafting, letter and show card writing, sign painting, electrical wiring, elements of electric motors, civics and elementary chemistry. Home making—dress making, millinery and home cooking. Commercial education—book-keeping and stenography. It would cost $9,000 to operate the schools from November until March; the government would contribute 50 per cent of the cost of rent, fuel, lights, etc., or $4,000, and the council would contribute $5,000. It was proposed to use the city schools and the vocational board would supply the teachers. For the commercial course, arrangements had been made with the St. John Business College.

Dr. Emery favored more energetic action towards the establishment of a new building. A machine shop would be required if a building could be procured for $30,000 and equipped for $10,000 more. It would be better, he said, to issue a simultaneous invitation to all the belligerent parties in Russia, including Finland, Estonia and the other states to cease fighting November 25th and send delegates to Warsaw for a peace conference. December 15th is proposed as the date for the conference. The correspondent adds that Great Britain, France, the U. S., Italy and Japan also will be invited to send delegates.

Commissioner Bullock called attention to the flooding of a section of the West Side by high tide on Sunday last. On his report he was authorized to have the city engineer prepare and present a report on a means of controlling the tide at the Mill and empty. Further, that the engineer be instructed to report on a scheme for beautifying the area.

Commissioner Fisher favored extension of the trunk sewers reclamation work along the side of the pond and the planting of trees around the pond.

Commissioner Fisher was of the opinion that any one contractor could do only one street in a season; that there were only three contractors who would tender and hence only three streets could be paved next season. He mentioned Douglas Ayrault, Prince William street and City Road. His department could do Market Square south, King street, north side, and King street, West End, and perhaps the asphalt on Prince William.

Commissioner Bullock considered that the public works would be well occupied with sidewalks. Mr. Fisher replied that the department would do more sidewalks next year than in the past season, and that a large appropriation would be sought.

The Mayor said he would not vote on a bond issue without a plebiscite.

London, Nov. 10.—Telegraphing from Warsaw Sunday the correspondent of the Daily Herald says he hears from reliable sources that Poland is about to issue a simultaneous invitation to all the belligerent parties in Russia, including Finland, Estonia and the other states to cease fighting November 25th and send delegates to Warsaw for a peace conference. December 15th is proposed as the date for the conference. The correspondent adds that Great Britain, France, the U. S., Italy and Japan also will be invited to send delegates.

GOVERNOR GENERAL DELIVERS HIS SPEECH FROM THRONE

Reviews the Work of the Special Session of Parliament, Congratulating the Members on the Work Accomplished and Emphasized the Prominence of Canada's Place in the World Today.

Ottawa, Nov. 10.—The speech from the throne was as follows:

Hon. Gentlemen of the Senate: Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

"In relieving you from further attendance on this session, I thank you for the blessing and efficiency with which you have discharged your duties. Measures of great significance and importance have engaged your attention. The Treaty of Peace concluded by the Allied and Associated Powers with Germany and signed at Versailles on June 28th, 1919, and the Treaty of Peace between the same powers and the representative of Austria, signed at St. Germain-en-Laye on the 10th September, 1919, have been presented to you and have received your approval. These treaties having now been approved by Germany and Austria, on the one hand, and by at least three of the Allied and Associated Powers on the other hand, await only the exchange of ratifications to enter into full force and effect. I fervently trust that the provisions of these treaties, marking, as they do, the termination of hostilities, may usher in for humanity an era in which great wars may be prevented and the blessings of world peace actually secured.

Canada bore a large part of the operations of the war and contributed to its successful completion. It is, therefore, gratifying to be able to note the distinguished position accorded to her in the conduct of negotiations in the Peace Conference at Paris.

Prince's Visit.

The visit of His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales, to Canada has been a source of deep and widespread satisfaction. The universal welcome which has been extended to him is an evidence of devotion of the Canadian people to the Throne and to British institutions. This welcome, so wholehearted in character, is an undoubted tribute to the high personal character and qualities of His Royal Highness, who, in peace as in war, has closely identified himself with Canada, and shown his earnest desire to promote the welfare of the people of this Dominion.

G. T. Acquisition.

The acquisition of the Grand Trunk properties and their addition to the existing National Railways will materially promote the successful and economical administration of the whole system and greatly aid in the solution of the important problems of Canadian transport.

Review of Legislative Acts.

The adoption of the report of the committee of the House of Commons on bill number 10 will extend the scope and application of the important measures already taken for meeting the needs of returned soldiers and their dependants. The adoption of the classification of the civil service of Canada will make it possible for the commission to proceed at once with the further organization of the service.

"The success which has greeted the inauguration of the Victory loan is a tribute to the patriotism and organization capacity of Canadian businessmen and fully demonstrated the determination and readiness of the country to fulfill its obligations to its soldiers, maintain the credit of Canada, and strengthen its trade position.

"In a survey of the education and social conditions throughout the world it is satisfactory to note that Canada's position compares favorably with that of any other country, and as far more favorable than most. With the accordant action of labor and capital, aided as it has been by the Industrial Conference lately held, and with the continued application of our people to productive pursuits, accompanied by rigid adherence to thrift and saving, we can face the coming years of reconstruction and adjustment with hopeful confidence.

"Gentlemen of the House of Commons and Gentlemen of the Senate:

"I thank you for the provisions for the public service along the lines of re-constructive aid for the returned soldiers.

Honorable gentlemen of the Senate, gentlemen of the House of Commons, I devoutly pray that Almighty God may incline our minds to sane and prudent counsels, may inspire all our people with the will to work and to save, and continue the blessings of peace and prosperity within our borders."
