OTTAWA, June 27. The Reciprocity Treaty continues the present subject of comment. The Min-"damning it with faint praise." The GREAT REDUCTION Times to-day admits that Canada is making the greater concessions, but says we are less in debt than the United States and can afford to be generous. It also admits that the first overtures should come from the American Government, but says this is a trifle. Further Cabinet changes are rumored. Silk and Cashmere Mantles,
