LONDON, Dec. 21. The Sultan of Zanzibar, it is stated, will visit England next spring. There is reported the total defeat and routing of the Republican General Lopez Domínguez, in Catalonia, by Carlist troops, with heavy loss of killed and wounded. Seven hundred men embarked for Cuba on the 16th. The division of parties in the French Assembly, in consequence of the vote in the Committee of Thirty on the 16th, produced a dead lock, which will certainly cause a dissolution of the Assembly, when a vote on the Constitutional bill is to be taken immediately after the recess. The steamer Abotsford, injured by collision, has been repaired and sailed for New York today.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21. One hundred and twenty-two passengers and crew of the steamship Japan arrived at Hong Kong. Four passengers, several of the crew and 400 Chinese, are on rats, and boats have not yet been heard from.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 21. POWDER MAGAZINE EXPLODED BY LIGHTNING. During a furious storm to-day lightning struck the powder magazine in Scutari and caused a terrible explosion. A portion of the city wall was overthrown, many houses demolished and 200 persons killed and wounded.

LONDON, Dec. 21. A CARLEIGH OUTRAGE. It is reported that a German brig was fired on by Carleights in the harbor of Guetaria, and the vessel afterwards stranding the boats were fired upon while Republicans were rescuing the crew.

MEXICAN MATRONS. PRESIDENT'S HEALTH IMPROVING. A system of telegraph wires covering the entire Republic of Mexico will soon be completed. The Mexican Congress has approved of the convention prolonging the term of the Mixed Commission at Washington. The Mexican Official Diario pronounces the report that Germany is endeavoring to obtain a port in Mexico a sheer imagination.

(Special to Daily News.) OTTAWA, Dec. 21. The time for the receipt of the tenders for the construction of the Georgian Bay Branch of the Canada Pacific expired today, but the names of the successful contractors have not yet been made public. In the Public Works Department today an investigation commenced into the matters connected with the intercolonial contracts. The Ontario elections will take place on the 22nd of January next.

BATHURST, Dec. 21. A serious row occurred at a public house here called the Mainland early yesterday morning. Several revolvers were taken out, demolishing furniture and threatening the lives of the inmates. One man who offered resistance was knocked down and tied, and one woman was badly injured. A seizure was made to-day in George Smith's store for non-payment of taxes. Other seizures will be made for the same reason. The School Law would work well, but for Bona, one of the local members, who has the opposition to it. A petition has been forwarded to the Dominion Government for the formation of the woman's Political Union. The small pox virus for the 'Carleton Hospital are worse to-day, and a fatal termination is anticipated.

The Institute Lectures. Mr. Warren's lecture, last evening, was a clear and entertaining presentation of some of the scientific discoveries that have been made in the investigation of light. Mr. Warren made himself understood by all, so happy in his facility of illustration. Take your children to hear him this evening.

City Police Court. Patrick Condon was charged with assaulting Marshal Hancock. Mr. Hancock said the prisoner was under the influence of liquor, and he did not wish to press the charge. Marshal Hancock was making a seizure of leather at Mr. Corkery's store for taxes when the assault was made. In discharging Condon the Magistrate took occasion to refer to the school law, and the complaints that are made against it. From the idea that some parties promulgated that the schools were "godless" and "infidel" he entirely dissented, and in his experience he had never known Catholic children drawn from their church by sitting on the same bench with Protestant children. The prisoner promised not to so far forget himself again, and was discharged. John Warren pleaded guilty of being drunk and fighting in an alley off Charlotte street, and was fined $4. William Armstrong, for drunkenness in Prince William street, was fined $4. Patrick Dollard said he would "have to say he was drunk for accommodation," but he "implicitly denied" the charge. "It is funny if a man is arrested for looking crooked," he said, "but it is so." The evidence of Policeman Weatherhead proved that he was drunk and tumbling round Lester street, so a fine of $4 was imposed. Christopher McCaffery confessed to drunkenness in St. John street, and was fined $4. Alfred Clittick was fined $4 for drunkenness in Charlotte street. Alexander Diggs, Joseph Diggs, Andrew Lane and George Williams were charged with using abusive language to Robert French. Fined $6 each, or, in default, 20 days gaol. William L. Rayner was charged with assaulting Samuel Lester. The trial was adjourned until to-morrow, as a witness was required.

A strange story reaches us from Hamilton of an unfortunate man, after one of his hind feet was broken entirely off, continuing to pull her best to the end of a fourteen mile journey.

The National Agricultural Laborers' Union have renewed their agitation in the West of England. A meeting at Crewkerne, Dec. 1, was attended by 2000 persons. Mr. C. E. Girdlestone, nephew of Canon Girdlestone, presided, and among the letters read was one from Mr. Fawcett, who congratulated the laborers on the way in which they were carrying on the movement, and assured them that if they persevered success would be sure to crown their efforts. Resolutions were passed declaring that the present uncertain tenure of land prevented farmers from carrying out their responsible duties, and operated against the full cultivation of the land; asking for the enfranchisement of the agricultural laborers, and pledging the laborers to stand by the union as the only means of bettering their position. A violent scene took place at the close of the meeting. Mr. Girdlestone and Mr. Mitchell had made the George Hotel their headquarters, and after the meeting a crowd burst into the coffee room and assaulted and insulted them, particularly Mr. Girdlestone. Other gentlemen who were in the room, being mistaken for unionists, came in for a share of the abuse.
