ALMONTE

From the Times.

Mr. Arch. Rosamond has moved to his home at Elm Glen from Pinehurst. A sad and distressing accident occurred at Pakenham on Tuesday evening by which Mr. W. Ross, whose farm adjoins the village, lost his life. It appears that he attempted to cross the railway track in front of the oncoming 4.40 train, and slipped on the track, with the result that he was struck by the pilot of the engine and instantly killed.

At the municipal nominations in the Council Chamber on Monday evening, to fill one vacancy, Messrs. James H. Bennett and James Little were proposed. Mr. Little declined to be a candidate, and Mr. Bennett was therefore elected by acclamation. He has served two years in the Council, and was again nominated last December, but declined. He makes an excellent Councillor.

During the past year seven retired farmers have passed away in the Third Ward. They all lived to a ripe old age. One was 83, two at 82, one at 79, two at 78, and one at 69. Of course this is not the total number in the town who were "borne to that bourne from which no traveller returns," but only for the ward mentioned. In the First Ward one died at 96.

Death came with startling suddenness, between 2 and 3 o'clock, last Sunday afternoon to Mrs. John Rea, who expired suddenly at the home of her husband on Union street. Deceased was in her usual good health during the day. The late Mrs. Rea was born in Ramsay township 75 years ago, where she resided all her life until a little over a year ago, when she and her husband moved to town. In addition to her husband she is survived by two daughters—Miss Bessie, teacher, at Kenora, and Miss Daisy Rea, also a teacher, at Ottawa. The funeral took place Wednesday afternoon to the 8th line cemetery.

Driver William Belisle arrived home Tuesday morning from England. Wm. is in the pink. He comes back from the big show a new man. He has seen much of the old world ways, and is now ready to take up civil life in Canada again, satisfied that this Dominion is the best place to live in.

Announcement is made by the Civil Service Commission that R. J. C. Stead of Calgary is the successful candidate for the position of Publicity Agent for the Department of Immigration and Colonization, at a salary of $4,000 per annum. Mr. Stead is a cousin of Mr. Arch. M. Campbell of Pine Grove.

Lanark curlers went to Perth last Monday night. They met two rinks representing Perth and again suffered defeat. There must be something in want of practice. And the trouble of the whole matter is that we are all dressed up and no where to go. The rink is gone and unless we get back to the ice on the river, no indoor accommodation offers. But it was a good game anyway and enjoyed as much as though we won. The game was for the County Challenge Cup.

Peace Conference Has Been Too Leisurely.

Sir Robert Borden Protests Against Present Situation in Paris and Tells Canadian Soldiers That They Have Right to Know at Once When They Will Return to Their Homes.

PARIS, Feb. 17.—There are increasing evidences of dissatisfaction among the delegates over the leisurely progress made by the Peace Conference towards the accomplishment of the primary purpose for which the Conference was called: the conclusion of peace, thus permitting the world to set itself to the problems of peace.

The present situation of neither war nor peace, with the resumption of hostilities a possibility, even though a remote one, encourages industrial and political unrest which is becoming more manifest in European countries with each passing week. It is felt that the organization of the conference does not expedite proceedings. The reference of different questions to special committees to examine into and report upon, is only effective if the committees are active. The League of Nations committee sat daily for ten days and finally produced a draft of the proposed constitution, and the labor committee has been meeting at brief intervals and hopes to reach conclusions in a fortnight. There are a dozen committees with more work in sight and many of them do not seem to find it practicable to hold meetings oftener than once a week.

The important committee of Greek claims is a case in point. Appointed over a week ago, it has had only one meeting. A second meeting was to have been held on Saturday to consider the dispute as to the ownership of Northern Epirus, but was postponed. At this rate of speed it will take weeks to complete its work. It is understood that there have been formal protests against these delays. The Premiers of three great powers have now departed to attend pressing domestic questions and the other delegates face the prospect of long-drawn-out delays in reaching decisions which press for settlement.

Sir Robert Borden gave some expression to these feelings in the course of an address delivered Saturday evening to Canadian officers and soldiers on leave at the Canadian Y.M.C.A. hostel, Place d'Orleans.

In the course of his remarks Sir Robert said: "The proposed constitution of the League of Nations has been laid before the Peace Conference by a committee appointed for that purpose. I do not intend to discuss these provisions to-night, beyond offering the expression of my opinions that it affords a sound working basis for that discussion and consideration which it will receive in due course. The League of Nations will be welcomed by none more earnestly and thankfully than by those who mourn for their dead and by those who for years have stemmed the savage onslaught of the Central Powers. There are millions of these men still under arms. They will count no hour mispent which has been devoted to the formulation of the proposed League of Nations. They will hail it with thankfulness and with gratitude, but we who cannot even imagine, much less realize, the horrors and hardships which they have borne for years with invincible courage must never forget that they are waiting with tense hearts for the signal which will restore them to their homes, their families and their occupations."

"I listened in vain yesterday for some word as to the anxious waiting of these men, and if the arrangement of speakers, and the time available, had permitted, I should have deemed it my privilege to speak it. I have in mind especially my own countrymen in the Canadian army, many thousands of whom have served in this war for more than four years. They have been wounded, perhaps many times, and they have again returned to the trenches. Twenty, perhaps fifty, times they have gone 'over the top' hand-in-hand with death. They are vitally concerned that peace shall be made, and without delay. We shall be recreant to our duty if we rob our soldiers, even for a day, of the eagerly anticipated return to their homes, and their dear ones. I speak of the Canadians, because I know what is in their hearts, and it may, perhaps, express the thoughts and feelings of all troops now under arms. Although weary of war, they are going to fight until the cause is won, and while there is merely an armistice the cause has not been finally won. But more than three months have elapsed since the armistice was declared, and let us not flatter ourselves that our soldiers believe no time has been wasted. They are amazed at the extremely deliberate methods employed, and at some of the subjects upon which time is being spent."

"They demand to know, and, before God, they have the right to know, and to know without one moment's unnecessary delay, whether there is to be any further fighting, and if so, for what cause and to what purpose."

"This is the urgent, stern imperative demand of those to whose unsparing sacrifice and enduring valor the Peace Conference owes its authority, and to whom it must concede its labors. The soldiers did not palter with the purpose for which they went forth, they now expect the diplomats to follow their example."
