GOLDEN KEYS.

A bunch of golden keys is mine To make each day with gladness shine.

"Good morning ?" that's the golden key That unlocks every day for me.

When evening comes, "Good night!" I say, And close the door of each glad day.

When at the table, "If you please I take from off my bunch of keys.

When friends give anything to me, I'll use the little "Thank you!" key.

"Excuse me," "Beg your pardon," too, When by mistake some harm I do,

Or if unkindly harm I've given, With the "Forgive me" key I'll be forgiven.

On a golden ring these keys I'll bind, This is its motto, "Be ye kind."

I'll often use each golden key, And then a polite child I'll be. —Unionist Gazette.

WHAT IT DOES.

If I drink beer It makes me queer. It makes me pale. If I drink wine My joys decline.
If I drink gin
It leads to sin. If I drink rum Sad sorrows come. If I drink grog I'm all agog. Try what I will, From vat or still, It gives me pain And turns my brain.
I'll leave it all Before I fall.

ONE HOUR.

The great clock in the church steeple struck three; the afternoon sun slowly waned, and the shadows lengthened in the streets. The clock struck four.

It was only an hour. The children playing on the sidewalk did not know that it had gone; but in it a great-hearted man had written down some strong, true words, which will live long in the world, and give courage and help to many struggling souls. In it a chemist, working with brain and hand over carefully prepared compounds, had discovered one of the secrets of nature -how the atoms of elements group them-selves to form a molecule of organic mat-

In it four women, sitting with their sewing on yonder porch, had brought out old forgotten scandals, and set them loose again in the world, like flying scorpions, to poison and to kill.

In that hour a young man in the next house to them had yielded to a temptation which never will loose its grip on him while he lives.

In the same time a woman with a child on her lap tells him a story with a high, pure meaning, which will be a "lamp to his feet" all the days of his life. Another woman, watching silent and motionless by a sick bed, fills the hour with prayers and high thoughts, that will serve as food for her soul in the trouble which is coming to her.

How many of us remembered that the hour was passing—a servant, laden with the report which we should give to it—up to

What report did it carry of us? What burden are we making ready at this moment for the hour that is passing now?

"Only an hour! Yet the despised slave," says Antigonous, "may be laden with treasure that would ransom a Cassar."—Youth's

NORTHERN MESSENGER PREMIUM LIST

VALUABLE BOOKS AND USEFUL PRIZES:

The Messenger premium list for 1887-88 is an entirely new one and has been selected with great care.

Read the following list of prizes offered for the Northern Messenger and see how anyone with very little effort can become the owner of a nice prize.

The Northern Messenger may without ex aggeration be described as not only one of the cheapest illustrated papers published but as perhaps the best for its price in the world, and those having received premiums last year say they had no trouble in securing subscribers as the paper is such a favorite with the old and young.

The premium list of last year was so successful and gave so much satisfaction that we have been encouraged to adopt another this year offering still greater inducements.

No home should be without books for the long winter evenings and in selecting we have chosen those that will give pleasure and profit to all who will read and learn; The prize list is not, however, confined to books.

READ CAREFULLY.

To any subscriber sending us ONE NEW NAME along with their own subscription, at 30 cents each, we will send a copy of "Marcus Ward's Royal Illuminated Nursery Rhymes" with music. These books while specially suited for the lit-tle ones will find no lack of appreciation among those who are older. The well-known adventures of "Little Bo-Peep," the trials of "Old Mother Hubbard," and the triumph of "The Carrion Crow," all are graphically portrayed in full pagebeautiful colored pictures, and the rhymes set to music, so that they may be sung as well as said.

Another inducement for the little ones to work is in the second prize offered. Every boy or girl who sends us TWO NEW SUBSCRIBERS and one REMEWAL, will receive a beautiful little story book strongly bound in cloth, with a bright picture cover, and a full page illustration on every second page.

To the person sending us FIVE NEW SUBSCRIPTIONS or SEVEN RENEWALS at 30 cents each we will give their choice of any one of eight beautiful prizes, as follows :--

- 1. UNGLE TOM'S CABIN .- A book read as eagerly by young people to-day as it was by their fathers thirty odd years ago. Bound in colored cloth and illustrated by numerous colored
- 2. BUFFON'S NATURAL HISTORY .- A book of th elze and style as the previous, modernized from the most recent authorities and containing eight full page colored plates of birds, beasts,
- eight full page colored plates of brief scales, fishes and reptiles.

 8. FAST IN THE ICE.—The thrilling story of Arctic adventure, by R. M. saliantyne. Fascinates every boy (and many girls too) who can hardly be prevailed upon a leave it until he has finished it, and when it is done, sighs because it is too
- 4. WONDERS OF THE MINE. By another well know writer for boys, W. H. G. Kingston. The workings of coal; iron, copper, silver, gold, quicksilver and salt mines are all described, as are also some of the great natural caves, and the whole is illustrated with thirteen cuts.
- 5. ILLUSTRATED NATIONAL PRONOUNCING DICTIONARY -No house can afford to be without a dictionary, and here is a grand opportunity for those who need one to secure it without money and with only a trifling outlay of time.

- 6. As Time Glibes On,—or the months of the year in Picture and Poem. A beautiful gift book for either Christmas or birthdays, containing a Sample copies and blank forms aunulted poem and beautiful full page engraving for each month of the year. Illuminated cover. Ribbon tied. Measures 7 x 6 inches. The whole forming one of the daintlest gift books
- SILVER-PLATED SUGAR SHELL of neat design and good quality, that needs only to be seen to speak for itself.
- 8. A SILVER-PLATED BUTTER KNIFE of the same quality, and pronounced remarkable for the money by all who see it.

FOR TEN NEW SUBSCRIBERS, OR FIFTEEN RENEWALS at 30c each our workers

- will have their choice of the following :-1. A KNIGHT OF THE NINETEENTE CENTURY."-By the Rev. E. P. Roe.
- 2. OPENING A CHESTNUT BURR popular of the Rev. E. P. Roe's widely read stories.
- 3. THE HOME AT GREYLOGE.—By the author of that well-known girl's story "Stepping Heavenward."
- 4. BEN HUR, by General Lew Wallace, considered by many the best tale of the time of our Savious ever written. The chapter describing the Roman Charlot Race is worth the whole cost of the book.
- 5. THE PEEP OF DAY .- A book the popularity which may be judged by the fact that the edition we now offer is from the English edition of the four hundred and second thousand. This book gives all the leading Bible stories from Genesis to Revelation in language which the chi'd of five or even three years old will appreclate and enjoy and is of untold help to fathers and mothers in the early training of their lit-tie ones. The book is strongly and beautifully bound and illustrated with twelve full page en gravings.
- 6. MRS SOLOMON SMITH LOOKING ON.—By. "Pansy;"
 7. THE POCKET MEASURE.—By "Pansy;"
 S. THREK PEOPLE.—By "Pansy;"—Mrs. Alden's books
 bring their character with them, and a sufficient recommendation of the brightness and wholesomeness of any story is the fact that it was written by "Pansy." This we feel will be an unusually welcome offer, as hitherto the "Pansy" books could not be procured for les than $1.50.
- 9. SLICED ANIMALS.—A large box of brilliantly colored pictures of all sorts of animals on strong pasteboard. These pictures are each cut in a num ber of strips and mixed together affording children, and not very young children either, many hours of keenest enjoyment and whole instruction during the long winter even ings in the work of putting these dissected animals together again
- SILVER PLATED SUGAR SHELL AND BUTTER KNIFE. The two useful articles of silverware men tioned shove
