for the approaching session & By the way let me congratulate you on your newmarket speech & its deftness, as well as its sincerity, ^{common} my complete admiration affair ² The little syndicate of Liberal newspapers which I have kept alive for the last two years but I fancy that O'Connell's occupation is gone as my articles, however cheap, will necessarily yield place to the official and authoritative propaganda of the party & I would be pleased to know just where I stand in regard to the new Liberal bureau of which I suppose Mr Lewis is the director & of the new arrangement crowds me out I should like to be informed of it
