

33/S/8/18154.

June 28, 1930.

Dear Sir:-

Herewith please find enclosed copy of letter I have addressed to Chief Councillor Adams of the Aiyansh Indians which is self-explanatory. This letter is being sent to Constable Newnham to deliver to Adams without delay. You will realize that in order that the matter may be properly closed up I should either have an official answer from the Council or set a time limit for non-receipt of the same. It is thought Adams will be working for some of the canneries around Kincolith, but providing he is working on the Skeena River, will you please get in touch with him at once and give him the copy of the letter which I have sent to Mr. Newnham to deliver.

Yours respectfully,

WED/KD.
