

strength and prosperity of the peoples of that whole great area and also their sense of solidarity and common purpose even beyond the economic field. Such a result could not fail to be welcomed by Canadians whose security, and cultural and political heritage, as well as economic welfare, have been, and are, so closely linked with that part of the world.

VISIT RECORDED

His Excellency Katay D. Sasorith, right, Deputy Prime Minister of Laos, is seen after signing the Speaker's Book in the Senate during his visit to Ottawa last month. Mr. Keo Viphakone, Counsellor of the Laotian Embassy in Washington, is shown signing the book. With the distinguished visitors is Mr. Paul Bridle, former Commissioner, Canadian Delegation, International Supervisory Commission, Laos.