

NFB films when two of the Board's productions, Flight and Pas de Deux, were shown at the International Film Festival in Phnom Penh in November. The latter film, by Norman McLaren, received the first prize as the best short production entered in the festival — a golden statuette of an Apsara, a temple dancer depicted in the sculpture of Angkor Wat.