

So let the last of the four Marys be the dearest and best of them all—the Interceding Virgin Mary.

Thus we have gone back to the Gospels and studied the originals that are found there. You see that we have a full programme of missions in these four Marys:

1. Mary Magdalene is the "going" missionary.
2. Mary, the wife of Cleophas, is the "sending" missionary.
3. Mary, of Bethany, is the "giving" missionary.
4. The Virgin Mary is the "praying" missionary."

May Marys of all these types be found among the members of the Woman's Auxiliary.