e country. He

of the firm of of French draft turn of mind, nds for say ng purposes are r grade horses, back up his

Thomas, and ard township, from a never aly every fle'd develand bay r of roadsters e owns Major l George, He Bonairs and prizes at the site the Idle-

town, is also
es. He owns farm's Pride,
He also owns er of twentyons. Amboy o practice in farm on the a gentleman osted stockst managers ent and skill among the oprietor and thoroughsome good torses, he is class livery horsemen as he manageda. Horses ng.

of Guelph, hire swine, this herd of than forty of contains in Canada, h destroyed by Is agained to Inred to Intendof his stock on another of some of door of door of the contains the conta

Jeans Groff, Gillon postollice, breeds registered shorthorn cattle, and is an exporter of cattle and horses. Is a well-known horseman, and extensive buyer and shipper of heavy draft, carriage and roadster horses, and enjoys the con-siden to of horsemen generally.

J. Hugo Reed, V. S., Gue ph, graduated from the Toronto Veterinary College, in 1882, and located in Guelph, where he has won for himself a good practice and a good name among stockmen generally. Is a dealer in saddle herses, and an importer and breeder of trotting and read horses. In 1887 imported from Kentucky the promising young stallion Lexington, Julior, sired by the standard bred horse Lexington. Golddust, his dum, being Alice by Medock Morgan, and a standard bred manling stallion Wilson Burr (No. 7,194, vol. 7, Wallace's American Trotting Registery, raised by Major Ehrr, he by Wilson, and he by George Wilkes; dam Ella B. by Red Wilkes, she by George Wilkes; dam Ella B. by Red Wilkes, she by George

P. Spragge, Guelph, proprietor of a large and well-equipped livery, sale and boarding stable, is one of the most prominent, reliable and well known horsemen in this part of the country, his name being as familiar as household words. Enjoys quite a local reputation as an importer and breeder of pure bred Scotch collie dogs, having sent a number of this kind to British Columbia. Horses hought and sod on compission.

Horses bought and sold on commission.

Thos, Gowdy, Guelph, manufacturer of agricultural implements, is an admirer of good horses, and breeder of trotting stock from such fashlouably bred brood marcs as Sarah G. sired by Zilcadi Golddinst (4.400), W. T. R. dam by Bunker Hill, a son of Green Mountain Black Hawk. (In 1887 Sarah G. was bred to Jerome Turner, record 2:15½) Queen Golddust by Lexington Golddinst, he by Golddust, dam Alice by Medock Morgan, and he by Vermont Morgan. He also has some stock of the famous Tippo breed.

Wm. Whitelaw, Gnelph, Ont., breeder of registered shorthorn Durham eattle, and has for many years been a prominent and well-known importer and breeder of Horden Leacester sheep. Among his recent importations are some exceptionally flue unimals from the herd of Lord Polworth, who is probably the most noted breeder of Borden Leicesters in Scotland; also breeds Shropshire down sheep. Mr. Whitelaw's herd of cuttle consists of a number of fine females, mostly of the Bates strain, with a pure bred Cruickshank bull, thred by John Dryden, M. P. P., of Brooklin), at the head of the herd, and are all registered in the D. S. H. H. B. Keeps on hand both pure bred cattle and sheep for sale. Smittle Evans, Gouroek postoffice, proprietor of Wil-

Smith Evans, Gouroek postoffice, proprietor of Willow Grove Stock Farm, is an importer and breeder of Oxford down and Cotswold sheep. His stock are all either imported or bred direct from imported stock. Has exported a number to the States. Keeps on hand good young stock for sale.

Thomas McCrae, Janesvitle, Guelph, Ont., is an extensive importer, exporter and breeder of Galloway and Polled Angus eattle, Clydesdule horses and Cotswold sheep. Is the oldest and most widely known importer of Galloways in Ontario, or probably America, having been largely engaged in the business since 1861. His herd comprises many very fine animals, both male and female, and he seldom has less than from forty to sixty head on hand. His imported registered Clydesdule brood marcs are first class, and their progeny by imported sires should deserve the attention of intending purchasers. Pure bred Clydesdula herses, Polled cattle and Cotswold sheep kept on hand for sale.

F. Sturdy, breeder of thoroughbred Jersey cattle and poultry, Gnelph, Ont., has golden spangled Hamburgs, colored Dorkings, light Brahmas, Louen duck eggs and chickens for sale.