In no other place in Canada can the tourist and sportsman find such advantages as at "The Bellevue House," Lake Temiskaming. The Lake is easy of access; there is a well-appointed and luxurious modern hotel; fish and game in abundance at its door—as opposed to the many over-run summer resorts where fish and game are mythical and legendary; travel on Lake by steamer, with appointments equal to the best, through scenery unequalled in the Laurentian type, surpassing, it is claimed, even the beauty of the far-famed Saguenay. A few minutes run by train brings us to Kippewa Lake, so different in its outlines to Lake Temiskaming. It is a lake of many and deep bays and inlets—a lake of lakes, of islands great and small, whose waters teem with fish. The lake has a coast line of about 600 miles, though occupying but a comparatively small space on the map, owing to its many intricate channels and great expansions. The country bordering its waters is far-famed for its large game. "The Lumsden Line" Steamers run to all parts of the lake. And to those who love canoe excursions, Temiskaming, with its numerous by-ways to other lakes, affords numberless routes through unlimited tracts of ever-changing scenery, with ever-present fish and game in abundance.

After doing full justice to a well-cooked dinner of several courses, served in the best style, we repair to the wharf, and note with satisfaction that we will lose nothing in comfort by the change from railway to steamboat travel.
