

Faculty of Medicine.

The forty-sixth Session of the Medical Faculty of McGill University will be opened on Tuesday, October 1st, 1878, with a general Introductory Lecture at 11 a.m. The regular lectures will begin on Wednesday the 2nd Oct., at the hours specified in the time-table, and will be continued during the six months following.

The Medical College, a large and substantial building situated within the University Grounds, contains three spacious class rooms, Students' waiting-room, Library, Museum, Laboratories, together with a large and well furnished Dissecting-room.

The class tickets for the various courses are accepted as qualifying candidates for examination before the various Colleges and licensing bodies of Great Britain and Ireland, and the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario.

To meet the circumstances of the General Practitioners in British North America, where there is no division of the profession into Physicians and Surgeons exclusively, the degree awarded upon graduation is that of "Doctor of Medicine and Master of Surgery," in accordance with the general nature and character of the curriculum, as fully specified hereafter. The degree is received by the College of Physicians and Surgeons of the Province of Quebec.
