

ly under the control of the Parliament—instead of Railway Commissioners—has been carried through both Houses, and adds that the emphatic condemnation of the rule of the Commissioners was in great part due to the evidence tendered to the Standing Committee on Railways, which showed that in the purchase of land for railway purposes, and in construction generally, there has been a profusion of expenditure without limit and without necessity. Parliament recognised the seriousness of the position by transferring railway construction to the Board of Lands and Works, and greatly restricting the volition of the Commissioners in the management of existing lines. One of the revelations of the year was the result of the inquiry by the Free Pass Committee, which elicited the facts that not only did the official world treat the Railways as its own property, but that a whole host of strangers were allowed to travel free, and that members of Parliament could, in addition to their own free travelling, get as many free passes as they pleased for "their sisters, their cousins and their aunts." And yet we were supposed, at an annual cost of £6000 for commissioners' salaries, to have abolished political influence in railway management!

From the foregoing it will also be seen that official and political robberies are not confined to Canada.

The Anglo-Saxon vs. Arrears.

We regret the necessity of using the columns of the ANGLO-SAXON as a means of again requesting the delinquent subscribers to remit their back subscriptions. We have, on different occasions, with extra expense, "billed" their accounts privately; some have responded. Still there are over one hundred owing the ANGLO-SAXON, two and three YEARS back subscriptions!!

We feel sure the brethren in Toronto who are owing us, would be able to sustain the "only English weekly," with a clearer conscience, if subscriptions OVER DUE the ANGLO-SAXON were first paid off. Trusting this will suffice as a final request. Our address remains the same, P.O. Box 236.

LONGFORD MILLS.

On March 18th, Lodge St. Asaph held its regular quarterly meeting. Past Sup. G. Pres., R. Ivens, of Toronto, made an official visit, accompanied by the Worthy President, Vice, and Secretary of Lodge Hampton, and during regular business conducted the installation of two Committeemen and a hearty vote of thanks tendered to P. S. G. P. Ivens and visiting brethren, for their presence and assistance. This was carried by a standing vote. Bro. Ivens responded in a speech of over half an hour, and gave a clear concise and exhaustive account of the aims, objects, benefits and progress, of the Order, and of the grand old empire of which we form no mean part. He exhorted the members to work more and more for the Order. Bro. Ivens congratulated the Lodge on the efficient manner in which the business was conducted, a recess being here declared, the members enjoyed a pleasant hour in harmony. Songs were sung. Bro. Ivens gave a recitation, mimicking a stage struck hero, who thought he could surprise the world by his way of rendering Shakespeare's death scene. Bro. Ivens sware a marvellous gift of mimicry, and kept the members in roars of laughter. The Lodge closed with the members singing the glorious "National Anthem."

Our Representatives.

We extend our warmest thanks to the brethren who have kindly consented to represent the ANGLO-SAXON: J. Critchley, Victoria, B.C. R. A. Edwards, Montreal, Que. R. S. Grundy, Toronto. J. B. Harker, Belleville. E. W. Thurston, New Glasgow, N.S. T. C. Andrews, Winnipeg, Man. Chas. F. Chanter, Chatham, Ont. Arthur C. Bacon, Brockville. W. E. Pethick, Bowmanville. V. Eastwood, Peterborough. E. Doughty, Calgary, N.W.T. W. H. Boycott, New Westminster, British Columbia.

Lodge Cards under this head will be inserted at the rate of One Dollar per Year.

Aims, Objects and Benefits OF THE SONS OF ENGLAND BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.

Organized in Toronto, December 12th, 1874.

To Englishmen and Sons of Englishmen: The mission of this Society is to bring into organized union all true and worthy Englishmen; to maintain their national institutions and liberties and the integrity of the British Empire; to foster and keep alive the loving memory of Old England, our native and Motherland; to elevate the lives of its members in the practice of mutual aid and true charity—caring for each other in sickness and adversity and following a deceased brother with fraternal care and sympathies, when death comes, to earth's resting place.

Great Financial Benefits, viz: Sick pay, Doctor's attendance and medicine and Funeral Allowance are accorded. Healthy men between the ages of 18 and 60 years are received into membership. Honorary members are also admitted. Roman Catholic Englishmen are not eligible.

Reverence for and adhesion to the teachings of the Holy Bible is insisted on. Party politics are not allowed to be discussed in the lodge room.

The Society is secret in its proceedings to enable members to protect each other and prevent imposition—for which purpose an initiation Ritual is provided, imposing obligations of fidelity to the principles of the Society on all who join it.

The Society is making rapid growth and has lodges extending over Canada from the Atlantic to the Pacific shores, having a membership upwards of 12,000 at present, the ratio of increase being for greater as the Society's influence and usefulness is better known. Lodges have been started in South Africa and will soon probably be started in England, etc.

The Beneficiary (Insurance) Department is providing insurance to the members for $1,000 or $2,000 as desired, at the minimum cost, unsurpassed by any other fraternal Society in Canada. The assessments are graded. A total disability allowance is also covered by the certificates. No Englishmen need join other organizations when the inducements of this Department are considered.

Englishmen forming and composing new lodges derive exceptional advantages in the initiation fees, and 12 good men can start a lodge.

The Society is governed by a Grand Lodge with subordinate lodges—the officers of which are elected annually.

In our lodge rooms social distinctions are laid aside and we meet on the common level of national brotherhood, in patriotic association for united counsel and effort in maintaining the great principles of our beloved Society. As such we can appeal to the sympathetic support of all true Englishmen—asking them to cast in their lot with us, thereby swelling the grand roll of those bound together in fraternal sympathies and in devotion to England and the grand cause of British freedom.

Any further information will be cheerfully given by the undersigned.
