was first at Dunoon as a three-year-old. He has also a very superior two-year-old filly, by Favorite's Heir, and two first class yearling fillies. One is by Ascot, and was first at Kirkcudbright, a few weeks ago. The other is by Beacon's Pride, was bred by Mr. Wm. Hood, and is own sister to the high-priced mare bought at the Blacon Point sale by Mr. S. Hunter, Whiteleys. Mr. Aitchison believes in owning the best. He has at home a full sister to Mr. Ernest Kerr's champion mare Pyrene, which he purchased a few years ago from Mr. Sorby. It is gratifying to find new patrons of the Clydesdale springing up who go in for the class of stock favored by Mr. Aitchison. Good luck to the Katalia and her valuable cargo—Scottish Farmer.

More Importations for Ontario

Alfred Mansell & Co., live stock exporters, Shrewsbury, Shropshire, England, have shipped by the Donaldson Line from Glasgow, on the 12th inst, a choice consignment of 56 Shropshire sheep, 8 Hackneys, a two-year-old Hackney pony from Mr. Alfred S. Day's noted stud, and a choice selection of 5 Berkshire boars and gilts to the Langton Stock Farm Co., Ltd., of Ontario. The whole of the animals were most carefully selected by the manager of the company, Mr. T. A. Cox, with the assistance of Mr. Alfred Mansell. The Hackneys, a grand lot, were eight in number, and hailed from Mr. Concha's prize winning stud, and consisted of three beautiful males with good feet at foot, an extra good filly, a very promising two-year-old bay stallion and one gelding. Berkshires were supplied by Mr. R. W. Hudson, and comprised the second prize boar at the Buxton West Show, and four young sows of the highest order of merit. In Shropshires Mr. Cox made an extra good selection—Mr. Minto supplying eleven stylish low-set rams with grand heads, some two or three of which must prove outstanding sires, and ten smart shearing ewes by Sensational 11884, by Irish Guardian 11108, Royal No. 12140, winner R.A.S.E., by Sherlowe Lad 11271, winner R.A.S.E., by Ozona 12068, and Montford Longitude 11173. Mr. J. S. Harding's 20 shearing ewes, 6 rams and 6 ram and ewe lambs, sired by the Mansell-bred ram Harrington Farewell 11091, by Rose West 10114, a son of the celebrated 11144, R. N. 9734, Fickle Fortune 11144, R. N. Carlisle, R.A.S.E., Climax Ace 11708, by I.X.L. 9498, Chance II 11704, by the 150 guinea P.D.Q. 10478, whilst three rams were bred by Mr. C. Blatherwick, of the Beam House, Montford Bridge.
