COUNT CAMPELLO.

A recent report that Count Campello had made his way back to Roman Catholicism seems to have been incorrect. The Rome correspondent of the Record, writing on the 25th, Count Enrico di Campello, formerly a Canon of St. Peter's, whose secession from the Church of Rome caused such sensation last year, purposes to hold Divine service according to the Liturgy of the Church of England, in the Italian language God grant it may be the germ of a Reformed Church in Italy ! Want of means to pay the hire of a suitable room has been and still is the obstacle in the Count's path. In renouncing his canonry he renounced his income of 15,000 francs a year, and his private means are very limited. Friends are rallying round him, and he hopes shortly with their help to initiate the movement which he contemplates. Hitherto Italians, who have left the Romish Church, have been cut off from public worship, except on the condition of their joining the Waldensian Church, or attending the services held by different branches of Dissenters. Many, especially amongst the educated classes, though prepared to renounce the errors of Popery, cannot fully reconcile themselves to the doctrines of the Waldensian Church and the want of an established form of prayer. MR. EDITOR ;- The 12th ult., was The same objection holds good against an high day among our friends at dissent. The funeral of Robert A. Hay, Esq., of Woodstook, N. B., took place on the 12th inst. An impressive service conducted by the pastor, Rev. G. M. Campbell, took place in the Methodist church into which the remains were carried. Mr. Campbell delivered a brief but touching address. A published statement reached us too late for publication this week. His family have our warm sympathy.

Of three respected officials of our church, notice of whose death appears in the usual column, Rev. Thos. Rogers writes : Bro. Neily was for nearly half a century a prominent member of the Methodist Church on the Wilmot circuit, occupying the position of S.S. superintendent, trustee and classleader. He was always a faithful friend of the minister. ---- Bro. Douglas was for nearly 50 years a member of our church, and for many years a trustee and class-leader at Port George. -Bro. Hoffman was one of the trustees of our church at Nictaux Falls. His religion was known in his family, many of whom are members in our church. His death was sudden and unexpected.
