Table listing receipts for 'Wesleyan' with names and amounts.

NOTICE.

To the Ministers as Agents of the 'Wesleyan'.

In August last we sent from this Office to all our ministers who act as Agents for the 'Wesleyan,' lists of subscribers...

By referring to those lists it will be seen that a large number of our subscribers have not yet paid the subscription for 1883...

In the revision of our lists at the beginning of the New Year, we shall be compelled to strike off the names of all subscribers who are more than one year in arrears...

We are sorry to lose a single subscriber, but if our brethren will only help us, we need lose but very few.

We therefore strongly but respectfully urge upon all our Ministers the duty of at once attending to the collection of all unpaid subscriptions.

We are endeavoring to make arrangements for the wider circulation of the Wesleyan, but in order to complete such arrangements we must collect from all who are in arrears.

To our Subscribers:

Please read the above notice to our Ministers, and if you have not paid your subscription within twelve months, do not wait to be called upon...

AYER'S Hair Vigor

restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray hair to a natural, rich brown color, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use light or red hair may be darkened, thin hair thickened, and baldness often, though not always, cured.

It checks falling of the hair, and stimulates a weak and stinky growth to vigor. It prevents and cures scurf and dandruff, and heals nearly every disease peculiar to the scalp. As a Ladies' Hair Dressing, the Vigor is unequalled; it contains neither oil nor dye, renders the hair soft, glossy, and silken in appearance, and imparts a delicate, agreeable, and lasting perfume.

Mrs. C. P. BRIGGS writes from Kirby, O., July 3, 1882: "Last fall my hair commenced falling out, and in a short time I became nearly bald. I used part of a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor, which stopped the falling of the hair, and started a new growth. I have now a full head of hair growing vigorously, and am convinced that but for the use of your preparation I should have been entirely bald."

J. W. BOWEN, proprietor of the McArthur (Ohio) Enquirer, says: "AYER'S HAIR VIGOR is a most excellent preparation for the hair. I speak of it from my own experience. Its use promotes the growth of new hair, and makes it glossy and soft. The Vigor is also a sure cure for dandruff. Not within my knowledge has the preparation ever failed to give entire satisfaction."

Mr. AUGUS FAIRBAIN, leader of the celebrated "Fairbairn Family" of Scottish Vocalists, writes from Boston, Mass., Feb. 6, 1883: "Ever since my hair began to give, very evidence of the change which befitting this procreant, I have used AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, and so have been able to maintain an appearance of youthfulness—a matter of considerable consequence to ministers, orators, actors, and in fact every one who lives in the eyes of the public."

Mrs. O. A. PRESCOTT, writing from 18 Elm St., Charleston, Mass., April 14, 1882, says: "Two years ago about two-thirds of my hair came off. It thinned very rapidly, and I was fast growing bald. On using AYER'S HAIR VIGOR the falling stopped and a new growth commenced, and in about a month my head was completely covered with short hair. It has continued to grow, and is now as good as before. I regularly used but one bottle of the Vigor, but now use it occasionally as a dressing."

We have hundreds of similar testimonials to the efficacy of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR. It needs but a trial to convince the most skeptical of its value.

"A. L. O. E. (Miss C. M. Tucker) may be termed a writer of sanctified fiction. There have been many of these, yet, judging by the hold her stories have had upon the youthful mind, she has been queen of them all. Gifted with the genius and possession of the arts of the popular novelist, she knew how to catch attention and hold it. Her productions were characterized by inequality of plot and happiness of diction. But she was not content with endeavor simply to entertain. The spiritual profit of the reader was the prime purpose, and all else was bent to that end. Her work shows that she so thought that she has been a true and useful writer.
