A few days ago the Globe was berating the terrible N. P. for having caused a reduction of the wages on the Grand Trunk Railway. The Telegram of Saturday replies to it as follows:—"Every possible circumstance that can be caught hold of and made to do service in depreciating the National Policy has been eagerly seized upon by the Reform press. The Globe publishes an item to the effect that the salaries and wages of the employees of the Grand Trunk Railway were to be cut down on the 1st of July, and forthwith began to abuse the N. P. on the strength of it; for, of course, it was the N. P. and nothing but the N. P. that was to blame. The fact that the wages and salaries have not been reduced of factually knocks the bottom out of the Globe's argument."
