Campaign for Missions Alton-Watson Wedding Village Council Meeting

For the next three weeks Christian Home and Foreign Missions will be emphasized in the Methodist church in Waterdown and Nelson. Next Sunday Rev. Mr. Poole will preach missionary sermons in both churches. On Sunday, November 21st, Mr. Samuel Carter, Ex-M. P. P., of Guelph, will speak on missions in the morning, and on temperance in the evening, and as he was one of the promoters of the Committee of 100 and said to be the strongest platform speaker in the Ontario temperance ranks today everybody will want to hear him.

On Thursday, November 25th a men's banquet will be held in the school room, when the guest of the evening will be Rev. Dr. Jas. Endicott, Superintendent of Foreign Missions for the Dominion of Canada. As Dr. Endicott spent over 23 years in China and is known as a world statesman, everyone who wants to learn the real issues at stake today in world affairs should hear him. A limited number of tickets will be offered for sale next week.

A quiet but very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. J. T. Watson, Tansley, at 1 o'clock Wednesday of this week, when her youngest daughter, Mary Amelia, was united in marriage to Sidney L. Alton of Waterdown, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Alton, of Nelson. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. L. Poole, of Waterdown, assisted by Rev. W. C. Cranston, of Tansley, under an arch of wedding bells, the bay window being banked with greens and flowers. Only immediate relatives and friends were present. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the color scheme being pink and white flowers. To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Miss Lula Alton, sister of the groom, the bride entered the drawing room on the arm of her brother, Orville Watson, who gave her away. She was charmingly gowned in white organdie, wore the customary veil and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. They were unattended. After the ceremony the guests adjourned to the dining room, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served. The bride was the recipient of a splendid array of useful and costly presents, showing the high esteem in which she is held in the neighborhood. The happy couple left on a motor trip to Buffalo and other points, the bride travelling in a taupe tricot suit, with small velvet hat and white fox fur. On their return they will reside in Waterdown.

Celebrate Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. George Shepherd, of Freeman celebrated their golden wedding at their home on Tuesday evening. Between fifty and sixty guests who gathered to honor the occasion sat down to a most sumptuous dinner. The tables were literally loaded with good things, and were beautifully decorated with white chrysanthemums. After full justice had been done to the many good things provided, Rev. D. Anderson proposed the toast to the host and hostess. Mr. Anderson referred to the long and happy years they had been spared, and to the very high esteem in which they were held by the community and the church. Mr. Anderson also conveyed the greetings and congratulations of the session of Knox Church. Mr. Sheppard briefly responded, after which Dr. J. O. McGregor and others spoke of the happy occasion, and expressed the hope that Mr. and Mrs. Shepherd might yet be spared for a goodly number of years. Mr. and Mrs. Shepherd were the recipients of a large number of beautiful and costly gifts and expressions of the good wishes of their many friends. The evening was spent in social intercourse and singing, the guests united in singing "God be with you till we meet again" Mr. and Mrs. Shepherd occupy a high place in the esteem of the entire community. Among the guests from Waterdown were Mr. and Mrs. A. Hemingway, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tuck and Dr. J. O. McGregor.

Armistice Day was observed by one man in the village who almost reached home before being informed by a passer-by that he was just one hour ahead of the dinner-bell. He quietly returned to his work.

An Evening in Dixie

On Friday evening, November 19th the Methodist Church Choir will give "An Evening in Dixie-Land" in the Sunday school room of the church. There will be cotton fields, picaninies, songs, readings, instrumental and a short travel talk on the sunny south. Come and forget the cold northern winds—in the sunny south. Admission 25c. Program at 8.15 p. m.

Reports from the hunters in the far north are very gratifying. One hunter's bag for the day consisted of one deer, a skunk and a ground-hog. This sportsman must certainly be going into the fur business. Our only hope is that when he returns and opens up shop, it will be in the township and not the village.

The Family Herald and the Review both papers one year for $2.
