office for a short time. It will be the devout hope of every man, woman and child in Dawson that it will be possible to keep the line open throughout the remainder of the winter.

MINTO AND HIS MINISTERS

Bear Strained Relations Toward Each Other. Former Said to Be Unpopular Owing to His Disregard for Advice of the Litter.

Four days have passed away since the Nugget first mentioned the fact that the particulars in connection with the Jessup mystery were in the possession of this paper, and two days have elapsed since all the particulars were given to the public, and still the News-Sun combination has been able to learn nothing of the facts in the case.

At last the ice in the river has ceased running and winter may be said fairly to have begun.

How to Build a Rink. To the Editor of the Klondike Nugget, Dawson.

Dear Sir, I herewith take the liberty of enclosing a rough interior sketch of "How to build a Skating Rink," trusting to your good nature to give it a place in the Nugget. The task has been undertaken to endeavor to excite or stimulate some enterprising citizen to build a rink. It is entirely out of my line and beyond my ability to "write up" a public enterprise of this nature, so I shall have to trust to your public patriotism, if I may, and thus help me out.

Odd-and Ends. A curious custom prevails in Korea. If a man meets his wife in the street he ignores her presence and passes her as if she were a stranger.

But we submit that such an effort has not been made. For a period of several weeks, during which navigation continued without interruption so far as other steamboat companies were concerned, the White Pass boats were taken off the river and mail was allowed to accumulate at Whitehorse.

At the present time the service is entirely demoralized and no one knows when the mail will go or when it will arrive.

The contractors have clearly broken both the letter and spirit of their agreement and are no longer entitled to handle the mail.

THE CASE OF MISS STONE. If it proves to be a fact as was suggested in our telegraphic advices of yesterday, that Miss Stone the American missionary is really dead, we are of the opinion that a reckoning will be had with the "sick man of Europe" which will occasion that astute gentleman a serious relapse.

The Dominion telegraph line began working yesterday and messages from Vancouver poured into the Dawson

Ottawa, Oct. 21.—The most important subject which is now engaging the public attention here is the serious friction existing between Lord Minto and his ministers, owing to the view which the former takes of the governor general's prerogatives.

RETURNED THE MONEY

Lowell, Mass., Bank Looters Blow Back a Large Sum. Lowell, Mass., Oct. 21.—The financial troubles which have caused great suspense to the officers of the Merchants' National bank for three days, owing to the disappearance of its teller, Albert G. Smith, practically were smoothed out today.

The greater part of the plunder will not be stated, but the happiness of all the bank's officials, displayed without reserve, indicates the seriousness of the situation before the agreement.

Interest for the moment centers in the pursuit of Smith and Swift, and tonight it was understood that United States officials had found near this city the men's hiding place.

The bank for three days has been besieged by customers, but in every case, accounts were found to be correct. This makes it impossible, without an official statement, to ascertain wherein the men were short in their accounts.

Several of the directors have stated that they do not expect Smith or Swift to return here.

The Ankeny Hoodoo. The Statesman a few days ago discussed the loss of political prestige Walla Walla has suffered from clinging for eight long years to the forlorn hope of electing Levi Ankeny to the United States senate.

Life-long friendships have been broken and bitter animosities given birth by this ever present, never sleeping question of whether or not Levi Ankeny is a fit candidate for the United States senate.

Men who dare to doubt Mr. Ankeny's availability are made the victims of social ostracism and of a silent boycott from that portion of the community that is under the baneful influences of Ankenyism.

This deplorable condition in business and social affairs is fast becoming intolerable in this community, and even some of Mr. Ankeny's staunchest ad-

SIR THOMAS UNDISMAYED

Will Contest for Cup in the Future But Not Next Year. New York, Oct. 21.—Sir Thomas Lipton will not be a contender for America's cup next year. In an interview late tonight Sir Thomas absolutely denied that he had any intention of beginning a new boat to compete for the cup next fall.

"I am not desirous of holding a monopoly in the matter of challenging for the America's cup. I propose to wait for a reasonable time after I get back to the other side and see if any of the other British sportsmen desires to enter a challenge."

"What I intend to do is this: I will leave the Shamrock II on this side. She will remain here all next summer and will race with any and all boats that care to meet her and I will come over myself."

While Sir Thomas denies that he intends building a new challenger for next year, he would not deny that he would ultimately build a new boat. On this subject he said:

"I was beaten by a better boat than Shamrock II. You see I do not see how I can ever expect to lift the cup with my boat. Nobody ever saw Sir Thomas Lipton put on his coat in the middle of a fight, and the fight for that cup has only begun. I certainly mean to have another try for it, maybe several."
