(The Times)

This represents an increase of 16.5 43 millions. the preceding month, and re-exports loud applause.

cap-

gift

Syd-

-Ed.)

came to £25,464,577, a decrease of Record Trade Returns 2.6 per cent. The total volume of trade reached a new high record at January Exports Over £ 100,000,000 31434 millions. Comparing the figures with those of January, 1919, increases

—SATISFACTION.

Victory Brand

SATISFACTORY GOODS

made by

SATISFIED WORKERS

in a

SATISFYING MANNER.

Victory Brand Clothing

For Men and Boys.

The White Clothing Mfg., Coy., Ltd.

WHOLESALE ONLY.

peasteaus:

another sharp advance.

Advices to hand show

Book your orders now

Wholesale Only

Harris & Elliott, Ltd.

McBride's Cove

The Name Linby's

is a Guarantee of Quality and Satisfaction to your customers

CYRIL MUGFORD

(To the Editor) are shown of 36.3 per cent. in imports, Dear Sir:—Please allow me space but bore her sufferings patiently. shown by the Board of Trade return, 423.6 per cent. in exports, and 458.4 in your most valued paper to record She was the only one they had and for the first time in any month ex- per cent. in re-exports. Of the gain the death of our little one, who pass- they thought it hard to part from ceeded one hundred millions sterling, of 58½ millions sterling in exports, ed peacefully away on Friday morn-her. She will be greatly missed the actual total being £105,879,909. manufactured articles accounted for ing, March 19th, a loving child of by the children of the day school of December (when, of course, trade On the birthday of the ex-Kais- Sunday afternoon at 2.30 p.m. at the mates showed their last respect was affected by the Christmas holi- er, the statue of Kaiser Wilhelm I. Methodist Church, Clarke's Beach, to her by walking before the days). Imports amounted to £183,- was removed from the market and was attended by a large circle corpse. The funeral was conduct-498,388, an increase of 8.1 per cent, on place at Haderslev (Slesvig) amid of relatives and friends. Mr. and ed by the Methodist Minister, > Dearest Cyril we did not think And laid within the tomb.

Then let us brush away the tears For thee our happy one; Teach us, oh Lord, by grace to say "Father, Thy will be done."

But he's gone but not forgotten, Never will his memory fade; Sweetest thoughts will ever linger Around the spot where he is laid.

He is gone to be with Jesus, Where death and sorrow never

Some day we hope to meet him, In our Heavenly Father's home.

ABRAM BOONE. South River, Clarke's Beach,

March 22nd, 1920.

MURDOCK DEWEY

On January 29th, after a brief illeldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter vecate every success. Dewey, of Saunder's Cove, passed to his reward, at the early age of 19 ears. The funeral took place on Sunday, February 1st, and was attended by a large number of people ceremony was performed by the from Psalm 91: 6. We heartily sympathize with the bereaved parents and relatives in their loss and pray that they may be divinely sustained

God knows the way, he holds the key, He guides us with unerring hand; Sometime with tearless eyes we'll see,

On February 6th Mr. John King passed peacefully away at his home at Red Rod Cove. Uncle John, as he tics that could not be bought for gold steps he took, and he soon satisfied spect for people of every occupation which the "News" speaks about, there and creeds, realizing that all belong- everything here to supply their needs. Uncle John laid up his treasure soon despatched with everything peo-Uncle John was a trump; walked tell everything by tossing the cup! three miles in November to record his vote. He was a good Union man. He lived to a ripe old age and died in Old Perlican,

They whose work on earth is o'er, Think they of their brethren more; Feel they for their brethren more.

With them still our hearts we raise, home, dear?" asked mother. Share their work and join their praise Rendering worship, thanks and love To the Trinity above. Change Islands,

SELINA RITA ELLIOTT

(To the Editor) Dear Sir,—Please grant me ly; it must have been space in your most valuable paper call a jibbing horse."

to record the death of one of our "That wasn't what the cab-fully away on the eighth of March | @ after suffering for only a week from spinal meningitis. She was not heard to murmur or complain, Mr. and Mrs. James Mugford, aged 9 and Sunday school. She was one months. The funeral took place on whom everyone loved; her school Mrs. Mugford were grief stricken Rev. G. Butt, who took his text over the death of their little one, and from 1st Samuel, 20th chapter, will have the sympathy of their many part of verse 25, "A place made of friends, in which I am sure The Ad- empty." She was laid to rest at Methodist cemetery March 11, where a large crowd attended the funeral. She leaves to mourn a bereaved father and mother and a Would soon be taken from our side large number of relatives and friends, to whom we extend our deepest sympathy.

> We loved her, yes, we loved her, But angels loved her more; And they have sweetly called her | 8 To yonder shining shore.

The pearly gates were opened, A gentle voice said: Come. Then with her spotless robe on She calmly entered home.

A father's heart is breaking For one he loved so dear. It was the hardest thing for him To say good-bye to her.

But we hope to meet again When this weary life is o'er, For we long to swell the number On the bright eternal shore.

Hoping I haven't taken up too much space in your paper, and ness, of spinal meningitis, Murdock, wishing Mr. Coaker and the Ad-

> One who Misses her, CARRIE E. KEARLY. March 14th, 1920. Will other papers please copy.

(To the Editor.) Dear Sir,-I was surprised when

Health Officer placed the whole town Uncle John possessed characteris- due to Doctor Templeman for the and that of a gentleman in the high- the people it was only a slight rash. est sense of the word. He had re- As for the suffering and anxiety the one great human family, There was a little shortage of food for not engage to any great The Rev. Mr. Moore has part of his best friends. He was a great no Minister the Church is still shut friend of Messrs. Earle, Roberts and up. Where your treasure is there He was also a particular friend of Mr. soon the Church will be opened and Hoffe, our sub-collector, whose house service going on as usual. As for the him a call. It is said he would al- half, and now they are getting doubtways approach Uncle John with a ful if any part of it is true. Where little step dance, and always told him the Editor of the "News" picked up dance before the king, and then for to know. They say there is an old a funny story and an old-time yarn. lady who lives just on the back, can

February 12th, 1920 After she had come home from the party in the four-wheeled cab, little Ethel was telling her mother

"And did you enjoy the ride "Oh, it was very thrilling!" exclaimed the child. "Down at Mason Street the horse suddenly stopped and backed right on to the pavement, and the cabman had to get down and drag it back on to the road." "Yes, dear," said mother, wise-Dear Sir,—Please grant me ly; "it must have been what they

A Free Passage for All Purchasers Come Along But Mind the Gang Plank

WE HAVE

SHIRTS

Fancy Dress, soft and stiff Cuffs, $1.30 to $4.00.

TIES

Wide end, plain and fancy, silk, 90c. to $1.50.

COLLARS

Laundered and Soft35c.

GLOVES

Grey Fabric, Swede finish, $1.70

CHAMOIS KID WITH BLACK POINTS, $4.00; Tan Calf and Kid $2.50 and $3.00

SOCKS A

Black Cashmere . . . 60c. to $1.70 Black Lisle30, 35, 40c

GARTERS

Pod, 20c.; Boston, 60c.

BRACES

President, 90c. and $1.00; Heavy Workman's, 35c. to $1.10.

HANDKERGHIEFS

Silk finish, colored border, 30,

Imitation Linen and Lawn, Plain and Hemstitched, 30, 40, 50c.

SILK MUFFLERS

Fancy, Grey, White and Black, $4.25 to $7.50.

HATS

Soft Felt, Brown, Black, Navy, Grey and Green. From $3.00 to $6.00

GOLF GAPS

Light and dark tweed, from 90c.

RAIN COATS

Fawn Cashmere, from $4.50 to $36.00 Khaki, belted, from $23.00 to $35.00

SUITS

Faney Cashmere and Tweed, plain back and pinch back $20.00 to $40.00 Navy Serge, Plain Back and Pinch Back, from $16.00 to $45.00

PANTS

Fancy Cashmere and Tweed, from $2.00 to $9.50

Headquarters

AT ALL GROCERS

For all kinds of Nautical Instruments, including: Compasses, Logs, Telescopes, Barometers, Sextants, Bynoculars, Clocks, etc.

Repairs To All Kinds of Nautical Instruments. Adjusters of Compasses.

P. O. Box 507. 'Phone 375.

258 Water St.