the Month of February.

The annual meeting of the Alberta branch of the Royal Caledonian Curling-club was held at Calegary on Tuesday, night. Vice-President H. McLeod, of the Alberta branch, presided, and J. h. Miguelon was secretary. Those present were L. H. Doll, Banff club; W. Turner Priddis; C. S. Pingle and A. E. Whiffet. Medicine Hat; Col. Walker J. Irwin, H. McLeod, Chief Smart, M. S. McCarthy Calegary.

The meeting decided to contribute ward the Curling club memorial fund

Christmas at the Stores.

Firemen's wall.

The members of the Medicine Harire Brigade gave their annual bult in the Opera House on Friday evening and by general consent so area the success of the season so far. There were about sixty couples present, and the management set a good example by starting the music at the appointed time. Notice of this had been given in last week's Times so that when Mon-Leonard drew a bow at a venture," and Fred Allingham be gan to "flute" and Mrs. Tinning gave a killful touch to the piano, there was a woodly company ready to trip the light antastic toe, and the dancing began tith a spirit which never flagged the vening through.

with a spirit which never hagged the evening through.

The "fire boys" had decorated the spacious hall in most appropriate fashior with their own bunting, artistically arranged on and between the pillars, and many colored lights helped to lend a fairy-like aspect to the scene. The poydid not forget to fix up some "cosy corners," which were well patronized, it fact, there was a demand for more Messrs, Marshall & Hunter, the proprietors of the Opera House, had added three large are lights, and these suspended in different parts of the house, shed a brilliant hight upon the gay scene. The varied colors of the decorations and the ladies" dresses, toge her with colored lights, made up a gay ensemble worthy of the eccasion, and left nothing to be desired.

worthy of the occasion, and left nothing to be desired.

The buffet was in its usual place, and was also gayly decorated, the long table being loaded with a variety of light and tempting refreshments, sumplied by the ladies of the town, which the busy dancers fully enjoyed during the usual oreak in the programme.

By two o'clock a.m. the programme was completed, and the kay throughouse up and wended their way home wards, fully pleased and satisfied that our popular fire brigade had added an other spray of laurel to their crown of success.
