

THE OBSERVER

Vol. 2.

HARTLAND, N. B., Sept. 30, 1910.

No. 17.

NOVELTIES in NECKWEAR

Just received

The new Paisley Frillings, Jabots, Linen and Dutch Collars and Bows; also the Paisley Satin by the yard

Patent Leather Belts

in Red, Black and Paisley. Also a complete line of

Hose, Flannelletes, Underwear, Sweaters & Golf Coats

Try our new bulk TEA; 3 lbs for $1.00
and our Radium and Purity Flour

Baird & Craig

HARTLAND, N. B.

Voile, Panama, White Duck and Cloth

SKIRTS

Large Assortment, New Goods, which must be sacrificed, as the season is advancing. This is YOUR Chance.

Hartland Farmers' Exchange

C. HUMPHREY TAYLOR

GET THE BEST

During these trying times when so many light Fire Companies are going out of business would it not be well to consider your own interests and place your Fire Insurance in a Reliable Office.

We have the oldest and strongest Fire Companies on the continent, companies that are generous in their settlements, prompt in their payments, and their policies are free from technicalities.

We will call and inspect your dwelling if you will drop us a card

ASTLE & COSMAN

on Street
Hartland, N. B.

Death of Mrs. Geo. G. Gray

At 6.30 o'clock on Thursday evening, Sept. 22, death claimed Elizabeth, the beloved wife of George G. Gray of this village. Thirty-eight days previously she was seized with a stroke of paralysis and later disease of the kidneys was manifested.

Mrs. Gray was a notably kind and charitable woman and bore the highest regard of all who knew her. She was 67 years of age and was the sixth daughter of the late Thomas Ackerson of Lower Brighton. There are left to mourn with the bereaved husband one son, Dorian W. of Vancouver, and two daughters, Mrs. W. A. McLaughlin of California, and Miss Susie, a graduate nurse, who was with her at the time of her death. There is also one brother, Nehemiah of Lower Brighton, and four sisters, Mrs. A. M. Sippell of Victoria, Mrs. Martha Dickinson of Hartland, Mrs. Charles McCormack of Somerville, and Mrs. Henrietta Baird in California; also two grand-daughters Kathleen Gray of Vancouver and Eugenia Gray-Taylor, a student of the N. E. Conservatory of Music at Boston. One daughter Eugenia, wife of L. A. W. Taylor of Lowell, died 20 years ago, and her youngest son, George, was drowned a year ago.

The funeral was held at the house on Saturday afternoon, Rev. Smith Dow, assisted by Rev. P. J. Trafton and Rev. E. L. Steeves conducting the service. Two years ago Mrs. Gray began a movement for improving the general appearance of the so-called Bradley burying-ground, and assisted in the purchase of a road to it. She at that time wished to have the place named Greenwood Cemetery. Here she was laid to rest in Greenwood Cemetery—so called for the first time, and in her memory.

The bereft family have the heartfelt sympathy of very many friends.

Were They Really Hartland Boys?

The Bridgewater correspondent of the Mars Hill View reports the following, but if the young men referred to belong to Hartland no one seems to know them:

There was a fire on Monday evening in which the lockup of the village was destroyed and two young men who were doing penance there came near meeting with serious injury. These young men who came from Hartland, N. B. had raised some disturbance during the evening for which they were placed in confinement. During the night they made it seem a desperate attempt to escape and having their wits impaired by too much rum they conceived the brilliant idea of burning their way out. Their cries for help awakened Herbert Pryor whose home was near by but when he reached the place the fire was streaming up through the roof of the building. Seizing an axe he broke in and with others rescued the men with some difficulty, one of them being unconscious from the smoke and heat. The two men were brought before Justice Morton on Tuesday and fined $12 each, one paid his fine and the other taken to Houlton jail. We are told they had a bottle of whiskey and a bottle of alcohol when rescued from the fire.

J. Wendell Belyea Killed.

The following account of the tragic death of a Carleton county boy is taken from the Mars Hill View, and will be read with a pang of sorrow by all OBSERVER subscribers who knew the young man and his family:

Mars Hill is again called upon to lay at rest one of its most honorable and promising young men, J. Wendell Belyea, who received a deep cut at the base of the brain from a flying pulley from a threshing machine, caused by the belt slipping off, Saturday forenoon shortly after eleven o'clock.

Deceased was feeding the machine at the time when the belt slipped off and in trying to catch it as it wound on the engine, he was struck by the tightening pulley which was dragged off by the belt and hurled fifty feet from the machine. He was unconscious when picked up by Arthur Sylvester and laid on a wagon where he was rushed to his home and Dr. Dilling sent for, who with Dr. McCrea and Flint performed an operation on the skull, removing a piece. The operation was highly successful, but blood oozing from the ears, nose and throat told that the brain tissue was too badly torn to have one hope in a hundred, and at a little past eleven that night Wendell passed out without once regaining consciousness, making his death two fold sorrowful to his family.

Deceased was born in Ashland, N. B. and was twenty-two years old. He came over from the province some six years ago and engaged with Arthur Sylvester for whom he worked four years. He took charge of Nate Colbath's farm one year and has worked for other prominent farmers. Last year he persuaded his father J. A. Belyea of Hartland, N. B. to sell out and buy the Sylvester farm which he did, and it was on this farm that the terrible accident occurred.

The Sylvester boys and others Wendell had worked for, and all who knew him are deep mourners with the family. He was a most model young man in every respect. Being a Christian he was always found in the church and was superintendent of the Sunday School. He was always found where there was good—always had a good word for all. Many a young man will from henceforth on try to live a life that will command the respect that Wendell Belyea's did. He was a member of the Woodman lodge and the Grange.

Monday's Shoot on Avondale Range

On Monday the Little Presque C. R. A. shot over the Avondale range with results as follows:

EXTRA SHARES
	Prize	Points
Charles DeLong	.50	20
B. Rockwell	.75	24
E. Tracey	1.00	25
B. Jones	.75	24
J. B. Crandlemire	.50	23
F. Albright	.50	20
D. Tracey	.50	23
R. Boyer	.75	24

There followed a match at 200, 500 and 600 with scores thus:

F. Albright	82
Charles DeLong	80
Russell Boyer	92
Bert Rockwell	96
Rennie Tracey	80
J. R. Jones	93
Benj. Crandlemire	87
Douglas Tracey	92

And then a second match followed:

Charles DeLong	78
Bert Rockwell	95
Rennie Tracey	90
J. R. Jones	98
Benj. Crandlemire	94
Frank Albright	75
Douglas Tracey	89
Russel Boyer	95

Was His Name Smith?

The Fredericton mail says: A report was current last evening that a man had been found dead on the Woodstock Road. This was not correct. The report arose from the fact that a man was found there in a state of intoxication and taken to his home in a carriage.

Hartland Department Store

JOHN T. G. CARR, Proprietor

If you failed to attend our

GRAND Millinery Opening

yesterday, call today—or any day.

Miss Vivian Corbett

of St. John

who has had four years experience at the business will be in charge of this Department.

We cordially invite all our friends to call and inspect the latest creations in

Art Millinery

NO CARDS

John T. G. Carr

Pears, Peaches, Plums,

FOR PRESERVING.

Get your orders in early.

Mrs. T. G. Simms

Betterheads Envelopes

Fine Quality
Artistic Display
Reasonable Prices

Observer, Ltd.,

Hartland, N. B.