

BOOZE COSTS MORE NOW.

GENERAL ADVANCE WENT INTO EFFECT THROUGHOUT ONTARIO.

It Applies to the Product of the Brewers as Well as to That of the Distillers.

A general increase in the prices of liquors went into effect in Hamilton and throughout Ontario yesterday. The Brewers and Distillers' Association has sent out a circular announcing that, owing to the great advance in the price of malt and of other materials used in connection with the brewery business, it has been found necessary to make a revision of prices and that part of the increased price be borne by the license holder.

The following is the list of former and present prices:

Bottled ale, porter and lager:
Quarts—31 per dozen, were 90 cents.
Pints—70 cents per dozen, were 60 cents.

Draught lager:
One barrel, 32 wine gallons, $8, was $7.

One-half barrel, 16 wine gallons, $4, was $3.50.

One-quarter barrel, 8 wine gallons, $2, was $1.75.

One-sixth barrel, 5-13 wine gallons, $1.35, was $1.10.

One-eighth barrel, 4 wine gallons, $1, was 75 cents.

Draught ale and porter—33 cents per imperial gallon, no change.

A discount of 5 per cent, is allowed on these prices if payment be made within 30 days. The same regulations as before apply to empties, and all broken bottles must be paid for.

The advance of 50 cents on a half-barrel of lager comes as a great shock to most of the hotelmen, who were mostly unprepared for it.

In Toronto there were one or two wise men, who had been given a tip regarding the increase, and one improved the opportunity sufficiently to place an order for 400 cases of beer—800 dozen—while another out-of-town hotelman happened to drop into a brewery an hour before the increase went into effect, and at once filled an order for three cars of bottled goods.

The wholesale liquor men have also notified the trade that "Owing to the recent advance in prices made by the distillers in Canadian whiskeys, we are compelled to advance our selling prices to the same extent as the distillers have raised theirs."

The following are the increased prices: All brands, 25 under proof, 8c per gallon; G. & W. Special, 15c per gallon; all brands, 40 under proof, 7c per gallon; G. & W. Special, 15c per gallon; Seagram's 83, 25c per gallon. The case whiskeys have advanced on an average of 25 cents per case with the exception of Walker's Club and Baronial, which remain as before.

In Toronto it is said the action of the distillers was induced by the recent advance in the retail price of whiskey to 15 cents.

SHOT HIS FRIEND.

Had Quarrel Over Storage of an Automobile.

New York, Oct. 24.—In the course of a desperate fight over the storage of an automobile, Dorman Ormsby shot and killed Frederick Wehmann last night. Ormsby told the police that he had done the shooting in self-defence. Wounds upon his head and body seemed to bear out the statement.

Ormsby and Wehmann had been friends for years. Ormsby was formerly in the business of manufacturing mineral waters in a building at 168th street and St. Nicholas avenue, but recently he sold out to Wehmann, with the proviso, according to his story, that he was to retain the privilege of storing his automobile on the ground floor of the building, which he had been using for a garage.

A dispute led to the shooting.

SCIENTIFIC TRAINING.

Mr. D. M. Barton has arranged to give a series of illustrated lectures on scientific physical training, on November 7 and 8. He will use his cabinet with its artistic light effects, and will give practical demonstrations with wand, dumbbells, and free hand in illustrating his work.

It was the general expression in the many cities where Mr. Barton has visited that this lecture, with so many fine practical illustrations is the best before the public. A medical student in his dissecting has a chance to see the various muscles, but it is not very often that the general public sees the living muscles at work, hence the frequent bursts of applause.

Mr. Barton will be assisted in these lectures by the Y. M. C. A. gymnastic team which will do some very fine work.

ST. PETER'S CONCERT.

A high class concert will be given in Association Hall to-morrow night in aid of St. Peter's Infirmary. There will be a splendid programme. All who attend besides having a musical treat will be helping Miss Chowne, who is still in the hospital from the effects of her recent accident.

THE QUEBEC BRIDGE.

Philadelphia, Oct. 24.—To investigate the causes that led to the Quebec bridge disaster, the Canadian Royal Commission to-day met in Phoenixville, Pa., to take testimony of a number of officials at the Phoenix Bridge Company, which manufactured the steel for the structure.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The Religious Young Men's Committee met last evening and completed arrangements for singing the song services the first Sunday night in November. A male chorus and orchestra were arranged for, and Mr. Charles Bonding will be the musical director.

The Reception Committee is making progress in its arrangements for the mock trial, managed by Professor Newton, of Worcester, Mass., on Dec. 3rd.

The officers and directors of the Central Association take tea this evening with the committee of Management at the East End branch.

A championship basketball team has arranged a game with the first team of Central Toronto Association on Thanksgiving Day.

A meeting of the Membership Committee will be held to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock. Something in the way of a reception to the new members received in October is mooted.

The Abyssinian army has 200,000 men, and its equipment includes fifty modern guns.

RACED ON ROLLERS

Large Crowd Enjoyed Events at Alexandra Rink.

The Alexandra Rink was crowded last evening to see the two mile race in which some of the fastest roller racers of this city competed. The crowd got the worth of its money for the race was a good one from the start, and the finish was fast and furious. There were five entries, and Gordon Riggs beat them all for first place, by three-quarters of a lap. The time was 6:47 1-5. J. Morgan was second and F. Garson third, Morley Campbell and G. Hamburg were the other competitors.

A special session was held last evening from 10:30 till 12:30, for the Ninety-first Highland Regiment. There was a good sized crowd present and a very enjoyable time was spent. There was a skating competition for soldiers in costume, and it had a great many entries. It was won by Bugler Peters, with Pte. Cullen a close second. The judges were Capt. McCullough, Lieut. Linton and Lieut. Moodie.

GAVE THEM A FEED.

Students of the S. P. S. Banquet at Waldorf by the City.

Yesterday afternoon City Engineer Barrow delivered an address to the students from the School of Practical Science, who came here yesterday to see the sewage and water systems of the city, and the students seemed quite interested in the subject. All of the students did not attend the lecture; some went on visits of inspection to industrial plants, and a few others visited the nickel theatres.

In the evening the visiting students were tendered a dinner at the Waldorf Hotel by the city corporation. In the absence of the Mayor, Ald. Dickson presided, and delivered a short speech, telling the boys the city fathers were glad to see them here, and hoped they profited by their inspection of the various manufacturing plants. He also mentioned some of the things that Hamilton is proud of, including the mountain and the Tigers.

There were just two toasts on the list, "The Hamilton Manufacturers" and "Our Guests." The former was responded to by Mr. A. E. Fleming, of the Canadian Westinghouse Co., who spoke briefly on the subject of "Illumination." This was followed by an important branch of civil engineering, and one which the technical papers are giving much space to now. He spoke of the many different kinds of lighting and expressed the opinion that electricity will hold its own against all the other systems.

Prof. Ellis and Prof. Wright responded to the toast of "Our Guests." In the course of his address Prof. Ellis said that while the American people had not engaged in war that spills blood for many years, there was a great industrial war raging, and as time goes on this will become fiercer. In an industrial struggle those that take part are working for the general good, and it was the duty of Canada to prepare her sons for the battle. This country should be developed by her own sons, or at least the development should be directed by them—not by people from the United States.

At the conclusion of the speechmaking cheers were given for Hamilton and R. A. Robertson, President of the Board of Education, who spoke at 9:45 on a special train on the C. P. R., loud in the praises of Hamilton and Hamilton manufacturers.

A few unruly students in a street car on Barton street tore down advertising cards and pulled the register rope, but not much damage was done. On the whole the students were a well behaved lot of boys.

CAMERA CLUB.

Will Open Its New Quarters Next Monday Evening.

Hamilton Camera Club has arranged for a series of meetings for the winter, at the club's new quarters, 104 King street west. The opening of the new rooms will take place on Monday evening next, October 28th, at 9 o'clock. One hour earlier the club will meet and have an exhibition and address in the museum at the Public Library. The general meetings will be held on the second Monday of every month. The third and fourth Mondays of each month will be devoted to practical work. The officers of the club are:

President—William Acheson.
Vice-President—Charles A. Herald.
Secretary—Sinclair G. Richardson.
Treasurer—George Lees.
Executive Committee—Walter E. Hill, A. H. Baker, R. A. Ptolemy, James Gadsby.

Had to Shut Down.

Crawford—I hope you still take an interest in your little boy's studies? I remember the delight you used to take in seeing how many he could count.

Crawshaw—I've stopped doing that.

Crawford—Too bad. A father should never lose interest in his son that way.

Crawshaw—But the boy can now count up to a thousand—Harper's Weekly.

The average Arab drinks nine or ten cups of coffee daily.

Before anaemic people use Scott's Emulsion their blood is thin and starved, their general health poor, and their spirits depressed.

After they use Scott's Emulsion their blood is rich and abundant, their general health excellent and their spirits buoyant.

All druggists, 50c. and $1.00.

SMITHVILLE

Mr. John S. Davis has put an addition to his house on Main street and re-roofed it, which adds greatly to its appearance.

Mr. John L. Shrum, of Gainsboro, accompanied by his family, left on Thursday for Alberta, where he intends to spend the winter.

The novelty social given by the Y. P. S. C. E. in Brant's Hall was a great success. All seemed to enjoy themselves to the utmost. The singing of the Kentucky Cornet Club was much appreciated. Mrs. Grey sang a Scotch song very nicely and Mr. Harry Patterson played some fine pieces on the cornet. A goodly sum was taken at the door for church purposes.

Rev. J. A. Wilson, B. A., of St. Andrew's Church, Hamilton, preached two exceptionally sound and practical sermons to large congregations on Sabbath last, in the Presbyterian Church here, and was listened to with the closest attention.

A session of the Third Division Court, Lincoln, was held here on Wednesday last by Judge Carman, of St. Catharines, when the following suits were disposed of: Shieton vs. Weaver, action on account, Carpenter for plaintiff, German for defendant; Hyslop vs. Merritt, judgment for plaintiff for $62. Knowles for plaintiff, German for defendant; South Grimsby, damages, judgment for plaintiff, German for plaintiff; Kostick vs. Mandelberg, adjourned to next court.

ATTERCLIFFE

Mrs. Abiathir Rodgers, of Dunnville, made a number of short visits with friends here last week.

Mr. Geo. Moore, of Attercliffe, is renewing old acquaintances here.

Mrs. P. Cole has returned from a two weeks visit with her brother in Chicago.

Mrs. R. W. Bowman of Welland, has moved back to this village and is nicely settled in the Union Hotel. The Trunk Line Telephone Co. has folded its tents and moved to Canfield. The man was a lively lot.

J. K. Tisdale and R. J. Gracey attended the D.D.G.M.'s reception and supper at Dufferin Lodge, Welland, on Tuesday evening.

David Brown, of Bismark, has been making a number of visits to this village lately.

The Laidlaw Bridge is undergoing repairs this week, which makes it quite inconvenient for the milk haulers and the public.

Dean Tisdale sold about 50 tons of hay at $12, and 200 bushels of oats at 52c.

The Methodist Church people here will hold their annual harvest home service on Sunday, the 10th November.

Mr. Hiram Senabach, who has been poorly so long with paralysis and its effects, passed away on Monday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. R. V. Tisdale, Amigiri. The funeral took place at the old White Church, Interment at the Senaguch cemetery on Wednesday at 10:30.

Two young men, Arthur Philbrick and Edward Clark, were taken before Smithville J. P.'s on Monday last charged with trespass and damage to the property of Richard Swagze, Gainsboro. After quite a lengthy trial, which was attended by Crown Attorney Brennen, of St. Catharines, the suspects were allowed to go.

PUGSLEY DOESN'T FEAR.

Being Prosecuted For His Course in the Tory Boodle Case.

(Halifax Chronicle.)

In his speech at Gagetown on Thursday, in which he very properly scored the hypocrisy of the Bordenites on the question of electoral purity, Dr. Pugsley not only repeated the charge that in one inner circle in Montreal of Mr. Borden's personal friends and political organizers, a fund of $500,000 had been raised for corrupt purposes and that of this amount the sum of $25,000 had been spent in one New Brunswick constituency alone to secure the return of a Tory candidate—a candidate who was one of Mr. Borden's lieutenants, but he supplemented this by saying that of this sum of $25,000, $5,000 was sent into the constituency by telegram on the 24th day of October, 1904, and that both of these amounts were wired to the legal partner of the candidate who was contesting the constituency in the Conservative interest.

There is not much speculation as to which county Dr. Pugsley had in mind as having received this large allotment from the central fund. It was quite unnecessary for Dr. Pugsley to have given the name. The location of at least $25,000 would seem to have been well established. But, whatever the county, the needs must have been great and the situation desperate, when the money was transmitted by wire; and it would seem that even $25,000 did not suffice to satisfy the demand for the story goes that an urgent telegram, asking, "Can you repeat the dose?" was forthwith despatched to the fountain head in Montreal. Evidently, the recipient of the $25,000 had quaffed deeply at the well of Tory inspiration. "Repeat the dose" is strangely reminiscent of the "Send another ten thousand" time of asking" telegram of the old Tory chieftain himself. Whether or not the "legal partner" was as canny as "Zandray," et al, and used a code when arranging for "gifts of money" to be transmitted by way of the telegraph, is not recorded. So much appears to be known that it would seem that that precaution was neglected.

But, at all events, Dr. Pugsley states in the most positive terms that the money was sent. Where did it come from, who received it and who asked the Montreal treasurers to "repeat the dose." So many interesting questions, the answers to which would probably throw a flood of light on Tory election methods in at least one county in New Brunswick. Dr. Pugsley evidently knows whereof he speaks and is ready to "repeat the dose" when occasion offers.

A simple and efficacious remedy for a sprained wrist is to let cold water run on it every morning for some minutes, holding the wrist as far beneath the mouth of the tap as possible, so that the water may have a good fall. After this has been done bandage it tightly, letting the water remain till the next ablution. The sprain will be reduced in a few days.

GERMAN FUN.

(Translated for Transatlantic Tales from Fliegende Blätter.)

The Mother—If he proposes to-day, tell him he must speak to me, he told me to tell him I want to speak to him!

Manager—For heaven's sake, Fraulien, what have you done? You've gone and accepted the hero's proposal in the first act, instead of in the fifth!

The Star—But he begged so nicely! And—won't I just refuse him in the fifth act?

Physician—Herr Meier is a most conscientious patient; I believe if I were to prescribe a trip to the North Pole for him he would go and discover it.

"How many people work in your office?"

"Work? Perhaps two-thirds of them."

Guest—Why does Huber never say anything?

Neighbor—Because his wife always declares that two people should not speak at once.

Master of the House—But, Mina, why are you so excited?

Maid—The mistress has dismissed me. "I congratulate you!"

"Well, how's your newspaper for poets going?"

"Not very well. We have 320 assistants—and 80 subscribers!"

"Who gave you permission to fish here?"

"Who? What a stupid question! My wife, of course!"

She (to her husband)—The poor children! When you get up in the morning they have gone to school, and when you return from the tavern at night they have gone to bed. At least, write them a souvenir post card!

Prospects for Canadian Turkeys.

Canadian Commercial agent at Leeds and Hull, Eng., writes: At the present moment there is every indication that Canadian turkeys will meet with fair demand on the British market this season. According to the opinions expressed by well informed dealers the unsatisfactory weather which has been experienced at different periods of the year in this country has seriously interfered with the rearing of all kinds of game. In certain parts of the country this is the case to such an extent that shooting on some large estates has had to be abandoned in consequence of the shortage of birds, the few that there are being required for breeding purposes. Local importers will rely largely this season upon Canadian supplies, and it rests with exporters in Canada to try to meet this deficiency and to assist them in obtaining the best market prices.

"Lie down for at least half an hour in a darkened room. Loosen your shirt bands and your collar. Relax all your nerves. This will be hard to do at first; you will find yourself holding, tensely, the nerves in one part of your body or another. But practice will make it easy."

"Banish with all the force of will you have, every worry and every unpleasant thought. Recall vividly some delightful experience, or indulge in some day-dream of what you hope."

"So much for the room rest. Now for the mental refreshment. Never let a day go by in which you do not sit down quietly for at least fifteen minutes with a favorite book."

"As for myself, I am a great believer in the spiritual uplift of poetry. It is better for me to read, for a few minutes each day, some beautiful, inspiring poetry than to read an extract from essays. But if you don't like poetry and do like essays, read them."

"Don't spend your mental refreshment time in poring over fashion book or modern fiction. Use it for the strength that comes from the deeper springs of literature."

"Take a walk in the fresh air every day, even if you can be out only twenty minutes or a half hour. Take in the air in long, deep breaths; look for the beauty of sky and landscape and rejoice in it."

"If you spend half an hour lying down in absolute rest, a quarter of an hour in reading something that gives you a new spiritual point of view and if you add to those, a half hour in the fresh air, you take only an hour and a quarter for the mental refreshment. Never let a day go by in which you do not sit down quietly for at least fifteen minutes with a favorite book."

"As for myself, I am a great believer in the spiritual uplift of poetry. It is better for me to read, for a few minutes each day, some beautiful, inspiring poetry than to read an extract from essays. But if you don't like poetry and do like essays,
