SUBURBAN NEWS.

From the London Record, July 11.

AFFAIRS IN THE EAST.

We have often had occasion to remark how deeply the eyes of nations are directed to the condition of Italy and of the East. It would seem as if there were two chief points to which the nations are now turned; that the Papal tyranny is drawing to a close in Italy, and the Mohammedan conquest is warring in Asia.

Paris, via Tunis 17th.—There has been a conflict between the troops and the people, in consequence of popular manifestations in favour of those refugees who had disembarked at Naples. Several persons were killed.

British and For. American News.

United States.

THE VISIT OF THE PRINCE OF WALES.—The committee of reception in Montreal have arranged for a fleet of river and lake steamers which will go down the St. Lawrence thirty or more miles to the city. So far as we learn, the people of Canada are going about receiving their expected sovereign in a very sensible manner.

THE PRINCE OF WALES.—We are glad to be able to state that the Prince of Wales is no longer spreading. He is now one of the most popular of our monarchs.

Canada.

PREPARATION FOR THE PRINCE'S VISIT.—The great Exhibition building is fast approaching completion, and its interior is being decorated with the most beautiful designs.

Novo Scotia.

WE are indebted to Mr. Hoyt, the telegraph operator in this place, for information that His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales is expected to visit Nova Scotia.

The Protestant.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 4, 1860.

Visit of the Prince.

His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, the eldest son of our virtuous and beloved Queen, is no longer a stranger to her North American Colonies.

The Prince at Halifax.

HALIFAX, July 30, 1860.

During the hundred and ten years that have elapsed since the landing of Cornwallis on our shores, the good city of Halifax has witnessed no few days of glory.

News by Telegraph.

THE PRINCE OF WALES.—By a telegram received this morning from St. John, N. B., we learn that H. M. S. Albatross arrived at St. John, N. B., about 10 o'clock p. m. on Thursday, H. R. H. the Prince of Wales landed yesterday at noon amidst great cheering and loyal salutes.

THE PRESS AND THE PRINCE'S VISIT.—Several correspondents from various parts of the country, and a number of the press, were in Halifax on the occasion of the Prince's visit, and will probably follow him through the whole of his North American tour.

There is a Pleasure Excursion by the Steamer Arabian from Halifax to Charlottetown, advertised for Wednesday the 8th inst. This will give parties in New Brunswick an opportunity of witnessing the Prince's reception in this island.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE for July has been received from the American publishers L. Scott & Co., New York. This No. contains more than the ordinary amount of interesting reading matter.

LECTURES ON HUMAN LIFE.—We all attention to the programme in our advertising columns, of a Course of Lectures on Human Life and Science, as taught by Physiology and Phrenology, to be delivered in this city by Professor O. S. Fowler of New York.

CIVIC ELECTION.—An election of one Councillor for ward No. 4, to supply the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of John Bins, Esquire, took place yesterday.

THE LONDON TIMES OWNED BY THE ROTHSCHILDS.—It has recently been proved that the London Times is mainly owned by the Rothschilds, and the fact creates considerable sensation in London.

LOCUSTS IN HUNGARY.—Great hosts of locusts have been their appearance in Hungary, and parts of estates belonging to Baron Sina have already been ravaged by the voracious insects.

WILD CHERRY BALM.—The remedy of Dr. Wistar is embalm in the hearts of thousands, whom his Balm of Wild Cherry has cured of coughs, colds, consumptions, and other forms of Pulmonary disease.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—"Patriot" is in type, but has been crowded out of this week.
