NEW IDEAS IN FASHIONS

That Paris is showing taffeta and soutache suits trimmed with woolen fringe.

That Paris fashion shows feature the flowing dirndl gown of white muslin with blue girdle and India scarf across bare arms.

That among the new bolero jackets and box coats there are many smart Russian Blouses, when some declare are the coming favorites for the fall.

That the Bullox gowns and suits are featuring a new method of adjusting the skirt to the waistband, which is done by buttons, not stitches.

That when some girls describe a new shade of ribbon their friends wonder what words they have left for describing Yellowstone Park or Niagara Falls.

That tulle and baronette are the two fabrics that are menacing serge's popularity the most, although ratine and jersey are holding their own as well.

That a new material coming from London is a dark blue basket weave, loosely enough woven to be almost transparent and resembling the summer, crashe's of some seasons back, except that it has a smoother surface.

A substantial increase in the seasonal indemnity of members of Parliament from $2,500 to $4,000 is practically certain.

Social And Personal

A large number of young people from this city journeyed to Port Dalhousie last night to attend the dance and progressive euchre party held in Dalhousie Hall. A fine entertainment was provided and everyone had a real good time.

Relatives of the Day family in St. Catharines, who are living here, visited Mr. and Mrs. Thos. J. Day, of Haynes Avenue, St. Catharines, on Friday, who entertained the family in honor of their son, Corporal Will Day, just returned from overseas.

It is currently reported that Mr. F. N. Hara has sold his fine residence on Glen Ridge to Mr. L. E. McKinnon.

Mr. George Tossy who has conducted the Grand Central Hotel for some years has sold his interest. The new management will take charge the first of May.

It is reported that recently a well known lady of St. Catharines entertained a number of friends at her residence in the West End and discovered later that diamonds to the value of about $1,000 had disappeared. This is evidently a costly example of some wolf parading in sheep's clothing.

Hot Water for Sick Headaches

Tells why everyone should drink hot water with phosphate in it before breakfast.

Headache of any kind, is caused by auto-intoxication — which means self poisoning. Liver and bowel poisons called toxins, sucked into the blood, through the lymph ducts, excite the heart which pumps the blood so fast that it congests in the smaller arteries and veins of the head producing violent throbbing pain and distress, called headache. You become nervous, despondent, sick, feverish, and miserable, your meals sour and almost nauseate you. Then you resort to anetamide, aspirin, or the bromides which temporarily relieve but do not rid the blood of these irritating toxins.

A glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, drank before breakfast for awhile will not only wash these poisons from your system and cure you of headache but will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary canal.

Ask your pharmacist for a quarter pound of limestone phosphate. It is inexpensive, harmless as sugar, and almost tasteless, except for a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant.

If you aren't feeling your best, if tongue is coated or you wake up with bad taste, foul breath or have colds, indigestion, biliousness, constipation or sour, acid stomach, begin the phosphate hot water cure to rid your system of toxins and poisons.

Results are quick and it is claimed that those who continue to flush out the stomach, liver and bowels every morning never have any head ache or know a miserable moment.

IF WE ONLY COULD

If we all had our lives to live over again—

If we had, but we haven't you know, We'd all be just wonderful women and men,

And life would be robbed of its worry and woe;

As a matter of course, the dull things we have done,

Could we try it once more we would carefully shun,

And skies would be bright to each sorrowing one.

If we all had our lives to live over again—

If we had, but we haven't you know, We'd make it a vision of happiness then,

And fate would her kindest favors bestow;

If we only could run this strange mythical race

At some other time and in some other place;

Oh! couldn't we make earth a lovable place?

If we all had our lives to live over again.

If we all had our lives to live over again—

If we had, but we haven't you know, We'd carefully study the why and the when,

And make us a friend where we now have a foe;

But the edicts of nature we cannot reverse;

'Tis folly vain wishes to sadly rehearse,

And we might make existence a thousand times worse,

If we all had our lives to live over again.

DOROTHY GISH'S "THE HOPE CHEST" SUPERB PICTURE

Story Brings to Light Many Big Problems for Young Married Folk.

Suppose you were just married. Suppose you were looked upon as one with high social standing, and you had promised to love, honor and provide for one of your father's working girls, without his knowledge. Suppose your father found it out and forced you to separate from your wife. Suppose your cousin, who is in love with you, tells you your wife has been seen at twelve o'clock at night saying goodbye to one of the most widely known rogues of the city. Suppose you later found your wife in his arms. What would you do?

These are the problems that confronted Tom Ballantyne, in "The Hope Chest", Dorothy Gish's second Paramount picture which will be shown at the Griffin Theatre, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Their solution by Ballantyne, and the way Dorothy as the wife accepts the solution constitutes one of the most gripping moments of the play.

The girl was innocent. She had met the man by accident but her husband did not know that. The next night when she was found in this man's arms, had her husband been one moment sooner he would have seen her struggling with all her might to save herself from being kissed. And she was fainting when he found them.

Mark Lee Luther wrote the book, and Elmer Clifton directed the picture. The combination has produced an offering that will be called wonderful drama. It also has wonderful comedy in it.

This is the second picture in which Miss Gish is being starred by Paramount, the first having been "Battling Jane" a picture which won for itself the best press notices of any picture shown this season.

Another feature on this program will be the big new Bennett comedy, "Hide and Seek Detective."

Turpi and Lynn are detectives who pay more attention to their enjoyment than to their business. When they both fall in love with the same woman and find that they have a rival in big, burly Tom Kennedy, who represents their interference, events happen every minute. They lasso Kennedy, but he makes his escape in a novel fashion and he proceeds to massacre his rivals in wild west style.

There is a court room scene in this comedy which is said to be the most farcical event ever recorded on the screen. To give an inkling of what happens in the court room would be to destroy interest in a side-splitting farce. The comedy must be seen to be appreciated. Edward Cline was the director.

The third feature is Taylor in a big Five Part picture, entitled "Two Bit Seats". Selections from the latest operas by the Griffin Orchestra.

The Edmonton Trades and Labor Council last night after a stormy meeting, voted by a large majority to repudiate the action of the recent Calgary convention in seceding from the International Union.

AT THE KING GEORGE

Pearl White, the peerless, fearless queen of the serial kingdom, will be seen at the King George theatre on Friday and Saturday in the first episode of "The Lightning Raider." This is a continued photoplay serial in fifteen weekly episodes written by George B. Seitz and Bertram Millhauser and produced by the Aster Film Corporation. This wonderful production is without doubt the greatest serial that has ever been produced for the screen. It starts from the very beginning with an unusual and puzzling situation in which a beautiful and mysterious girl is concerned. It moves so fast and so fixes your interest that you do not have time to debate whether this or that could not be so. In fact you do not care. You are busily wondering just what is going to happen next and how it is going to be met, your mind working like that of a general who is watching the progress of a battle, alert for a chance for advancement at any point in the field. This production will swing the mind away from the grim realities of life into the thrills and perils of a wonderful make believe. Don't fail to see the first episode on Friday and Saturday.

THE GOOD THE CIRCUS DOES

Speaking at the Annual Banquet of The Showmen's League of America in Chicago last week, Hon. A. O. Eberhart, Ex-Governor of Minnesota, paid an unusual and pointed compliment to the circus.

His subject was, "The Showman's Service to Humanity."

He revealed powers of observation and an intimate acquaintance with esoteric facts and conditions which on the part of a layman not only surprised but astounded the seasoned veterans among the purveyors of amusement present.

Not only did he tell them of many things that they knew and that they were entitled to credit for—and seldom received—but he pointed out many other benefits that they had been unconsciously bestowing on the communities they visited annually.

And, what is speculatively important, he outlined many ways in which these blessings might be increased and multiplied.

No more moving and deeply affecting utterance was ever made from pulpit or platform than his simple description of how the circus brought a sorely needed dash of color into his own drab and gray boyhood days on a Northwestern frontier farm.

The dullness and monotony of existence in some farming communities poisons the minds of grown-ups and the very souls of the young. The stirring excitement of circus day proves a grateful and wonderfully efficient antidote.

The entertainment is the most rejuvenating, recreative agent imaginable.

And the sheer joy of the occasion—the spirit of festival—affords a distinct stimulus to communal activity and development.

But the main point that Governor Eberhart brought out, and this is new even to shrewd men of long and wide experience, is the fact that the circus works a most powerful influence in favor of education.

It quickens the desire to know. It creates intense curiosity in slow and sluggish intellects and then prods and lashes this curiosity until it converts it into a keen ambition to learn—to acquire knowledge.

Governor Eberhart pointed out that travel is a very great educative factor. Inspire a boy with an overmastering yearning to see the world and you have implanted in him a longing for learning that will hardly ever be wholly thwarted or denied.

To the young mind the circus is above all things "traveled." It is a visitor from another world—the great, wonderful outside world—a world of big cities, of other and different regions and climates, of strange countries and lands, of different peoples, customs, ambitions, aims, motives and objectives.

No other institution existent is capable of getting hold of the young imagination and imparting this impetus and trend to young thought as readily and thoroughly as the circus.

So strong and forceful is the influence it exercises that it not infrequently breaks down the reserve and resistance of the adult intellect.

It has started many a man and woman of mature years on pilgrimages from which they have invariably returned bigger and broader, prepared to lead larger and fuller lives themselves and to exert a benign and lasting influence on the lives of others that theirs touched.

In their imagination we can already see the circus and carnival company highly chatauquized—aligned with with the schools, academies and colleges and laboring valiantly in the glorious cause of education.
