Old Liberals Speak

the old liberals. The same thing is happening in the old liberal county of Huntington, which has never elected a conservative and for twenty-eight years has elected Mr Scriver by immense majorities or without opposi-tion. The Huntington Gleaner, perhaps the most influential of the liberal country the most influential of the liberal country weeklies in the province, takes exactly the same position as Mr Cook. It has de-clared over and over again that "the Ottawa ministers have been false to their comises and the principles they professed rhile in opposition, and the liberals should at least insist on Sir Wilfrid reconstruct ing his cabinet." Mr Scriver has with and now it is announced that the candi-late nominated in his place has also ithdrawn. Here is another case from the far West : Mr. Pettingell, the president of the Liberal Association at Regina, asked for

When the House was dissolved we were given the platform laid down in 1893, and se fought and worked in the interest of hat platform. We rejoiced when we had ied the day, for we thought that platorm would be carried out. I ask any nan if it has been carried out. I say, as hundreds of other Liberals are going b vote for Mr Davin. (Loud cheers and re newed cheers.) Mr. Davin may have his faults. No man can represent a constitu soif, like Nionardson and Oliver, for those fifteen years, a true independent, and has done more good for the North West Ter-ritories than ever Mr. Sifton has done, or could do in the future. [More cheering]. "I Law supportion bin and dones are ould do in the future.
