

The Love Divine.

O, thou pale Nazarene, whose God-like eye Saw far beyond Thy cross, Teach me to follow until even I, Poor pensioner of earth, shall waste no sigh For any earthly love.

The School of Sorrow.

I sat in the school of sorrow, The master was teaching there, But my eyes were dim with weeping, And my heart oppressed with care.

Alone With Conscience.

I sat alone with my conscience, In a place where time had ceased, And we talked of my former living, In the land where the years increased.

Pains in the Back.

Are symptoms of a weak, torpid or stagnant condition of the kidneys or liver, and are a warning to the sufferer to hasten to a healthy action of these organs.

Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Cures kidney and liver troubles, relieves the back, and builds up the whole system.

The Virgin's Tree.

Passing the terminal harbor of the great Ismailiah Canal, which conveys the waters of the Nile to Suaz and port said. We arrive from Cairo to Matruh, says a writer in the Catholic Sun.

The Church of Our Lady.

By this time our guide had finished and we had reached the high fence surrounding the church and grove of Our Lady. We rang a bell at the gate and in answer an old Arab unlocked the door.

The "Tree of Life."

Aphrodisius was converted to the Gospel after the death of Christ and was ordained first Bishop of Bzura. According to St. Thomas and Jerome the Scripture itself supports the belief in the Saviour having lived at Heliopolis.

A Miraculous Fountain.

We are told the tree opened to afford the Holy Family shelter, Joseph, having fled by order of the angel from the land of Israel reached the spot with the Divine Child and His Mother, worn out by the journey.

Her HEART and NERVES.

Were So Bad She Could Not Sleep.

To those who sleep in a kind of way, but whose rest is broken into by fearful dreams, nightmares, sinking and smothering sensations, who wake in the morning as tired as when they went to bed, we can recommend Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Arabian Prayer Beads.

When I visited the spot I had an opportunity to ride on a camel or donkey. As it is only twenty minutes ride, or three-quarters of an hour's walk, I preferred to walk.

Minard's Liniment cures Neuralgia.

As he could speak very good English I asked him if I might examine his prayer beads. He very graciously handed them to me. They were made of amber, strung on a silken cord, very much like our rosary, but where the crucifix is attached they have a silver seal on these beads they recite a verse from the Koran (or Karhan)—"O High, O Great, O God, Thy perfection is exalted."

Formerly, the man who could accept the walk and two step was acceptable almost everywhere. But it is now necessary for him to have a repertoire.
