The stars of the evening were Mr E. W. Schuch and Miss Jessie Alexander, of Toronto, and they were well assisted by Miss Tillie Graham, of our own town, and Miss Watson, of Detroit. The singing of Mr Schuch was of a vigorous and magnetic character. He possesses a rich baritone voice of large compass, and has the power of throwing full expression into every note. The recitations of Miss Alexander were of a telling nature, and whether in the high strung and forceful whether in the high strung and forceful passages of "Ginevra," the diverse characterization of the "Medley," or the child-like representation of "Curvature of the Spine" and "The Gobline "Il Git Ye," she seemed at home.
