CITY BUYS MORE WOODEN PIPE

Exhaustive Report of Mayor Mills Read at Strathcona Council Meeting.

A special meeting of the Strathcona city council was held last night with all the councillors present and Mayor Mills presiding.

Sanitation By-law. The new sanitation by-law, by consent of the council, was given its three readings and passed.

Sanitary Inspector Appointed. In this connection to act also as policeman, was considered at some length.

To enforce License Law. The following resolution was moved by Ald. Elliott:

Mayor's Report Read. At this juncture the lengthy report of Mayor Mills on the wooden pipe, promulgated campaign of last winter, was submitted and read.

Wooden Pipe Contract. Ald. Hulbert reported for the sewer and waterworks committee, recommending that the contract for wooden pipe for waterworks be awarded to the Canadian Pipe Co.

In answer to an interrogation from Mr. McFarland, the city engineer, who has during the past month, showed some irritation on the question.

Ald. Crawford asked permission for the Methodist church to be moved on part of the land adjoining their property where the new building was being erected.

It has been thought by many that the frost is almost entirely out of the ground but City Engineer McLean is authority for the statement that there is still five feet in the avenue in front of the Methodist church.

Mr. Clarke, of the Clarke Dredging Co., has his material nearly all on the ground for the erection of his dredge. One cat however, was not arrived and he was considerably perturbed yesterday at the report of the threatened tie-up in C. P. R. freight.

All interested in the formation of a street ball club are requested to meet in the fire hall Monday evening at 8 o'clock. A number of the enthusiasts are at work and a good live amateur organization will likely be the result.

H. G. Clark and T. E. Tipton, have opened a real estate office adjoining Tipton's bookstore.

A ROMANCE OF THE EAST SIDE

An Italian Bandit, Head of Society of Terrorists Captured in New York.

New York, April 21.—A police raid on an obscure resort in the underground world of the East side has brought to light the romantic story of an Italian bandit, a fantastic neapolitan Bob Roy of great renown, who, fleeing from his native country to escape arrest for assassination, had come to this city.

When the police raided the East Side den one night last week Alfonso was discovered crouching in a corner behind a door, with a square set of policeman's lantern. He has been held without bail until to-morrow, on a charge of being a member of the "Camorra di Napoli," an Italian organization of terrorists.

Death was the punishment inflicted on one Coccolo, a pretender to the throne of the Camorra, who was killed by a bullet from the hand of Alfonso and his associates. The wife of Coccolo was condemned and Alfonso and his associates, called the "Camorra di Napoli," were set free to roam at will unharmed because of their invulnerability to bullets and impossible to capture.

Then suddenly Alfonso disappeared. Then suddenly Alfonso disappeared. Then suddenly Alfonso disappeared. Then suddenly Alfonso disappeared.

It was thought by many that the frost is almost entirely out of the ground but City Engineer McLean is authority for the statement that there is still five feet in the avenue in front of the Methodist church.

Mr. Clarke, of the Clarke Dredging Co., has his material nearly all on the ground for the erection of his dredge. One cat however, was not arrived and he was considerably perturbed yesterday at the report of the threatened tie-up in C. P. R. freight.

SEVENTY FIVE WERE DROWNED

By the Foundering of a River Steamer on the Neva River.

Associated Press Despatch. St. Petersburg, April 21.—Seventy-five persons at least are believed to have been drowned by the foundering of the river steamer Archangelaki, while she was crossing the Neva near the suburb of Orinoka late Saturday night.

The sin of doing nothing is the deadliest of the seven deadly sins he continued. "We are here to save alone. Men cannot be saved alone. The state must be saved. We are here to claim the world of politics as Christ's world. Clean politics are a flag and country's honor, her fame and future, can afford to be indifferent. It is not for me to lecture you about American conditions. It is for me to learn from you what they are. But the most thoughtful outlooker from the old world who has ever read a part of history knows that, in the millions of the European peoples, no nation has ever yet had to solve since history began. I read the figures which set this problem visibly before the eyes of men and I am lost in amazement. Then, as the facts behind the figures begin to take shape and substance, my brain reels before that immensity."

"Thank God every morning when you see that day which must be done whether you like it or not. Being a part of the world, you have your temperance and self-control, dignity and strength of will, cheerfulness and courage, and a hundred virtues which the world will never know."

LONDON LAUGHS AT OUTBURST

German Press Against King Edward's Mediterranean Trip.—Interested in New Dance.

Associated Press Despatch. New York, April 21.—A special cable from London to the New York Herald to-day says: "Outbursts in the German press against England or anything in the English press are usually followed by contradictions in the English papers. But the frenzied outpourings which have been appearing in German newspapers and the German papers published in Austria, denouncing King Edward's Mediterranean tour and his visit to King Alfonso and King Victor Emmanuel have aroused not the least excitement in England."

A Silent Contempt. Beyond publishing despatches from Berlin and other correspondents who quote what the German papers have to say, hardly a word of comment has appeared in the London press. Even the Germans talk about King Edward's relentless anti-German agitation and of "a coming war" is passed over as apparently unworthy of notice.

Enthusiasm and honesty of purpose the dominating traits of Dr. Aked's service, were reflected in the audience which gathered to greet him today. The unpretentious and modest proportioned edifice which stands close to Fifth avenue on West 46th street had many people anxious to hear the salutory of the preacher known to two continents. Indeed, as many as three hundred were turned away.

Dr. Aked proved an unconventional preacher. In stature, this comparatively young Englishman is well above the middle of the average with a square set of shoulders and an athletic frame. He has a strikingly strong face, and his address is marked by a certain resemblance to President Roosevelt.

REDUCTION OF POSTAL RATES

On British Papers Coming to Canada. New Rate is Per Pound.

(From Our Own Correspondent in Press Gallery.) Ottawa, April 15.—The rate of postage on British newspapers and magazines sent to Canada has been reduced, by agreement between the British and Canadian governments, from 8 cents per pound to one penny per pound.

This announcement was simultaneously today by Right Hon. Sydney Buxton, the Postmaster-General of Great Britain, in the House of Commons at Westminster and by Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, Postmaster-General of Canada, in the House of Commons here.

It was vitally that this important announcement should be made today when the Colonial Conference assembled in London.

In Force Next Month. Hon. Mr. Lemieux's statement coming was in these words: "The following arrangement has been made between His Majesty's Postmaster-General (Mr. Sydney Buxton) and the Postmaster-General of Canada (Mr. Lemieux) and will take effect on May 1st, 1907."

"At present the rate on British newspapers, magazines and journals going to Canada is fixed by the Postal Union Convention, viz.: 1-2d. per 2 ozs., which is roughly equivalent to 8 cents per pound. Under the existing conditions the articles in question are unable to obtain a footing in Canada with the consequence that the newspapers, magazines, etc., circulated in Canada is very inconsiderable."

"This state of affairs is unable to the growth of close sympathy and common sentiment between Canada and the mother country is, at the same time, prejudicial to the mutual trade and material interests of both countries."

"With common desire of peace and encouraging in regard to matters, freer and more mutually beneficial intercourse between the Kingdom and Canada, His Majesty's Postmaster-General and the Postmaster-General of Canada have agreed to the following: Penny Per Pound.

"The postage from the United Kingdom to Canada on registered newspapers and on bona fide magazines and trade literature (published at regular intervals of not more than one month) is to be reduced to a rate of one penny per lb. on each packet (charges on packets not exceeding 2 ozs. remaining at a half-penny per lb. on each packet).

"This special reduction will be in force from the 1st of May, 1907, and will be subject to the approval of the British and Canadian governments. The special rate will be maintained and administrative regulations will be laid down by the British office."

"The arrangement will remain in force for a period of four years, less previously modified or cancelled by mutual agreement."

In reply to Mr. Foster, Mr. Lemieux said that the new arrangement would involve a loss to the Canadian government of between $25,000 and $30,000. The loss to the British Post Office would be considerably heavier, but he desired to point out that the special rate of Canada to Mr. Buxton, who gave a concession to Canada for the first time.
