Gas and Hospitality.

The sound of motor wheels heralding the arrival of unexpected guests has no terrors for the housewife whose menage is run on up-to-date lines. While the visitors are removing the traces of travel with the hot water which a gas water-heater traces always "on tap," a match to the gas fire makes the draw-ling room a place of warmth and pleasantness for their reception; and the children love to "help mother" by toasting the crumpets before the clear and smokeless glow. crumpets before the clear and smokeless glow.

The gas cooker (or the modern gas trivet by the drawing rooms gas fire) boils a kettle of water in no time, and within a quarter of an hour after their arrival the guests are enjoying a cosy chat over the cup that cheers. Should they be persuaded to stay, the invaluable cooker makes it possible, even at such short notice, for the experienced housewife, after a raid upon her emergency store cupboard, to set before them a dainty dinner of which no hostess need be ashamed. THE GREEK SITUATION.

LONDON, Nov. 28. The Greek situation is again disquieting. The Athens correspondent of Reuter's Telegram Co., says: With reference to the new joint note by the Entente Ministers, optimism has given place to skepticism. An Athens despatch to Lloyd's News says: The note demanded a reply at the earliest possible moment. The interview of Premier Skouloudis with the King lasted an hour, after which the cabinet council discussed the various questions at issue for several hours. and held that only several points formulated, are acceptable to Greece. The situation, this despatch adds.

WEATHER HINDERING OPERA.

PARIS, Nov. 28. The Salonika correspondent of the Havas Agency sends the following, under Saturday's date: Bad weather and snow are preventing all operations on the French and British fronts. The Serbians have completely evacuated Katchanik. They are retiring to wards Albania by routes leading to Scutari, Durazzo, and Santi Quarta.
