INTERESTING.

Use Cottam's Washing Compound

And your clothes will not be rotted away with injurious chemicals or worn away by the wash-board or scrubbing brush, as no rubbing is required. Clothes are not made yellow by the use of this compound; but on the contrary, very white and soft of a brilliant color.

Washing and cleaning is done more quickly and thoroughly with less labor, so that washing day is now no longer dreaded. Clothes, soap, time, labor and patience are saved.
Everything thoroughly disinfected and disease kept down by the use of C. W. C. Ask your grocer for it, and do not allow him to substitute "something just as good" for this compound.

LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—You may shoot quail to-day.

—Charles Reid, of Reid Bros. & Co., was in Winnipeg Oct. 3.

—Mrs. Col. Tracy, with her son and daughter, leave in a few days to join Col.

Tracy at Vancouver, B. C.

—L. F. Anstruther, M.D., of Ottawa, grand junior warden of the Grand Lodge,

A. F. and A. M., was at the Grigg House

Tuesday.

—Mr. Wm. Geary, of South London, will press his suit against the city for alleged damages to his flats by putting a drain through them.

—About 25 delegates left this city Tuesday to attend the annual meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church at Larnoch.

—Mr. E. Parvill, jun., of South London, —Two unknown drunks, one having $17 and the other $1, were fined $1 each by the police magistrate yesterday.

—John Lewis, a Richmond street hotel-keeper, is charged by License Commissioner

Henderson with selling liquor after hours.

The case will be tried at the Police Court on Friday.

—Seven carloads of green sealskins, enroute from Alaska to London, Eng., via the Grand Trunk, passed through the city yesterday. They were valued at about $50,000 a carload.

—Mr. and Mrs. David Glass, of Spokane

Falls, have returned to the city from a two-year trip through Europe. They will reside here for a short time before leaving for a trip around the world.

—Miss Ida Weston, late of Woodstock and formerly of this city, has gone to Chicago, where she will permanently reside.

Her father, Peter Weston, accompanied her from this city yesterday morning.

—Miss Mary Lavina Pitman and Mr. A.

H. Parsons, both of this city, were married last night by Rev. Canon Adams at the residence of the bride's sister, 325 Grey street.

The happy couple left for a western honeymoon trip.

—Ladies wishing to enjoy a run across the country will be able to do so, as Mr. Fulcher is taking special pains to have low places for them to jump. Gentlemen will take the side jumps. It is hoped that ladies will take advantage of this opportunity.

—The visiting members of the Wholesale Grocers' Guild will be entertained by the local guild at the kennels this afternoon at 2:30. There will be a large attendance of members, and a good run and a jolly time are among the expectations.

Attention is drawn to the fact that the run will commence at 3:30 sharp instead of 4, as advertised.

—Mrs. Michael Briedy, who lives on Dundas street near Kensington bridge, was severely burned Tuesday afternoon. She was washing, and while removing the boiler from the stove had caught fire.

Her laundry had been put in a large tub of water. Medical aid was summoned at once and it was ascertained that she was lightly burned on the hands and arms.

Her injuries are not serious but are very painful.

—At the complaint of Dr. J. D. Wilson, Mary Hoover was again at the Police Court yesterday on a charge of insanity. He was of the opinion that she was as bad, if not worse, than she was when committed for examination about a month ago. Dr. Smith, junior surgeon, stated that when she was charged from the jail a short time ago she had become perfectly rational, and that a lady living in East London had promised to take her to her friends in the United States. That her insanity was periodic.

The magistrate committed her for examination.

—London Council, Royal Templars of Temperance, Tuesday night threw open their doors to the public and entertained them with a short but interesting programme, consisting of songs, duets, quartets, recitations and a debate—"Resolved, that married life is preferable to single life." The jury was duly constituted by W. G. Bell and Mrs. Allen, and the negative by E. A. Cunningham and H.

Watts. The negative, as a matter of course, in a gathering where young people predominated, won by a large majority. The select councilor, E. W. Scott, occupied the chair.

Following the celebrated Mantell comes another on Friday night in the person of James O'Neill. The Atlanta (Ga.) Constitution thus describes his acting: "Mr.

O'Neill kept his hearers wrapt in attention the misdeeds of his boy, afterwards the miserable prisoner of eighteen years, and then as the cool and determined possessor of the treasure of Monte Cristo—with vengeance his only aim. The nature of his calm demeanor, or the outbursts of his passion, caught the audience and swayed it from admiration to awe. His interpretation of the character is truly grand.

—Benetua vs. Masurel.—Hilton, for the

CORNS AND BUNYONS

AND SURE CURE.

It is surprising the enormously increasing prevalence of corns and bunions in this generation, and still more so when we remember that for the trifling sum of 25 cents the sure corn cure or sure bunion cure can be obtained. A prominent professional gentleman remarked the other day: "I tried almost every known preparation for corns without avail, and concluded there was no cure, when a friend recommended the Sure Corn Cure; as the last resort I tried it with the desired effect. My corns have all disappeared, and I am now convinced that there is a sure cure for corns at last, and in fact, the proprietor, W. S. Barkwell, our enterprising young chemist, I gratefully acknowledge the same."
