Interesting and Varied Programme at the London West Methodist Church -Encouraging Reports for Past Year.

The three-day anniversary services Sunday school were brought to a termination by a tea meeting to the scholars and officers last night. The officers and teachers feel highly pleased with the great progress made by the school during the year, both financially and otherwise. The report of the secretary, Mr. R. Donahy, showed an average attendance of teachers of 19 out of 20, and an average of 180 scholars. The report also made feeling references to the deaths of two of their number during the year-Miss Minnie Doupe and Miss Maud Taylor-but it was a matter of rejoicing that their end was peace in

The report of the treasurer, Miss
