TOOK THE SECOND.

The 300 people who journey to Tecumseh Park yesterday saw London turn down the Hams in a very fast exhibition of ball in the second game of the Candian championship series. The Hams worked hard to win, and it looked very much like as if they would pull the game out of the fire in the eighth inning, when they succeeded, through heavy slugging and a couple of errors, in piling up four tallies, with only one man out and a runner on third. The next two men up, howver, died in the infield, and the Hams had lost their chance. They were still hugging the small end of the tally, and in the ninth failed to secure the neceseary run to tie matters. Buege, who was in the box for the visitors, put up a star game, but at times received ragged support. He made four clean hits out of the same number of times at bat, and issued only four passes. Cooper was hit pretty hard, and issued eight passes, but he had his eye on the ball, two nice hits being credited to The Hame scored in the first. Cockman singled, stole second, and crossed the plate on a wild throw by Mohler to third. London scored two in their half of the first, on Mohler's single, Hemphill's triple and Hart's long drive to right field. The Hams did not score again until the eighth inning. Radeliffe scored for the home team in the third on a charity and a pair of sacrifices, and in the fourth three more runs were piled up. Reed hit to short, but Sheehan failed to get after it, and Reed reached third on Lohman's single, and scored on Cooper's single. Radcliffe then drove the ball out to center over the track, plate. This ended the home team's scoring. The score: LONDON.

NOTES. Another cup is on the way. The attendance is picking up. Hamilton had three pitchers in the game—Buege, Freeland and Bradford.

Manager Chub Collins took in the game from the players' bench. He was not the happiest man on the grounds. Shorty Conwell—"Wait until we get you in Hamilton." Freeland, the ex-London pitcher. struck out four times.

There are decidedly worse umpires in the business than McFadden. That was a trying eighth inning for Capt. Pete Lohman. Radcliffe has made four hits in seven times at bat in the two games. Georgie Bradsford was given a big reception by the rooters, but it was not of the variety he appreciated. Fifteen men left on bases — that's Hamilton's share of the luck.

There was lots of enthusiasm displayed by the people in the stands, which speaks well for the popularity of the
